Dear Sir/Madam,

DroneAacharya Aerial Innovations Ltd. is pleased to announce its strategic investment in Gridbots Technologies, a move poised to further strengthen the existing partnership between the two companies. The collaboration, initiated last year, has already proven fruitful, leading to the joint provision of integrated automation solutions leveraging drones and bots.

The partnership between DroneAacharya Aerial Innovations Ltd. and Gridbots Technologies aims to enhance offerings by providing customers with a comprehensive array of drone and AI-based services. By capitalizing on Gridbots' expertise, DroneAacharya seeks to expand its reach and develop tailored solutions across various sectors including industrial automation, defense, oil, and gas industries.

Gridbots Technologies is renowned for its indigenous robotic systems catering to defense, space, nuclear establishments, and other industries. Their high-performance systems, designed for defect detection, dimension measurement, sorting, grading applications, among others, exemplify innovation and reliability in the industry.

Mr. Pulkit Gaur, Founder, and CTO of Gridbots expressed enthusiasm about the collaboration, citing the increasing demand for drone and bot-enabled solutions across industries such as energy, defense,
