About NIACL

Founded by Sir Dorabji Tata in 1919, The New India Assurance Company Ltd. has established a legacy of 105 years of operations. Today, it stands as the largest non-life insurer in India by gross premiums written, commanding a market share of 13.33% as on December '23. The company boasts market-leading positions in key business lines such as health, motor, fire, marine, and aviation.

New India Assurance's international presence is robust, with operations spanning 25 countries through its foreign branches, agency offices, and subsidiaries. Despite facing high market competition, particularly in the health and motor businesses, the domestic market continues to offer significant growth opportunities for the company.

The Company is rated "AAA" by CRISIL, retained AM Best FSR credit rating of B++ stable and ICR rating of BBB+ stable and was given the AM best rating of aaa.IN National Scale Rating (Exceptional)
