Mexico City: As Mexico sees a rise in attacks ahead of general elections, a mayoral candidate has been shot dead at a campaign rally in Mexico's southern Guerrero state, reported Al Jazeera. Alfredo Cabrera was murdered on Wednesday in the town of Coyuca de Benitez. A video shared by local media showed a person approaching him at the campaign event and shooting him several times at point-blank range. Cabrera's killing adds to the climbing death toll in the run-up to presidential, congressional and local polls scheduled to be held on June 2.

ANC below 50% after partial count

SOUTH AFRICA POLLS

AP / JOHANNESBURG

Partial results in South Africa's national election put the long-ruling African National Congress at below 50% of the vote as counting continued Thursday, raising the possibility that it might lose its majority for the first time since it swept to power under Nelson Mandela at the end of apartheid in 1994.

With around 20% of votes counted and declared, it was only a partial picture after Wednesday's election. The final results of a vote that could bring the biggest political shift in South Africa's young democracy were expected to take days. with the independent electoral commission saying they would be delivered by Sunday, although they could come earlier.

Some analysts said the early results already presented a never-before-seen picture with regards to how far the long dominant ANC

"I think we are seeing a massive change in South African politics." political analyst Prof. Susan Booysen said on SABC TV, the national broadcaster.

The electoral commission was projecting a 70% voter turnout in this election, up from the 66% in the last national election in 2019. The ANC won 57.5% of the vote in that last election, its worst performance to date.

This election was seen as a direct referendum on the unbroken three-decade rule of the ANC.

International ransomware network busted

AP / THE HAGUE (Netherlands)

Police coordinated by the European Union's justice agency have taken down computer networks re-sponsible for spreading ransomware via infected emails, in what they called the biggest-ever international operation against the lucrative form of cybercrime. The European Union's iudicial cooperation agency, Eurojust, said on Thursday that police arrested four "high value" suspects, took down more than 100 servers and seized control of over 2,000 inter-

The huge takedown this week involved coordinated raids in Germany, the Netherlands, France, Denmark, Ukraine, the United States and the United Kingdom, Eurojust said.

The operation followed a massive takedown in 2021 of a botnet called Emotet, Eurojust said. A botnet is a network of hijacked computers typically used for malicious activity.
