Govt to consider relaxing FDI in single-brand retail

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 23

THE GOVERNMENT WILL soon consider relaxing foreign direct investment (FDI) norms in several sectors, including single-brand retail trading and digital media, to attract overseas players, sources said. Other sectors where FDI rules would be eased are coal and contract manufacturing.

According to sources, the Union cabinet would soon consider these issues for approval. The government may allow 100% FDI in contract manufacturing, according to the proposal. In the existing foreign investment policy, 100% FDI is permitted in the manufacturing sector under the automatic route.

A manufacturer is also allowed to sell products manufactured in India through wholesale and retail channels, including through e-commerce, without the government's approval. But the policy does not talk about the contract manufacturing and it is not clearly defined in the policy. "Big technology firms across the world are going for this, so there is a need for clarification on the matter," they said. Similarly, the government is looking at coming out with a clarification on applicability of the foreign direct investment policy on the digital media sector. The present FDI policy is silent on the fast-growing digital media segment.

In the print media sector, 26% FDI is allowed through government approval route. Similarly, 49% FDI is permitted in broadcasting content services through government approval route. In the single-brand retail sector, the Cabinet

'The government is looking at coming out with a clarification on applicability of the FDI policy on the digital media sector. The present FDI policy is silent on the fast-growing digital media segment' will consider a proposal of relaxing rules for complying with the mandatory 30% local sourcing norms by foreign single-brand retailers.

As per the proposal, single-brand retail firms would also be permitted to open online stores before setting up brick-and-mortar shops. Currently, online sale by a single-brand retail player is allowed only after the opening of physical outlets.

Relaxations are expected in a provision where foreign retail traders are presently allowed to adjust procurement of goods from India for their global operations for meeting the mandatory local sourcing requirement.

However, "incremental" sourcing of goods from India is only taken into account presently, and it will be allowed only for five years.

"Amendments and easing are also likely in this provision," a source said. The move comes against the backdrop of announcements made by the government in the Budget.

Modi speaks good English, but he just doesn't want to talk: Trump

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Biarritz/London, August 26

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi speaks very good English, but he just doesn't want to talk, US President Donald Trump said jokingly on Monday before the two "friends" met for formal talks on the sidelines of the G7 Summit.

The two leaders held 40-minute discussions in Biarritz, the French town which is hosting the meeting of the world's most industrialised nations.

Modi and Trump exchanged a warm handshake and spoke to the media on India-Pakistan tensions, bilateral trade and other issues. Modi answered questions posed by reporters in Hindi. "He (PM Modi) actually speaks very good English, he just doesn't want to talk," Trump joked when PM Modi asked reporters to let the leaders talk in privacy.

The two leaders also held each other's hand while everybody present in the room burst into laughter. Modi called Trump a "friend" and said it was a "very important meeting for me". He thanked the US president for congratulating him after his recent election victory and said their two countries had "shared democratic values". "It's great to be here with Prime Minister Modi," Trump said, adding that he "learned a lot about India" from Modi at the G7 Summit dinner on Sunday. "Fascinating place. It's a beautiful place," Trump said.
