	provisions and Contingent Liabilities Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obiligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the Balance Sheet date. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows specific to the liability, using a current pre-tax rate that reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and risks specific to the obligation. The unwinding of the discount is recognised as finance cost.
1	Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future event not wholly within the control of the company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made.
F	Provisions and Contingent Liabilities are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the best estimates.
