INDUSTRY REVIEW AND OVERVIEW

Your Company is an IT, Consulting, and next generation Digital Solutions provider, offering business technology and related services to global enterprises. All our services and solutions are designed with 'High spectrum Customer experience' and 'Business performance (of the customer)' as objectives we cater to. We call this 'Business first' approach.

Global impact of the COVID-19 pandemic has led to two major resets or shifts - an acceleration in the pace of digital transformation and a novel, hybrid work model that has redefined the dimensions of already evolving workplace and work culture

The underlying theme this year is the pandemic-led global reset, the digital transformation imperative and the changing value proposition for businesses.

Signals across global industries have unequivocally suggested significant increase in digital investments with heightened urgency to execute in months what was expected in years earlier, the focus is on delivering customer-centric solutions through new data-led business models, while enabling hybrid work and mass-scale digital skilling.

Despite headwinds in 2020, Indian tech industry continues to be a net hirer with significant focus on digital up skilling. Investing in digital continues to rise as an imperative for the industry, with organisations building their capabilities and aligning business models to digital practices.

Enterprises are re-balancing their technology spends to prioritize digitization. Companies saw a significant rise in cloud adoption during the year as against previous year. COVID -19 has accelerated digital adoption across industries and technology service providers are witnessing a sharp growth in digital deals.

As we enter the new normal, however, analysts are cautiously optimistic, and technology is expected to drive frontend operations and customer experience. In terms of hiring, interestingly, as the industry looks forward at leaner structures with more flexibility and faster adoption of cloud-based products and services in 2021, the industry, expect larger digitization deals in 2021, with investments likely to recover in core sectors, Retail and Manufacturing. With hyper-digitization and technology adoption accelerating across sectors, 2021 will put the spotlight on emergence of growth verticals like healthcare, pharma, medical devices, software & internet, consumer electronics. As India stands at the cusp of a re-imagined Techade, 2021 will re-define the industry narrative for the future.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The client market segments we serve are faced with challenges and opportunities arising from the COVID-19 pandemic and its resulting impact on the economy. We believe the investments we have made, and continue to make, in our strategy will enable us to advise and help our clients as they tackle these market conditions.

OUR STRATEGY

There are many more reasons for optimism, though. As with last year, IT pros see a bright outlook thanks to the high demand for skills, driven by the increasing importance of technology to business strategy. This dynamic has been in play for the past several years, as companies have moved away from a traditional mindset around tactical IT. In some ways, tactical IT will have a resurgence in 2021 as companies continue responding to needs highlighted during the pandemic. However, the long-term trends toward strategic thinking and digital transformation will be the primary forces impacting the technology function.

We have successfully shifted to WFH model, thus achieving the operational stability to deliver on client commitments and ensuring our own business continuity. All our clients are extremely happy with our approach of managing services through WFH infrastructure, employee engagement, and work monitoring-reporting-review mechanisms. Sagarsoft highlights responsiveness on Pandemic disruption highlights need for operational resilience and enterprise adaptability and also looking for market share expansion.

Translating the Business first approach into solutions, services and Corporate messaging: At a very broad level, our focus areas are: Applications (+ platforms/ products), Infrastructure, Data (& Analytics) and Security. Bringing those 4 components together, we crafted a unique and holistic approach to Digital transformation which we call as Digital DAIS™. Digital DAIS delivers Data and Technology services in a 'Business first' manner; amplifying Business capabilities of our customers and enabling enhanced Business Performance.

OUTLOOK, RISKS AND CONCERNS

For everything that changed in 2020, one thing that stayed the same was the importance of technology to business success. In fact, that importance grew as organizations had to quickly restructure their operations in order to support a remote workforce and improve flexibility and resiliency. Heading into 2021, there is no well defined blueprint for the ongoing rebuilding effort, but it is certain that technology will continue to play a pivotal role. It is no surprise, then, that IT professionals overwhelmingly have a positive outlook for their job prospects. Nearly 80% of IT pros feel good about their role as a technologist, with 20% having mixed feelings and a very small minority feeling concerned. This represents a slight drop in sentiment from last year, with most of the shift going from the optimistic end of the scale into mixed feelings. Obviously, the current environment plays a major role-the leading case for pessimism is uncertainty around job security following the COVID pandemic.

New concerns that stem from a remote workforce have been a primary trigger for both security awareness education and security investments. Risk analysis, cyber security analytics, and penetration testing are all areas that need improvement as companies adopt a zero trust mindset. Cyber security metrics rank lowest for the coming year, which signals the ongoing challenge in bridging the gap between cyber security best practices and business health.

The second half of FY2021 is witnessing strong recovery of the technology sector in India, and industry seems to be back to pre-COVID level growth, coupled with strong deal pipelines, and solid margins. Survey expect global India's technology sector to grow significantly higher in 2021 as compared to 2020.

Your company has engaged Ernst & Young to study the current status of our Infrastructure, security, policies, procedures and associated risks due to the current change to WFH delivery model and advice on measures to mitigate the risks identified.

Other factors that influence revenue growth projections include currency effects, pricing, and product mix. The tech space is somewhat unique in that prices tend to fall, which may result in higher billable hours, but modest revenue growth. In the year ahead, the product mix will be an especially important factor, as the high growth rates of emerging categories are expected to more than offset the slow growth mature categories. Growth expectations are in line with the global projection.

These are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these statements as a result of certain factors. Your Board is cautiously optimistic about the future outlook taking into overall view of the above.

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of M/s Sagarsoft (India) Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2021, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income) and the Statement of Changes in Equity and the Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended on that date, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the standalone financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2021, the profit and total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act (SAs). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

S. No.	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
1	Review of Ind-AS116 (Accounting for leases) Application of Ind-AS116, accounting for leases, is effective from Financial Year 2019-20. Under this model lessee's Right-of-Use (ROU) of the leased asset during the lease period as per contract is accounted for as an asset and payments to be made during the duration of lease as per contract period to lesser is accounted for as a liability by discounting the future lease payments to be made during the lease period. Thus, lease asset and lease liability are reflected in the Balance sheet. Review of the standard involves significant judgments and estimates including, determination of the discount rates and the lease term. The standard requires detailed disclosure of the transaction.	Principal Audit Procedures We have reviewed and assessed the lease agreements including lease renewals, all important terms of the lease agreements that have a bearing on the underlying contract. Reviewed calculations made in accounting for leased assets and liabilities. Also, assessed the reasonableness and appropriateness of discount rate applied for arriving at present value of future lease payments. Further, robustness of accounting and presentation is ascertained by reconciling lease payments as per contract for entire lease period with ROU asset and leased liabilities accounting. Disclosures made are assessed for compliance with IndAS116.

Emphasis of matter

We draw your attention to Note 1(M) under the sub-heading dealing with uncertainties thrown up as a consequence of COVID-19 pandemic, management's assessment of impact on financial reporting and future operations of the company and the remedial measure put in place to mitigate adverse effects. However, the actual impact of COVID-19 on the financial statements may differ from that estimated. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Director's report and Management discussion and analysis report including Annexures, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's information but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the individual financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Individual Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the individual financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. The Board of Directors are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these individual financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- a. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the individual financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- b. Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- c. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- d. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- e. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the individual financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016, ("the Order") issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (11) of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013, we give in the Annexure A, a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order, to the extent applicable.

- f. With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate report in "Annexure B". Our report expresses an unmodified opinion on the adequacy and the operating effectiveness of the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting.

Annexure - B to the Auditor's Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of M/s Sagarsoft (India) Limited ("the Company") as of March 31, 2021 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

1. Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
2. Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
3. Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2021 based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

Key sources of estimation of uncertainty at the date of the financial statements, which may cause a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are in respect of impairment of useful lives of property, plant and equipment, valuation of deferred tax assets and fair value measurement of financial instruments, these are discussed below. Key sources of estimation of uncertainty in respect of revenue recognition, employee benefits and provisions and contingent liabilities have been discussed in their respective policies.

Deferred Tax

Deferred tax charge or credit reflects the tax effects due to timing differences between accounting income and taxable income for the period. The deferred tax charge or credit and the corresponding deferred tax liabilities or assets are recognized using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent there is reasonable certainty that assets can be realized in future; however, where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward of losses, deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is a virtual certainty of realization of such assets. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down or written up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realized.

(H) Earnings per share:

The basic earnings per share ('EPS') is computed by dividing the net profit after tax for the year by weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, net profit after tax for the year and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

(I) Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost net of recoverable taxes, discounts and rebates and includes all costs incurred till the asset is ready for the intended use, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any.

Property, plant and equipment is depreciated under straight line method after considering the useful life's and residual values at the time of acquisition and reviewed at end of each financial year. The cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the financial statements upon sale or retirement of the asset and the resultant gains or losses are recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

(J) Cash flow statements

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, where by profit/(loss) before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non- cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

(K) Financial Instruments

(i) Initial Recognition

Financial assets and liabilities are recognized when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability.

(ii) Subsequent Measurement

- a. Financial Assets carried at amortized cost: a financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- b. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income: A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The company has made an irrevocable election for its investments which are classified as equity instruments to present the subsequent changes in fair.

- c. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss: A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories are subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.
- d. Financial liabilities: Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, except for contingent consideration recognized in a business combination which is subsequently measured at fair value through profit and loss. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the Balance Sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

The above measurements are applied wherever applicable

- (iii) De-recognition of financial assets and liabilities:

a. Financial assets:

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the Company retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Company continues to recognize the financial asset and also recognizes a collateralized borrowing for the proceeds received.

On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity is recognized in profit or loss if such gain or loss would have otherwise been recognized in profit or loss on disposal of that financial asset.

b. Financial liabilities:

The Company derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognized and the consideration paid and payable is recognized in profit or loss.

Note: the above principles are applied wherever applicable

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when, as a result of a past event, the Company has a legal or constructive obligation; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount can be reliably estimated. The amount so recognized is a best estimate of the consideration required to settle the obligation at the reporting date, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

(L) Impairment of assets

a. Financial assets:

Financing component is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month ECL, unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk from initial recognition in which case those are measured at lifetime ECL. The amount of expected credit losses (or reversal) that is required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date.

For trade receivables only, the Company applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109. Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognized from initial recognition of the receivables. As a practical expedient, the company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivable and is adjusted for forward looking estimates. The ECL loss allowance (or reversal) during the year is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

b. Non-financial assets:

Intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

Intangible assets and property, plant and equipment are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating units (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated recoverable amount of the asset. An impairment loss is reversed in the statement of profit and loss if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. The carrying amount of the asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation).

(M) Estimation of uncertainties relating to the impact COVID-19 pandemic.

The spread of COVID 19 pandemic across the globe and the consequent remedial measures against the virus taken by the governments of various countries and the Indian Government are having impact on the operations of the various economies, all of which has led to substantial contraction of demand.

In view of the above pandemic, its impact on the company's operations has been considered and a sensitivity analysis based on current estimates in assessing the recoverability of receivables also has been performed. However, the actual impact of COVID-19 on the financial statements may differ from that estimated and the Company will continue to closely monitor any material changes to future economic conditions.

(N) Leases

Company's lease assets consist of buildings

Identifying of lease

At inception of a contract, the company shall assess whether the contract is, or contains, a lease.

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration

To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the company assesses whether:

- i. The contract involves use of an identified asset
- ii. The company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset throughout lease period
- iii. The Company has the right to direct the use of the asset

Recognition

At the commencement date of lease the company recognizes a right of use asset and corresponding lease liability, wherever the company is a lessee. Leases of periods not more than 12 months (Short term lease) are not considered. Short term lease payments are considered as operating expenses on a straight line basis over the lease period as per contract.

Measurement

At the commencement of lease period, the company measures the lease liability at present value of all future lease payment to be made and a ROU asset for the same value also is created.

Depreciation of the ROU asset is computed for each year on a straight line basis over the contract period or useful life of the underlying asset, whichever is shorter.

Presentation

ROU assets are shown separately in the Balance sheet as a line item and similarly lease liability is shown in the Balance sheet separately as a line item. Further lease payments are shown in cash flow statement as financing activities.
