India won't face stock-out of Covid-19: NACO

ANURADHA MASCARENHAS
PUNE, JULY 7

WHO, UNAIDS conduct study

INDIA WILL not face stock-outs of antiretroviral (ARV) medicines as a result of the Covid-19 pandemia, the director of National AIDS Control Society (NACO) told many warms. Stock-out of Covid-19 new s-percent over the same time period, and some 15 million lives were saved through the use of ARV therapy. However, progress towards global targets is stalling. Over the last two years, the annual number of new HIV infections has plateaued at 1.7 million and there was only a modest reduction in HIV-related deaths, from 730,000 in 2018 to 650,000 in 2019.

Despite steady advancement in scaling up treatment coverage — with more than 25 million people on ARV receiving them in 2019 — key 2020 global targets will be missed, the WHO said. At the International Aids Society conference, WHO will highlight how global progress in reducing HIV-related deaths can be accelerated by stepping up support and services for populations disproportionately impacted by the epidemic, including young children. In 2019, there were an estimated 95,000 HIV-related deaths and 1,50,000 new infections among children. Only about half (53 per cent) of children in need of ARV therapy were receiving it.

NACO to bring in phased revised drug regimen for first-line HIV treatment

Tenofovir, lamivudine and dolutegravir (TLD) will now replace existing drugs as first-line HIV treatment. The NACO will bring in the revised drug regimen in a phased manner. Systematic reviews have shown the efficacy of dolutegravir-based regimen, which is better tolerated by HIV patients. Initially, ARV regimen of drugs for first-line treatment was zidovudine lamivudine and efavirenz (ZLE), while second choice was tenofovir lamivudine efavirenz (TLE). "Each of the drugs, however, has its own side effects," NACO officials said.

Chhattisgarh has already identified HIV patients to receive the new drug regimen while Maharashtra will get its supply next week.
