REIGN OF RAMSINH PARMAR ENDS

Vipul Patel elected Amul Dairy chairman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 14

THE BJP's Anand district unit president Vipul Patel was on Tuesday elected chairman of the Kaira District Cooperative Milk Producers' Union Limited — the oldest milk cooperative of Gujarat, popularly known as Amul Dairy. Patel's election brings to an end the reign of Ramsinh Parmar from the OBC community who held the post for almost 20 years. Kanti Sodha Parmar, who quit the Congress and joined the BJP on January 30, has been elected vice-chairman of the co-operative. Kanti Sodha replaces Rajendrasinh Parmar of the Congress party who held the post since 2006. The dairy is one of the 18 district milk cooperatives that operate under the Gujarat Cooperative Milk Marketing Federation or GCMME. While Vipul Patel heads The Kaira District Central Cooperative Bank and an Agricultural Produce & Livestock Market Committee (APMC) in Anand district, Kanti Sodha won the 2017 Assembly elections from the Anand seat on a Congress ticket. In the 2022 polls, he lost to his BJP rival—Yogendra Parmar who is the oldest Amul Dairy chairman Ramsinh Parmar's son—from the same seat. The elections that were held after two-and-a-half years were a straightforward affair after five of the directors, in the 15-member Board, quit the Congress and joined BJP in the past two weeks. Kanti Sodha was the first to leave. Thereafter, Gautam Chauhan, Sita Chandu Parmar, Sharda Patel, and Ghela Mansinh Zala joined the BJP. At present, there are only two Congress leaders left on the Board of Directors—including Rajendrasinh Parmar and Sanjay Patel. "Ramsinh Parmar was instrumental in helping the directors aligned with the Congress party to shift over to the BJP. However, when the party's mandate for the elections came today, it was not in Ramsinh's favour," a source in the Kaira co-operative told The Indian Express. Ramsinh Parmar, who quit the Congress and joined the BJP in 2017, had continued to hold the post of chairman. In the 2022 Assembly elections in Gujarat, the BJP had given his son Yogendra a ticket to contest from the Thasra constituency.

Valentine's Day: Bajrang Dal members drive away couples from Gandhinagar garden

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 14

MEMBERS OF right-wing outfit Bajrang Dal on Tuesday entered a prominent garden in Gujarat's capital Gandhinagar to register their protest against Valentine's Day celebrations and drove away couples sitting inside the park.

While the Opposition Congress strongly condemned the act, the Gandhinagar police swung into action and summoned Bajrang Dal activists involved in the protest against Valentine's Day, celebrated worldwide on February 14 as the festival of love.

In a video of the incident that went viral on social media platforms, nearly 10 Bajrang Dal activists armed with sticks can be seen shouting slogans and driving away couples sitting inside the Central Vista garden located opposite the Assembly complex in the state capital.

Shaktisinh Zala, convener of the Bajrang Dal's Gandhinagar unit, admitted the outfit's members entered the garden to register their protest against Valentine's Day, which he claimed, reflected "western culture".

He maintained the right-wing organisation was against show of "vulgarity" in the name of love.

"We were not harassing anyone. Bajrang Dal workers were only opposing western culture and people indulging in vulgarity in the name of love today. It is our duty to show the right path to Hindu youths and daughters. We went to the garden because our workers saw vulgarity there in the name of love," Zala told reporters when asked about the protest.

The Bajrang Dal functionary said his workers did not harass anyone.

"We are not against love. But, there can not be a day for love. We have not harassed anyone. Our workers only made the youths understand that they should not celebrate Valentine's Day. Who will make people understand this issue if not the Bajrang Dal? We register our protest against Valentine's Day every year" he added.

However, the Congress said no one has right to dictate to others and questioned the Home Department's "silence" over the matter.

Gujarat Congress spokesperson Manish Doshi said, "This country is run by the Constitution. No one has right to decide what people should do or what they should wear or eat. People who send their kids to English medium schools preach to others about Indian culture. I am surprised by the Home Department's silence over this episode."

Taking cognizance of the protest, Gandhinagar Superintendent of Police Tarun Kumar Duggal asked officials to take appropriate action.

"The Sector 7 police station (under whose jurisdiction the garden is located) has been directed to take action in the matter," said Duggal.

Sources said police officials have summoned protesters seen in the viral video for questioning.

Woman's suicide in Surat: Police look for mamlatdar, govt doctor

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, FEBRUARY 14

SURAT POLICE are on the look out for a mamlatdar and a government doctor for their alleged involvement in the suicide of a 24-year-old woman, while four others, including the woman's father-in-law and mother-in-law, were arrested on Monday.

According to police, the woman Monica Vekariya allegedly died by suicide at her in-laws' house in Utran area. A complaint was filed by Monica's father Shantibhai Bhandari, a tour operator and a resident of Sarthana, with Utran police station in which he said that his daughter married Tenish Vekariya (29), a diamond businessman in Telaviv, Israel, in January 2017.

According to the complaint, Monica went to Israel with her husband a month after their wedding. She returned to Surat with their two-year-old daughter in October 2022, to attend the marriage of her brother Fenil, and stayed with her parents. After the marriage in December, she started staying with her in-laws in Utran, while Tenish was in Israel.

Shantibhai stated that Tenish's parents Mansukh Vekariya and Praveena Vekariya, sister Parul and her husband Jasmin Padariya, and another sister Neha Sawani, class-2 grade government officer with Surat district collectorate, and her husband Dr Nishant Sawani, a doctor with Surat government hospital, used to harass his daughter physically and mentally.

Unable to bear the harassment, Monica consumed poison and was declared dead at SMIMER hospital on February 12, he stated in the complaint. The father added that Monica called him on February 1 and told him about the harassment.

Deputy Commissioner of police Zone 5 Harshad Mehta said, "We have arrested four persons, while two others — Neha Sawani and Dr Nishant Sawani — are absconding. We have intimidated the district collector about Neha."

Police have registered an offence under Indian Penal Code (IPC) sections 306 (abetment of suicide) and 498(A) (husband or relative of woman subjecting her to cruelty).
