Sir,

Sub: Issue of Duplicate Certificate for 100 shares in my name.

Ref: OE-mail dated 11/1/19 sent by Mr. Nandakumar.

② Your phone call dated 4/1/19.

I am a shareholder of your Organisation for the last 25 years holding share certificate no: 13128 of 50 shares. Subsequently in 2010, I came to know that I was issued an additional 50 shares as bonus against the same certificate and that a share certificate for the same had been sent to me. But the same has been misplaced. Recently when the shares were attempted to be de-materialised, I have come to know that my name in the share certificate is mentioned as Mrs. Ratnam Rajagopalan, whereas my official name in the PAN CARD, AADHAR CARD and De-mat A/c is Mrs. Ratnam Rajagopal. Therefore, I request you to kindly issue a duplicate share certificate for 100 shares in my official name Mrs. Ratnam Rajagopal. I am annexing the Original Share Certificate for 50 shares bearing No. 13128, and self-attested copies of my PAN CARD and Aadhar card along with this.

Hoping for a favourable response at the earliest.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully

X Ratnam Rajagopal
