No bail for cheating MBBS students

PMLA court has denied bail to SCSES treasurer Appasaheb Deshmukh for siphoning ₹65 cr

CHARUL SHAH JOSHI / Mumbai

The special Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) court has refused to grant bail to Appasaheb Deshmukh, the 61-year-old former treasurer of Shri Chhatrapati Shivaji Education Society (SCSES) that ran a college booked for laundering Rs65.7 crore collected as fees from students.

Noting the manner in which the money was siphoned and the proceeds of crime were integrated, special judge MG Deshpande held that the accused would cause disappearance of evidence during the Enforcement Directorate (ED) probe if bail is granted.

The court noted that out of Rs65.7 crore, Rs4.12 crore went into Deshmukh's account. The ED claimed that he integrated the cash with his agricultural and business income, claiming that the proceeds were untainted.

The court observed that there are multiple FIRs lodged all over Maharashtra by parents. "It cannot be ignored that innocent parents had put their entire life earnings on stake to get MBBS ad-

MEASURES TAKEN FOR RELIEF

- May 2016, president of the Admission Control Committee (Mumbai) imposed a fine of Rs20 lakh per student
- Directed to deposit 10% thereof within 10 days
- Remaining amount to be paid within 90 days
- The board decided to regularise the admissions
- Institution failed to make payment and 95 students suffered mission for their children," the court said, adding that the accused knew it would amount to breach of the Supreme Court order against huge fees for MBBS admission in management quota. The judge said it also wasted one to two years of students' academic life.

As per the complaints, the society started a medical college in the name of Institute of Medical Science and Research Centre (IMSRC) in 2011. It is claimed that IMSRC granted MBBS admission for 2012-13 and 2013-14 (100 seats per year), 85 seats in government quota and 15 seats in management quota. After 2013-14, the permission was not renewed by the Medical Council of India. The permission for seats under the management quota was for two years, which wasn't extended.

Clean chit to cops in death of man who jumped off bldg

URVI MAHAJANI / Mumbai

The Bombay High Court has given a clean chit to the Bhandup police in the death of a 28-year-old man who jumped to his death from the 18th floor of a building in 2017 under the influence of ganja. Convinced that the police have not left any angle untouched, the court said there was no need for further probe or transfer to any independent agency.

The HC was hearing a petition filed by the man's father, seeking investigation by an independent agency. He had alleged that the police did not probe the matter properly. The man worked with an MNC in Powai and was staying in a rented flat in Bhandup. He had jumped to his death on May 2, 2017.

During the probe, the police recorded the statements of seven witnesses, including his friends. It submitted a closure report to the magistrate on October 15, 2019, which was accepted.

Advocates Meghashyam Kocharekar and Amit Ghag, appearing for the father, argued that the police recorded the witness statements two years after the incident. Also, the building watch-man's statement was not recorded.

The judges noted that the man was with his friend and had consumed ganja on the day of the incident, and it had an effect on him. After receiving a phone call, he was under tremendous pressure and started talking incoherently. While his friends tried to pacify him, he suddenly jumped out of the window. The deceased spoke to his sister and his fiancée on a conference call and stated in unequivocal terms that he was having a party with his friends and they had consumed ganja.

Life in jail for killing friend over money

CHARUL SHAH JOSHI / Mumbai

The sessions court has sentenced a 31-year-old man to life imprisonment for fatally assaulting his friend over a monetary dispute in June 2020. The accused as well as the deceased were both drug addicts and used to reside on the pavement near Azad Maidan.

As per the prosecution case, on June 15, 2020, Mohammad Salim Shaikh and Sagar had a fight during which Shaikh hit Sagar on his head with a bamboo stick. The complaint in the case was lodged by a constable, who was on patrolling duty and stopped when a crowd gathered at Bhatia Baugh, near Bora Bazar Chowki.

The constable claimed that Shaikh was holding the bamboo stick that was used to assault his friend. Sagar's friend had told the police that the two fought as Shaikh had lent Sagar money, which he refused to return.

Shaikh, in his defence, claimed that Sagar had stolen some articles and was trying to flee when he slipped and fell on the footpath, sustaining injuries. Denying being present on the spot, he claimed that Sagar was a drug addict and fell on his own.

The public prosecutor Ranjana Budhwant examined 13 witnesses, including four eyewitnesses. The court accepted the eyewitness accounts and found them consistent with CCTV footage.

The court said, "The evidence of prosecution witnesses is cogent, trustworthy and believable. In such circumstances, the defence of the accused is not probable." The court further said, "If accused had no intention to cause his friend's death, he would have stopped after one blow of the bamboo. However, he continued to hit him."

The accused hit the victim with a bamboo stick on his head till he succumbed

Road rage: BMC worker convicted

CHARUL SHAH JOSHI / Mumbai

The sessions court has convicted a 40-year-old BMC employee attached to the fire brigade for assaulting a BEST bus driver in April 2014. The court has refused to grant him benefit of the Probation Act, observing that he too is a public servant and should have been more careful.

On April 30, 2014, the complainant, Vitthal Avhad, was posted at the Wadala depot and was driving the bus on route number 174 to Borivali. He was assaulted by Amit Shinde for not letting him overtake.

At around 2.19pm, the bus started from Borivali for Wadala. On Western Express Highway, it was about to enter Malad when a bike started honking, wanting to overtake. Avhad claimed that when he ignored the biker, he overtook the bus, parked in front of it and started abusing him. He forcibly opened Avhad's door, climbed in and slapped him. Later, the conductor, driver, motorcyclist and witnesses went to the police station.
