Biden warns Putin of 'severe costs' of Ukraine invasion

Washington, Feb 13: President Joe Biden told Russia's Vladimir Putin that invading Ukraine would cause widespread human suffering and that the West was committed to diplomacy to end the crisis but equally prepared for other scenarios, the White House said Saturday.

Biden also said the United States and its allies would respond decisively and impose swift and severe costs if the Kremlin attacked its neighbour, according to a White House description of the hour-long call.

President Biden was clear with President Putin that while the United States remains prepared to engage in diplomacy, in full coordination with our Allies and partners, we are equally prepared for other scenarios, the White House statement said.

The two Presidents spoke a day after Biden's national security adviser, Jake Sullivan, warned that US intelligence shows that a Russian invasion could begin within days and before the Winter Olympics in Beijing end on February 20.

The call produced no fundamental change in the dynamic that has been unfolding now for several weeks, according to a senior administration official who briefed reporters following the call.

The official, who discussed the call on condition of anonymity, added that it remains unclear whether Putin has made a final decision to move forward with military action.

The Biden administration has been warning for weeks that Russia could invade Ukraine soon, but US officials had previously said the Kremlin would likely wait until after the Games ended so as not to antagonise China.

Sullivan told reporters on Friday that US intelligence shows that Russia could take military action during the Olympics.

Russia has massed well over 100,000 troops near the Ukraine border and has sent troops to exercises in neighboring Belarus, but denies that it intends to launch an offensive against Ukraine.

Before talking to Biden, Putin had a telephone call with French President Emmanuel Macron, who met with him in Moscow earlier in the week to try to resolve the biggest security crisis between Russia and the West since the Cold War. A Kremlin summary of the call suggested that little progress was made toward cooling down the tensions. In a sign that American officials are getting ready for a worst-case scenario, the United States announced plans to evacuate its embassy in the Ukrainian capital, and Britain joined other European nations in urging its citizens to leave Ukraine.

The timing of any possible Russian military action remained a key question.

The US picked up intelligence that Russia is looking at Wednesday as a target date, according to a US official familiar with the findings. The official, who was not authorised to speak publicly and did so only on condition of anonymity, would not say how definitive the intelligence was.

A Kremlin statement about the Putin-Macron call referred to provocative speculations about an allegedly planned Russian invasion of Ukraine. Russia has consistently denied that it plans military action against its neighbour.

Putin also complained in the call that the United States and NATO have not responded satisfactorily to Russian demands that Ukraine be prohibited from joining the military alliance and that NATO pull back forces from Eastern Europe.

Biden has said the US military will not enter a war in Ukraine, but he has promised severe economic sanctions against Moscow, in concert with international allies.

Kremlin says little done to cool down tensions

Kolkata, Feb 13: Tinamool Congress chairperson Mamata Banerjee on Saturday dissolved the party's national office bearers' committee, which included her nephew Abhishek Banerjee - the national general secretary, and formed a 20-member working committee to oversee the affairs amid a growing rift.

Asserting his firm control over the party, Banerjee packed the working committee with party veterans who were facing criticism publicly from the TMC's next-generation leaders, backed by Abhishek Banerjee, over holding multiple posts - within the party and the administration.

Banerjee will later name the new office bearers of the party, senior TMC leader Partha Chatterjee told reporters after a meeting at the West Bengal chief minister's Kalighat residence here.

At the meeting, Banerjee asked everybody to work together, a TMC source said.

Amid Abhishek Banerjee's springing influence in the party following the massive success in last year's state elections, a few senior leaders at the meeting reiterated that Mamata Banerjee was their 'supreme leader', the source said.

'After Mamata Banerjee was re-elected the chairperson of the party, she had announced a small committee to look after the party affairs. Today, there was a meeting of that committee, and in that meeting, she announced the new national working committee', Chatterjee said.

'Mamata Banerjee will later appoint the new office bearers and then it would be sent to the Election Commission', he added.

Among the leaders who found a place in the new national working committee are Amit Mitra, Partha Chatterjee, Subrata

Mamata asserts supremacy in TMC, dissolves committee

Bakshi, Sudip Bandopadhyay, Abhishek Banerjee, Anurata Mondal, Aroop Biswas, Firhad Hakim and Yashwant Sinha, TMC's leader in Rajya Sabha Derek O'Brien and veteran Lok Sabha MP Sougata Roy were not included in the committee.
