In Re approval of Resolution Plan of McNally Sayaji Engineering Limited
IA (IB) No. 1214/KB/2022 in CP (IB) No. 131/KB/2020

Sl. No.	Relief, concessions and approvals sought
49.	The CBDT under its notification dated January 6, 2018 has eased the applicability of provisions relating to levy of Minimum Alternate Tax (“MAT”) for companies against whom CIRP has commenced. In accordance with the aforesaid notification, the CBDT is requested to allow the reduction of total amount of loss brought forward (including unabsorbed depreciation) from the book profits of the Corporate Debtor for the purposes of levy under Section 115 JB of the Income Tax Act, 1961. The CBDT is also requested to waive and exempt all MAT and other income tax Liabilities arising on the Corporate Debtor and/or its successors on account of settlement of Financial Creditors and Operational Creditors pursuant to implementation of this Plan.
50.	Necessary directions, instructions be issued to the CBDT, Customs, Value Added Tax authorities, Central Sale Tax authorities, GST authorities, entry tax and other Tax authorities whether central or state to exempt income/gain/profits, if any, arising as a result of giving effect to the Resolution Plan and from being subjected to income tax in the hands of the Corporate Debtor or the Resolution Applicant under the provisions of Income Tax Act, 1961, value added tax, customs, octroi, excise duty, service tax, goods and service tax, including but not limited to any income tax and MAT Liability arising on capital reduction in the Corporate Debtor, waiver/write off/ write down of current amounts due to employees, vendors, Operational Creditors, Financial Creditors, value of assets, value of inventories, etc. without any impact on brought forward tax and book loss / depreciation and waive all Liabilities whether crystallised or not in respect of Taxes (including interest and penalty) arising in respect of periods up to the Sanction Date and arising out of implementation or sanction of the Resolution Plan.
51.	It is further clarified that a company is not ordinarily permitted to carry forward its accumulated business losses in case of a change in the shareholding of such company in excess of 51% (fifty-one percent) as per Section 79 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. However, this restriction does not apply if such change in shareholding takes place pursuant to a resolution plan approved under the Code, provided that the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner of Income-tax or the jurisdictional Commissioner of Income-tax (as appropriate), is afforded reasonable opportunity to express his views in this regard. Accordingly, the Adjudicating Authority be pleased to or cause the Resolution Professional or the reconstituted

Corporate Debtor and its employees, members, creditors, including the Central Govt, any State Govt or any local authority, guarantors and other stakeholders. We place reliance on the recent judgement of Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan in the matter of EMC v. State of Rajasthan wherein it has been inter-alia held that :

“Law is well-settled that with the finalization of insolvency resolution plan and the approval thereof by the NCLT, all dues of creditors, Corporate, Statutory and others stand extinguished and no demand can be raised for the period prior to the specified date.”

On the date of approval of resolution plan by the Adjudicating Authority, all such claims, which are not a part of resolution plan, shall stand extinguished and no person will be entitled to initiate or continue any proceedings in respect to a claim, which is not part of the resolution plan. The Hon'ble Supreme Court also held that all the dues including the statutory dues owed to the Central Govt, any State Govt or any local authority, if not part of the resolution plan, shall stand extinguished and no proceedings in respect of such dues for the period prior to the date on which the Adjudicating Authority grants its approval under section 31 could be continued.

35. With respect to the waivers sought in relation to guarantors, the judgment of Lalit Kumar Jain v Union of India & ors,<sup>6</sup> wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held in para 133 that sanction of a resolution plan and finality imparted to it by section 31 does not per se operate as a discharge of the guarantor's liability shall apply.
36. With respect to the reliefs and waivers sought for all inquiries, litigations, investigations and proceedings shall be granted strictly as per the section 32A of the Code.
