Oppn attacks BJP: Bid to divide people and distort history

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, September 5

AS THE GOVERNMENT sent out a dinner invitation for the G20 Summit in the name of the "President of Bharat", and not President of India, a political row erupted with members of the Opposition INDIA bloc — from the Congress to TMC, DMK to AAP — alleging it was an attempt by the "rattled" BJP to "divide people", "distort history" and linked to the formation of their alliance.

"So the news is indeed true. Rashtrapati Bhawan has sent out an invite for a G20 dinner on Sept 9th in the name of 'President of Bharat' instead of the usual 'President of India', Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh said in a post on X Tuesday. "Now, Article 1 in the Constitution can read: Bharat, that was India, shall be a Union of States. But now even this 'Union of States' is under assault."

"Mr Modi can continue to distort history and divide India, that is Bharat, that is a Union of States. But we will not be deterred. After all, what is the objective of INDIA parties? It is BHARAT — Bring Harmony, Amity, Reconciliation And Trust. Judgega BHARAT, Jeetega INDIA!" Ramesh said.

AICC general secretary K C Venugopal accused the BJP of seeking to "divide people". "The BJP's destructive mind can only think of how to divide people. Once again, they are creating a rift between Indians and Bharatiyas. Let's be clear — we are the same! As Article 1 says — India, that is Bharat, shall be a Union of States. This is petty politics because they are scared of INDIA. Try what you will, Modi ji, Judgega Bharat, Jeetega INDIA," he said.

CWC member and Thiruvananthapuram MP Shashi Tharoor said, "While there is no constitutional objection to calling India 'Bharat', which is one of the country's two official names, I hope the government will not be so foolish as to completely dispense with 'India', which has incalculable brand value built up over centuries. We should continue to use both words rather than relinquish our claim to a name redolent of history, a name that is recognised around the world."

Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel of the Congress said, "I got the invitation from the President. Earlier, invitations used to read the President of India. Today the letter says President of Bharat. This means they have so much trouble with the word India! It is written in the Constitution. It starts from there."

"This country is called Bharat, Bharatvarsh. It's also called India. It is known by multiple names. Now you have an objection to the name. Our alliance is named INDIA, so now they have a problem with the name. Tomorrow if there is an alliance with the name BHARAT will you change that too?" Baghel said.

Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah told reporters in Bengaluru, "In our Constitution, it (India) is incorporated and it is called the Constitution of India. India is an accepted word for our country. Making it Bharat, I don't think it is required."

DMK leader and Tamil Nadu Chief Minister M K Stalin, in a tweet, said, "Afternoon-BJP forces united to dethrone the fascist BJP regime and aptly named their alliance #INDIA, now the BJP wants to change 'India' for 'Bharat'. BJP promised to TRANSFORM India, but all we got is a name change after 9 years! Seems like the BJP is rattled by a single term called India because they recognise the strength of unity within the opposition. During the elections, 'India' will chase BJP out of power!"

West Bengal CM and Trinamool Congress chief Mamata Banerjee accused the BJP of attempting to "distort history".

At a Teacher's Day function in Kolkata, Banerjee said, "I have heard that in the invitation card for the G20 summit dinner, it is mentioned Bharat in English. We say India and the Indian Constitution and in Hindi we say 'Bharat ka Samvidhan'. We all say 'Bharat'. What is new in this? But the name India is known to the world. What happened that they suddenly had to change the name of the country? Any day, we will see them (BJP) change the name of Rabindranath Tagore also. History is being rewritten in the country."

Centre finalising LoR for acquisition of US drones

AMRITA NAYAK DUTTA
New Delhi, September 5

INDIA IS IN the final stages of drafting the Letter of Request (LoR) to send to the United States government for the acquisition of 31 MQ-9B drones from General Atomics (GA), top defence officials told The Indian Express.

As per the officials, the three services' requirements have already been taken in and the defence ministry will vet and finalise them.

The LoR, which would also include details of equipment and terms of the procurement, is expected to be sent across within a month, they said.

Based on the LoR, the US government and the defence ministry will finalise the Letter of Offer and Acceptance (LOA) where details of equipment and terms of the procurement would be negotiated and finalised in accordance with the FMS programme and the price and terms offered by the US government and GA to other countries.

An official said subsequent discussions will be held over execution of the project, including training people and providing training material as well as spares support. "We will look for spare support for the RPAS (Remotely Piloted Aircraft System) through Indian partners," the official said.

The acquisition of the MQ-9Bs — 16 Sky Guardian and 15 Sea Guardian High Altitude Long Endurance (HALE) RPAS — for the Indian Armed Forces from the United States through the Foreign Military Sale (FMS) route was cleared by the Defence Acquisition Council (DAC) in June and was among the key announcements made in the defence sector during Prime Minister Narendra Modi's State visit to the US in June.

China versus India is also OBOR versus Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

SHUBHAJIT ROY
New Delhi, September 5

AS CHINESE PRESIDENT Xi Jinping has decided to skip the G20 summit, the negotiators of India and China are in talks about the One Belt, One Road concept to be part of a joint communique, while India wants Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam to be included as well.

So, while the Russia-Ukraine war has polarised the G20 grouping for the last nine months, India and China are negotiating on the text to put their own philosophical imprint on the final summit declaration.

Beijing has moved an idea that India's theme, "One Earth, One Family, One Future" is actually inspired from China's "One Belt, One Road", which is often referred to as the Belt and Road Initiative. So it can be part of the communique. India doesn't agree to this and has resisted its inclusion in the joint document.

Instead, India wanted Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam to be included in the joint communique, saying that this is part of India's theme.

But the Sanskrit experts in the Chinese delegation have pointed out that Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam means "the world is a family", and India's theme — One Earth, One Family — does capture the meaning in a way. But in India's theme, there is "One Future" as well, which is not part of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam.

So Beijing's Sanskrit experts have said that Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam is not synonymous with "One Earth, One Family, One Future" — and, therefore, they cannot allow the phrase to come in the communique.

They have also said that New Delhi, by using the Sanskrit word Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, is setting a precedent, which has not been done by any host country before. Chinese diplomats have said that countries, which have held the Presidency, have not included phrases from their language or culture in the joint document.

Sources said that while the Sherpas — the top negotiators of the G20 countries — meet in Manesar for the next three days to finalise the document, it is unlikely that they will include either One Belt One Road or Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam. There is some resistance also in including the word MAHARISHI, a millet initiative, which India says is an acronym of Millets an Other Ancient Grains International Research Initiative (MAHARISHI).

Again Beijing's negotiators — some of them well-versed in Sanskrit and Hindi — have pointed out that Maharishi means "sage" in Sanskrit, and is a roundabout way of including a Sanskrit term in the joint communique.

Sources said that while a consensus to include the word Maharishi was emerging in the G20 agriculture working group meetings, it was fraying at the high-level negotiations where Sherpas and Sous-Sherpas look at every word minutely with a stronger political lens than subject experts in the working groups.

ED sends 5 to jail in Kerala over ₹300-cr hawala deals

THE ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE (ED) on Tuesday said it has detained and sent to jail five people in Kerala for their alleged involvement in international "hawala" dealings to the tune of more than ₹300 crore.

An order under the Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities Act, 1974 was issued on September 3 against VS Suresh Babu of Kottayam, AK Shajialias

Payasam Shaji, Mohammed Shibu, Mohammed Shiju of Ettumanoor and Siraj V Essakhan of Ernakulam, the federal agency said.

It said it was "established" that these people were involved in high-volume international "hawala" operations in contravention of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, running into more than ₹300 crore over the last several years. PTI

IIT-Mandi punishes 72 students over ragging

RAUNAK SARASWAT
New Delhi, September 5

THE INDIAN INSTITUTE of Technology in Mandi (IIT-Mandi) has banned interaction between senior batches and first-year students for a whole semester and initiated disciplinary action against 72 students — including the suspension of 10 students for six months — in response to allegations of ragging during a "freshers' mixer" held last month, The Indian Express has learnt.

While the incident reportedly occurred on August 11, IIT-Mandi Director, Professor Laxmidhar Behera, said in an email addressed to students on August 17 that the seniors had "breached" the "laxman rekha" (crossed the line) and 72 of them were found "guilty".

The Indian Express reached out to Professor Behera, Dean of Academics Aniruddha Chakraborty, and Dean of Student Affairs Hitesh Shrivastava for their comments. While Chakraborty and Shrivastava said they did not want to comment, Behera did not respond. There are varying degrees of punishment — a fine of ₹15,000 and 20 hours of community service; ₹20,000 and 40 hours of community service; ₹25,000 and 60 hours of community service; and a six-month suspension from academics and hostel.

The 10 suspended students, including three student body office-bearers who were responsible for organising the "freshers' mixer" and have since been stripped of their posts, vacated their hostel rooms by the end of August.

According to sources, these students, who are in their second, third and fourth years of engineering, have appealed to the institute for a reconsideration of the punishment. They have claimed that a prank played on new students every year during the "freshers' mixer" was misunderstood for ragging.

Following Karnataka model, Telangana Cong puts up sops posters

SREENIVAS JANYALA
Hyderabad, September 4

A poster put up by a Congress aspirant in Hyderabad

to the All India Congress Committee (AICC) to consider them as part of its process for selection of the candidates.

Congress sources said there are several aspirants from other parties too as they have either been denied a ticket or do not expect it. The BRS's sitting MLA from Khanapur, Rekha Ajmeera, who has been dropped this time by her party, has also applied for a Congress ticket. The maximum number of applications which the TPCC has received is from the constituencies where the party nominees won in the 2018 Assembly polls but defected to the BRS subsequently, especially from the Khammam region. The Congress had won 19 seats in 2018, but 13 of its MLAs had later defected to the BRS.

The TPCC's senior leader and its Political Affairs Committee convener Mohammed Ali Shabbir said that as the prospects of the Congress performing well in the elections have "brightened", many candidates were trying their luck for tickets.

For some constituencies we have received over 30 applications. There is a lot of anti-incumbency and BRS candidates can be defeated, that is why the rush of aspirants," he claimed.

Several Congress aspirants have printed posters promising the schemes that would be implemented in the event of the party's victory, which include free public transport for women, financial assistance to jobless youths, subsidised LPG, increased pension of Rs 4,000 per month, and Rs 5 lakh aid for building of a house, among other sops.

Some Congress leaders have put up posters listing the "Scheduled Castes (SCs), Scheduled Tribes (STs) Declaration", released by Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge recently, which is a set of the party's 12 promises for the welfare and development of the SCs and the STs.

Some posters have listed the welfare schemes the Congress has lined up for Backward Classes (BCs), Muslims and Christians.
