IED blast in high-security zone near Israel embassy

HT Correspondents

letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: A low-intensity blast was reported outside the Israeli embassy in the VVIP zone at Dr APJ Abdul Kalam Marg on Friday evening, around the time when security in Lutyens' Delhi was on the highest alert due to the Beating Retreat ceremony at Rajpath.

The blast came on the anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic ties between India and Israel on January 29, 1992. Home minister Amit Shah, who cancelled a planned two-day visit to West Bengal after the incident, and national security adviser Ajit Doval went into a huddle with the security brass and Israel was informed by the government that the culprits will not be spared.

According to counterterrorism operatives, the improvised explosive device (IED) used was in all probability an ammonium nitrate-fuel oil device with a basic timer, though a final confirmation of that would come after a lab test.

While CCTV footage is being examined by special cell and counterterrorism operatives for closer analysis, the device appeared to be "preliminary" as it left a crater only nine inches deep. It had small ball bearings, which became shrapnel on explosion. The car windows were shattered due to wave concussion.

"Given the nature of the device, it seems the IED was made at the behest of a cyber handler and placed by a radicalised element," said a senior counterterrorism official, adding that the matter was being taken very seriously because of the sensitivity of the location.

No terror group had claimed responsibility for the incident till the time of going to press.

The blast, which took place around 5.05pm after the suspects threw the bomb from a moving car, shattered the windowpanes of at least three cars but nobody was injured, according to Delhi Police.

An envelope was also found near the blast site in which the

WHAT AGENCIES SAY

- The blast took place around 5.05pm. Suspects threw the bomb from a moving car.
- The impact of the blast shattered the windowpanes of at least three cars, but nobody was hurt.
- Delhi Police confirmed the bomb was an improvised explosive device (IED), containing ammonium nitrate.
- Splinters have been recovered from the spot.
- An envelope was found near the blast site in which the attackers are suspected to have left a message for the embassy.
- Senior officials told HT that the blast was being investigated as a 'terrorist attack'.

UNANSWERED QUESTIONS

- Which outfit was responsible for the attack?
- How did the IED reach a high-security zone when the Beating Retreat was on at nearby Rajpath?
- How many people were involved in the blast?
- Who was the target of the attack?

attackers are suspected to have left a message for the embassy. Senior officials told HT that the blast was being investigated as a "terrorist attack" and "professional people were behind it", although the identity of the group behind it was not known yet.

"Undoubtedly, it is a terror attack. It's a work of professionals," said one of the officials cited above.

"It appears that the target was the Israeli embassy only but it was like a symbolic blast as nobody was injured. We don't know yet which group is behind it but we will find them," said the officer, requesting anonymity.

The explosion took place when the Beating Retreat ceremony was in full swing at Rajpath not more than one-and-a-half kilometres away. It sparked panic among security agencies, compelling them to immediately shut the APJ Abdul Kalam Azad Road on which the embassy is situated. "We take this very seriously," external affairs minister S Jaishankar tweeted, announcing his phone call about the explosion outside the Israeli embassy to his counterpart, Gabi Ashkenazi.

"Assured him of the fullest protection for the Embassy and Israeli diplomats. Matter is under investigation and no effort will be spared to find the culprits," Jaishankar said after security personnel cordoned off the road leading to the embassy.

Deputy Commissioner of Police Eish Singhal confirmed that it was an improvised device that exploded. "No one was reported injured and no damage to property was witnessed other than the windshields of three cars parked nearby," Singhal said. The DCP said it looked like a mischievous attempt to create a sensation.

Doval spoke to his Israeli counterpart Meir Ben-Shabbat and assured the protection of Israeli diplomats and missions, people familiar with the development said. Delhi Police Commissioner SN Shrivastava said, "A case has been registered and the special cell is investigating."

Foreign secretary Harsh Shringla spoke to his Israeli counterpart Alon Ushpitz while secretary Sanjay Bhattacharya, who oversees relations with West Asia, spoke to Israeli ambassador Ron Malka.

In Jerusalem, the Israeli foreign ministry said, "There were no casualties in the blast, and no damage to the building". It added, "The incident is under investigation by the authorities in India, who are in contact with the relevant Israeli authorities."

"This explosion happens exactly when we mark 29 years [of] the establishment of full diplomatic relations between Israel and India, and especially in these days, the strong and warm friendship between Israel and India reflects itself," Malka said in a video message.

"We get full cooperation and support from the local police, from the Indian authorities, the ministry of external affairs, the secretary of external affairs, the NSA - they all called their counterparts in Israel, offered their support," Malka added.

The area where the blast took place mainly houses embassies and consulates, including the embassy of Brazil which is not more than 100 metres away from the blast spot.

Locals, who heard the blast, said it seemed to be impactful and must have been heard over kilometres.

This is not the first time such an incident has been reported from the Lutyens' zone. On February 13, 2012, a sticky bomb was placed on the car of an Israeli diplomat, Tal Yehoshua Koren, who received injuries in the incident.

The bombers in that attack are yet to be caught even after eight years. Delhi Police's special cell had even visited Tehran to investigate that attack but there has been no headway till date. The only person arrested in the case, a journalist, is out on bail.

The thermocol man

A glimpse into Balram's aspirations

{ PRIVATE CAPITAL } He has a theory on dreams. "These sapne (dreams) don't come to all," says Balram. "People with less money don't dream."

He patiently explains that by dream he doesn't mean what one sees while sleeping, but the things one aspires for when fully conscious.

Ok, but surely there must be at least one thing he aspires for?

Balram takes some time to think before answering—"To earn enough to keep my family well-fed, to keep having a job."

The nature of his work is part of a niche. He pedals around the Capital on his rickety cart collecting thermocol pieces, the kind that are used to cushion electrical gadgets or delicate furniture items from breaking during transport. In fact, this afternoon in south Delhi's Green Park he is on a roadside, piling up a mound of such pieces into a gigantic bundle bound in a net.

A native of Gorakhpur, in UP, Balram, 35, arrived in the city 8 years ago. "I had no dreams back then too. I left my village because finding work in a big city seemed worth the trouble of leaving your des." He has no regrets, he confirms.

By now, Balram is a full-fledged Delhiite, having set up his roots firmly in the city's soil. He lives in Okhla with wife, Meena, and sons, Soni and Kishen. "They go to school," he points out.

Firmly tying the knot of the net in which he has gathered the thermocol, Balram says that over the years he has developed work-related contacts and while leaving his house at 8 every morning, he knows exactly where he has to go to find spare thermocol. "Sometimes I go to factories or warehouses, and sometimes to houses where people have just shifted." Every evening he sells the collection to a dealer in Okhla.

Now Balram single-handedly transfers the pile onto his cart. He climbs on the rider's seat and says, confession like, "I don't have a dream but I do want, someday soon, to rid myself from the cycle of byaj (interest)... I had borrowed money to build a house in the village... earlier we had no house of our own. My real savings for the future can only start after I've paid all my interests."

He now pedals away, the thermocol on the cart glinting from far away, like a snow-encrusted mountain peak. He returns home at 5pm.

खुलासा : कोयले की दलाली में सभी के हाथ काले

रांची | मुख्य संवाददाता

झारखंड में कोयला को काली कमाई में सफेदपोशों की भूमिका सामने आई है। लातेहार पुलिस के हथियार चढ़े अपराधी प्रदीप गंडू ने कोयला क्षेत्र में रंगदारी वसूली के लिए बड़ा नेटवर्क तैयार किया था। इस नेटवर्क में युवाओं को भी रखा गया था। लातेहार में दिसंबर में आगजनी व फायरिंग की वारदात को प्रदीप गंडू ने ही अंजाम दिया था। प्रदीप की निशानदेही पर लातेहार पुलिस ने एक एके 47, एक कारबाइन समेत अन्य हथियारों की बरामदगी की है।

कुछ दिनों से प्रदीप गंडू को गुप्त ठिकाने पर रखकर पूछताछ कर रही है। जमशेदपुर के चाधीडीह जेल में बंद सुजीत सिन्हा और रांची जेल में बंद अमन साहू के लिए प्रदीप गंडू लातेहार, चतरा व रांची के कोयला क्षेत्र में रंगदारी वसूली में लगा था। प्रदीप गंडू ने रंगदारी वसूली के लिए बड़ा नेटवर्क तैयार किया था। इस नेटवर्क में युवाओं को भी रखा गया था। लातेहार में दिसंबर में आगजनी व फायरिंग की वारदात को प्रदीप गंडू ने ही अंजाम दिया था। प्रदीप की निशानदेही पर लातेहार पुलिस ने एक एके 47, एक कारबाइन समेत अन्य हथियारों की बरामदगी की है।

अमन साव को आमने सामने रख होगी पूछताछ
प्रदीप गंडू के खुलासे के बाद लातेहार पुलिस ने रांची जेल में बंद अमन साव को पूछताछ के लिए सात दिनों के रिमांड पर लिया है। अमन साव व गिरोह की गतिविधियों और सफेदपोशों को लेकर जो खुलासे प्रदीप ने किए हैं, उनका मिलान दोनों को आमने सामने बैठाकर किया जाएगा। पुलिस सूत्रों के मुताबिक, कोयला क्षेत्र में रंगदारी वसूली के तार जेल से भी जुड़ रहे हैं। जेल में बंद अपराधियों के साथ सफेदपोशों के रिश्तों की बात डीजीपी एमवी राव ने भी बीते दिनों कबूली थी।

पुलिस की भूमिका की हो रही है सीआईडी जांच

लातेहार के बालूमाथ इलाके में कोयला तस्करी में पुलिस आफसरों व कोयला कर्मियों की भूमिका की सीआईडी जांच हो रही है। सीआईडी की टीम के अनुसंधानक जयप्रकाश राणा ने हाल के दिनों में बालूमाथ जाकर पूरे मामले में सिलसिलेवार जांच की है। लातेहार में तेनात रहे डीएसपी रणवीर सिंह और चंदवा के तत्कालीन थानेदार की भूमिका को लेकर लातेहार एसपी ने पुलिस मुख्यालय को रिपोर्ट दी थी। इसी रिपोर्ट के आधार पर सीआईडी को इस पूरे मामले की जांच का जिम्मा दिया गया था। जांच में पता चला कि फर्जी कागजात के आधार पर लातेहार से दूसरे जिलों में कोयले की तस्करी की जाती थी।

ट्रांसपोर्ट और सीसीएल अधिकारियों से सांठगांठ

हाल में पुलिस के सक्षम सरेंडर करने वाले पंद्रह लाख के इनामी उग्रवादी मुकेश गंडू ने भी कोयले की तस्करी में उग्रवादी, ट्रांसपोर्ट व सीसीएल अधिकारियों की सांठगांठ का खुलासा किया था। मुकेश ने बताया था कि मगध- आग्रपाली परियोजना से निकलने वाले कोयले पर प्रति टन 200 रुपये की वसूली की जाती थी। इसमें से 40 रुपये उग्रवादी संगठन टीपीसी को मिलते थे, जबकि बाकी रुपये सीसीएल के कर्मियों और तथ्यांकित विस्थापित नेताओं की कमेटी को मिलते थे। सीसीएल के निचले स्तर के कर्मियों को कांटाघर में ही पैसा मिल जाता था।

करोड़ों के गबन में मामला दर्ज

नई दिल्ली। सीबीआई ने आंध्र प्रदेश के विजयवाड़ा एवं गुंटूर में इंडियन ओवरसीज बैंक के छह अधिकारियों पर बैंक के एक खाते से कथित रूप से 4.56 करोड़ रुपये का गबन करने का मामला दर्ज किया है। सीबीआई प्रवक्ता आर सी जोशी ने कहा कि आरोप है कि आरोग्य भद्रथ के सचिव के गुंटूर में इंडियन ओवरसीज बैंक की मंगलगिरि शाखा में बचत खाते थे और उन्होंने एक खाते में चार बार 90-90 लाख रुपये तथा एक अन्य खाते में 68.84 लाख रुपये जमा कराए थे। इस तरह इन खातों में उनके 4.28 करोड़ रुपये थे। आरोपी अधिकारियों ने खाताधारक के किसी अनुरोध के बिना ही इन चारों खातों को बंद कर दिया।

नई दिल्ली। सीबीआई ने कथित अनियमितता की शिकायतों के बाद शुक्रवार को पंजाब-हरियाणा में एफसीआई के 20 गोदामों की औचक जांच की। अधिकारियों ने शुक्रवार को इस बारे में बताया। उन्होंने बताया कि सार्वजनिक लेन-देन वाले स्थानों पर भ्रष्टाचार रोकने के लिए पहलियाती उपायों के तहत यह कार्रवाई की गई है। अधिकारी ने बताया कि दोनों राज्यों में करीब 20 स्थानों पर एफसीआई के सतर्कता दल के साथ संयुक्त तौर पर यह कार्रवाई शुरू की गई। संयुक्त अभियान के दौरान 13 एफसीआई जिलों में से आठ एफसीआई को पट्टे पर दिये गए सरकारी गोदामों में जांच की गई।
