Man held for circulating deepfake photos of three young girls on social media

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Belagavi

THE Belagavi district police arrested a man who edited the photos of a young girl and her two friends and turned them into nude pictures by deep editing and then circulated them on social media for rejecting his love proposal.

A young man named Manthan Patil from Khanapur town of Belagavi district was in love with a young girl. But, when she refused to accept his proposal, he threatened to defame her and her friends.

He opened a fake social media account in the name of the girl and uploaded an edited, deepfake photo of the girl and her friends showing them nude in the picture.

Manthan Patil, who uploaded a nude photo on social media, is an IT employee in Bengaluru.

The victim girl approached the Khanapur police station and lodged a complaint. Acting on the complaint, the Khanapur police started invetigations and arrested the accused Manthan Patil.

District Superintendent of Police Dr Bhimashankar Guled said, "The accused took the photo from the social media account of the victim girl and edited the photo using the deep fake photo editor technology.

> He then opened a fake social media account in the name of the victim girl and uploaded her edited nude photo. The victim girl came forward and complained about the injustice done to her. The accused has been arrested and legal action taken."

"Such incidents may happen to anyone as the technology has become advanced and is easy to access. If anyone has become victim by such a deep fake photo or video, they should come forward to lodge a complaint at the nearest police station. Stringent action will be taken against the guilty." said SP Dr Guled.
