Delhi Metro to come closer to residents' homes soon as govt approves Janakpuri-RK Ashram corridor

Delhi government has approved the Metro Rail Corporation's proposal to construct the Janakpuri-RK Ashram corridor. The 29-km corridor will connect the magenta line's Janakpuri West station to the blue line's RK Ashram station.

way of the Janakpuri-RK Ashram Metro corridor route at Derawal Nagar. The Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) had sought clearance for the removal and transplantation of trees from the site, which had been stuck for some time. Arvind Kejriwal has granted permission on behalf of the Delhi Government for the removal and transplantation of 316 trees on the site on the condition that 3,160 new trees be planted as compensation.

DETAILS OF JANAKPURI-RK ASHRAM METRO CORRIDOR

The Janakpuri-RK Ashram corridor is 29 km in length and will run through several densely populated areas of Delhi including RK Ashram, Nabi Karim, Sadar Bazar, Pulbangash, Ghanta Ghar, Derawal Nagar, Ashok Vihar, Azadpur, Majlis Park, Bhalaswa, Haiderpur Badli Mor, North Pitampura, Prashant Vihar, Madhuban Chowk, Deepali Chowk, Pushpanjali Enclave, West Enclave, Mangolpuri, Peeragarhi, Paschim Vihar, Keshopur, Krishna Park Extn and Janakpuri West. Being an extension of the Magenta line of the metro, the corridor will cover many densely-populated areas. It aims to help lacs of locals connect to the metro network. The metro line is being constructed as an elevated corridor towards Derawal Nagar and will then take the underground route towards RK Ashram. Thus, the DMRC through its Chief Project Manager, wrote a letter to the Delhi Government seeking approval for the removal and transplantation of 316 trees to clear the way at the site. TREE FELLING & REPLANTATION PROCESS Approving the proposal, the Delhi government has noted that out of the 316 trees, the DMRC will transplant 185 trees of indigenous and native species from the site, while it will take up the felling of 131 trees only of the non-native species. The Delhi Government has further instructed the DMRC to not damage a single tree at the site other than those that have been identified and approved by the government.

The Delhi Government has further made it mandatory for the agency to plant ten times the trees, in lieu of the removal and transplantation. These 3,160 trees will be planted upon the identified land parcels within three months from the date on which the permission for shifting of the trees will be issued. The DMRC will further take the responsibility of maintaining the trees for the next seven years, as per the Delhi government's guidelines. The types of trees include Neem, Amaltas, Pipal, Pilkhan, Gular, Bargad, Desi Kikar and Arjun among other species.

As for the trees that have to be transplanted, the DMRC has been instructed to start the process immediately after fulfilling the requisite conditions and complete it within six months.

New Delhi The Delhi Metro is set to come closer to the homes of lacs of Delhiites very soon. Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal has cleared the way for the upcoming Janakpuri-RK Ashram Metro corridor. The project will pick up pace, and it will help connect West Delhi and Central Delhi by connecting the magenta line's Janakpuri West station to the blue Line's RK Ashram station. Notably, a park was coming up in the

In hot water after Gita-Quran remark, ex-home minister Shivraj Patil clarifies

New Delhi Senior Congress leader and former Union Home Minister Shivraj Patil spoke out on Friday after he landed in trouble for saying that Lord Krishna gave lessons on jihad to Arjuna during the Mahabharata war. While addressing the media, he said, "It is you who is calling it jihad." This comes just a day after he made his remark on Lord Krishna and Arjuna. Speaking at the launch of Congress veteran and former Union minister Mohsina Kidwai's biography, Patil said, "Shri Krishna gave lessons of jihad to Arjuna in a part of Gita in Mahabharat." The former minister said, "In Hindu dharma, if you kill anyone who speaks the truth, that is jihad. If you kill Mahatma Gandhi, that is jihad. The act of killing is called jihad." He said that he was simply asking a question whether a "rightful fight against the oppressor like the fight in Mahabharata" will be called jihad as well. "It is nonsensical to say that I was equating the teachings of the Bhagavad Gita as jihad, I never said that," he added. When he was asked what term he would give to Lord Krishna asking Arjun to fight in the war, he said, "There is no need for him to call it anything. Lord Krishna told Arjuna 'it is your duty' and you must perform that duty." He further said, "I was asking a question and not making a statement, but the media is vilifying me." He said the teachings of the Bhagavad Gita cannot be called jihad. "For example, the World War 2 fought by the Allies was not jihad, similarly the fight of Pandavas for their right cannot be called jihad," he added.

Army chopper crashes in Arunachal's Upper Siang, search op underway

An Indian Army helicopter on Friday crashed near Singing in Arunachal Pradesh's Upper Siang district. A rescue team has been deployed to the crash site.

New Delhi, An Indian Army helicopter crashed in Arunachal Pradesh's Upper Siang district on Friday. According to sources, five people including two pilots were onboard the HAL Rudra, an Advanced Light Helicopter, that crashed at a location not connected by any road. A rescue team has been sent to the location and search and rescue operations are underway. Rudra is an attack helicopter manufactured by Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) for the Indian Army. It is the Weapon System Integrated (WSI) Mk-IV variant of the Dhruv Advanced Light Helicopter (ALH). "A military chopper crashed near Singing village, 25 kms away from the Tuting headquarters in the Upper Siang district today. Site of accident not connected by road, rescue team sent. Further details awaited," Defence PRO was quoted as saying by ANI. Responding to the incident, Union minister Kiren Rijju said in a tweet, "Received very disturbing news about the Indian Army's Advanced Light Helicopter crash in Upper Siang District in Arunachal Pradesh. My deepest prayers."

CHECK THESE OUT This is the second chopper crash in Arunachal Pradesh this month. On October 5, one pilot was killed after the Indian Army's Cheetah helicopter, flying in the forward area near Arunachal Pradesh's Tawang, crashed during a routine sortie.
