Dear Sir/ Madam

The Bombay High Court has on September 5, 2019, ruled in favour of NDTV in a defamation suit filed in 2013 against Quantum Securities Limited and its directors - Mr. Sanjay Dutt, Mr. Om Prakash Arora, Mr. Neeraj Dewan and Mr. Sandeep Dutt. The case was based on a smear campaign, wherein unjustified and defamatory statements were made against NDTV and its Founders.

Injunction orders were granted by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court in favour of NDTV, its senior officials and Founders during August 2013.

In its Order dated September 5, 2019 (uploaded on September 11, 2019), the Hon'ble Bombay High Court has recorded a solemn statement made by the Defendants as to the credibility of NDTV in the electronic news media, and that the Defendants shall not continue to make or publish any defamatory statements against NDTV, including in social media.

The Defendants maintain the right to pursue statutory remedies, which shall be determined on merits in accordance with law, and/or to direct any grievances to the directors of NDTV.

You are requested to take the same on record.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully.

For New Delhi Television Limited
