Chennai May 21: Sundaram Home Finance, the wholly owned subsidiary of Sundaram Finance Ltd., has registered a Net Profit of Rs.36.60 crores for the Q4 ended 31st March 2021.

The company had registered a net profit of Rs.82 crores for the corresponding period in the previous year. The Net Profit for the quarter ended 31st March 2020 included a onetime exceptional item of Rs. 60crores on account of write back of deferred tax liability.

On a like to like basis, Profit from Continuing Operations for Q4 ended 31st March 2021 went up 68% to Rs. 36.60crores as compared to Rs. 21.68crores (excluding the onetime exceptional item of Rs. 60crores) for the Q4 ended 31st March 2020.

Lakshminarayanan Duraiswamy, MD, SHF

Commenting on the performance, Lakshminarayanan Duraiswamy, MD, Sundaram Home Finance said, "While it was a gloomy start to FY21, marked by lockdown in the first couple of months, the latter half of the year panned out well and we saw a gradual but certain recovery. The real estate sector showed remarkable tenacity in 2020 against unprecedented odds. Over the five month period between Nov'20 and March'21, we saw demand getting back to pre-COVID levels and a nice momentum was starting to build. The fourth quarter was the silver lining in the last financial year with the return of customer confidence."

Fund Raising Plans

To fund its growth plans, the company is looking to raise Rs. 2500crores this year through a mix of debt instruments and bank funding.

On the outlook for the year, Lakshminarayanan said, "This financial year (FY22) was supposed to be the year of recovery. April started out well in terms of disbursements, but currently there is a great deal of uncertainty on the extent and intensity of the Covid second wave. There will be a momentary halt in the upward trend as we are likely to witness truncated housing sales and scrapped/delayed property development projects. However, as the recovery of 2020 showed, the market is likely to emerge stronger. There will be consolidation at the top end and change in consumer preferences will play out. The desire for a better lifestyle, the newly emerging remote working culture and reverse migration will drive the housing growth. We expect the growth trajectory to continue in the longer term."

Punctured Lifeboats..!

Filled with horror I read about the twenty-seven ONGC employees who died and fifty-three missing, when their barge sank during Cyclone Taukta's tryst with the west coast of India. The barge, as you know, is the sleeping dormitory for the employees of the rig, and has no engine. It's only purpose, to accommodate those who are not working on the oil rig next door.

And when the tidal waves thrust itself on the helpless barge, and winds lashed the floating dormitory at a speed of over 140 km per hour, waves filled the floating coffin and the employees running helter-skelter in search of lifeboats, found rubber rafts with holes in them!

I can well imagine the scene when a sailor informs the captain a few days earlier, "Captain, there are holes in all the lifeboats!"

"Who is going to use those boats? Tell me?"

And that is how we look upon safety measures in our country.

You don't believe me? Look at the pandemic!

If we had sealed the punctures of our lifeboats, there would have hardly been any second wave, but no, we thought we had a barge that could face any storm, or rather we felt there wouldn't be any storm. The captain of the barge when warned that winds of 140 kmph would hit the Mumbai coast, allegedly retorted, according to the chief engineer, that the cyclone would bypass them.

"There will be no second wave, look how we have fought the first wave!" screamed our leaders over megaphones to the rest of the world.

"Let us have thousands crowding our election rallies!"

"Let the religious gather in hordes, nothing will happen!"

Our response to the pandemic in February and March was like the response of the captain wasn't it, as thousands without masks jostled each other, he felt, "Who needs those boats?"

In the ghostly winds I hear the screams of the many who lost their lives in the raging seas, but far louder are the moans, the groans, and cries of hundreds of thousands reaching out to their captain, eyes aghast, voices hoarse from weeping, telling tales of loved ones perishing in hospitals, some speaking in silence of the horror, of letting go of a loved one, into rivers because there was no wood to cremate. "Storm approaching! Watch out!" shouted the captains of other boats, who looked at the seas and expected a huger second wave, "Nothing will touch my barge!" shouted the captain, confident in his handling of the first wave.

And the second wave, higher than a tsunami hits our ship and people run for hospital beds and oxygen cylinders, they rush for non-existent vaccines, and stare in total disbelief at giant holes in punctured lifeboats..!

Canara Bank reports Q4 net profit at Rs. 1,011 cr

Chennai, May 21: Public sector lender Canara Bank reported a standalone profit of Rs 1,010.87 crore for the March 2021 quarter (Q4 FY21). The profitability beat analysts' expectations on the back of a dip in loan loss provisions, higher net interest income and other income. The loss in the year-ago quarter stood at Rs 3,259.3 crore.

Canara Bank swung to profit in March quarter as it reported a net profit of ₹1,011 crore in Q4FY21 as compared to ₹3,259 crore of net loss posted in the same quarter last year. The bank's net interest income (NII) rose 68.4% to ₹5,589 crore as against ₹3,318 crore year-on-year (YoY).

The bank said that the ongoing Covid situation continues to be uncertain and it is evaluating the situation on an ongoing basis. The major identified challenges for the Bank would arise from eroding cash flows and extended capital cycles.

Despite the challenges, the management believes that no adjustments are required in the financial results as it does not significantly impact the current quarter. Despite these events and conditions, there would not be any significant impact on Bank's results in future and going concern assumptions as at presently made.
