Jaishankar greets Iran on Islamic Revolution anniversary

NEW DELHI: Foreign Minister S Jaishankar on Wednesday greeted his Iranian counterpart Mohammad Javad Zarif on the eve of the Islamic Revolution's anniversary. He tweeted, "Greetings to FM @JZarif and the Government & people of Iran on the Anniversary of the Islamic Revolution. Deeply value our close ties. Confident that our relations will continue to grow." Iranian Revolution refers to the popular movement in Iran (1979) to overthrow a pro-western monarchy and establish an Islamic republic.

CM says leaders are just roaming around West Bengal in luxury buses

ARITRA SINGHA
Kolkata

A day before Union Home Minister Amit Shah is visiting West Bengal's Coochbehar to inaugurate the fourth 'Parivartan Yatra', Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Wednesday alleged the BJP leaders who are leading the 'Yatra' think they are Gods. "Everyone knows Rath Yatra is famous for Lord Jagannath. The BJP is dividing people on religious lines and they think they are mightier than Lord Jagannath. They are spoiling the sanctity of Rath Yatra," said Banerjee at a rally in Raiganj.

Mamata said in the name of Rath Yatra, BJP leaders are roaming in luxury buses and have set up luxury hotels inside those buses. Addressing another rally in Malda, the TMC supremo claimed that the BJP is trying to control West Bengal from Delhi and Gujarat but she said that she won't let it happen. According to poll analysts, BJP through their 'Parivartan Yatra' can yield good results in the upcoming poll as CM Mamata Banerjee is still a strong face of West Bengal. Meanwhile, the Calcutta High Court on February 9 refused to give a stay order to BJP's 'Parivartan Yatra', sending a sense of relief to the saffron camp.

Sarkar's plea to stay the 'Rath Yatra' citing the ongoing pandemic.

These yatras are scheduled to touch all 294 Assembly constituencies across West Bengal and are likely to culminate in Kolkata where Prime Minister Narendra Modi is scheduled to hold a public rally in Brigade Parade ground. Notably, similar Rath Yatras were planned by the saffron camp in 2018 ahead of the parliamentary election in 2019 but the Mamata Banerjee-led TMC government didn't give permission to the BJP to hold the yatras.

UP Police gun down accused for beating up cop to death

SRRAWAN SHUKLA / Lucknow

Within a few hours of a police constable beaten to death by six goons of a liquor mafia in Kasganj district on Tuesday evening, the Uttar Pradesh Police gunned down brother of the main accused in an encounter in the wee hours of Wednesday.

Infuriated over another attack on Khaki by criminals, the CM has directed to invoke NSA against the liquor mafia and his henchmen. Yogi Adityanath announced an ex gratia of Rs50 lakh to the family of the deceased cop and a government job.

Constable Devedendra Singh and SI Ashok Pal had gone to the house of liquor Moti Shukya in Nagla Dhimar village to serve a legal notice. They were surrounded by Moti and his goons who stripped their uniform and thrashed them. Later, they took the cops to jungle where they killed the constable.

13 NAXALS SURRENDER IN DANTEWADA

AVDHESH MALLICK / Raipur

Thirteen Maoists, three of whom carried cash rewards of Rs1 lakh each on their heads, have surrendered in Dantewada district, police said on Wednesday. The surrendered ultras who carried a bounty of Rs1 lakh each included Lakhma Midiyami, the Maoist Janmilta commander, Bheema alias Kamla Karma, president of Maoist DKAMS (Dandakaranya Kisan Adivasi Majdur Sangh), a frontal organisation of CPI (Maoist) and Jogi Midiyami, a member of Maoist IGS. According to police, Mangal Ram Sodhi involved in the attack on the house of Congress leader Avdhesh Gautam at Nakulnar in 2010 has also surrendered under the Dantewada police's special drive 'Lon Vratu' ('homecoming' in local language) launched in June 2020. So far, 310 Maoists have surrendered in the district. They were provided with an immediate financial aid of Rs10,000 and will be rehabilitated in accordance with the policy of the state government.

Tribal girl sold 7 times: BJP women cell

A girl from Chhattisgarh's tribal dominated Jashpur district was sold 7 times before she committed suicide, state BJP State Women Cell (SWC) said on Wednesday. President of BJP SWC Shalini Rajput alleged gross injustice happened to the girl as she was sold 7 times. She was first trafficked to Chhatrapur in Madhya Pradesh then UP and she eventually committed suicide. Rajput alleged the state government has become insensitive towards human trafficking and crime against women. Six months back the victim girl's father had complained to police but no action was taken, she said, questioning if the government was sleeping over it. Meanwhile, speaking to FPI, Balaji Rao, SP in Jashpur refuted the allegations of the girl being trafficked 7 times.

Panchayat poll violence: 20 years on, 24 jailed for murder

SRRAWAN SHUKLA / Lucknow

In a 20-year-old case related to murder and violence during the panchayat poll, a Behraich court on Wednesday sentenced 24 accused to life imprisonment. Cases against 6 others, who died during the trial, were set aside by the court.

Equipped with firearms, bombs and other weapons, 30 people had attacked a poll booth in Hariya Dolkua village in UP's Behraich on June 14, 2000. They tried to indulge in bogus voting and when opposed by supporters of other candidates, they opened fire, hurled bombs and looted ballot boxes.

While Ramesh Tiwari died on the spot, 7 others had received gunshot injuries in the attack. On a complaint by the deceased's brother, the police had registered cases against 30 accused under IPC Sections 147, 148, 302/149, 307/149, 323 and 171. After hearing final arguments, additional sessions judge (6th) Manoj Kumar Mishra-II convicted all the 30 accused.

SUNNY LEONE GETS RELIEF FROM KERALA HC

KOCHI: A bench of the Kerala High Court on Wednesday gave relief to Bollywood actor Sunny Leone and two of her close aides from being arrested on a complaint filed by an event manager in Kochi in an alleged cheating case. The court asked the Crime Branch wing of the Kerala Police probing the case not to arrest the three till they are served notices as per the criminal procedures. Early this month in the state capital, the actress was questioned by the Kerala Police at a private resort in the same case, where she explained the sequence of events and claimed she had done no wrong. R Shiyas who conducts events in Kochi had complained to Kerala DGP Sunny had taken Rs29 lakh from him, promising to attend inaugural functions but failed to do so.

Bhima Koregaon: Key evidence was planted?

By relying on the report, Wilson further states that the FSL concludes that he never opened the planted material on his laptop. "Therefore, it is just and necessary, that this court does inquire into the fraud committed on me in order to frame me and the co-accused with the aim of keeping us behind bars for an indefinite period of time. The planting and framing amounts to false prosecution with malice in fact and in law, as is obvious from the selective prosecution of the accused, while neglecting to prosecute the real culprits of the violence," the petition states. Wilson has further claimed that he is being targeted for his political views through fabricated and false evidence. Accordingly, a prayer has been made to appoint an SIT to be headed either by a retired HC or SC judge along with professionals and experts on the panel to probe this aspect of the case. The matter would be heard in due course.

Twitter yields partly to govt diktat

Mostly, these accounts were alleged to have links to Pakistan and Khalistan supporters who were spreading misinformation and provocative content related to farmers' protest. It is understood that the government has told Twitter in its latest directive that it must delete 257 handles, and this was non-negotiable. Sources said the government is not happy with Twitter's response despite repeated notices to streamline the system.

DESI COUNTER TO TWITTER

Soon after, several other leaders and government departments also joined Twitter's 'desi' alternative. This, of course, does not mean that Twitter is likely to be banned in India. It is another matter though that the platform is proscribed in four countries: China, North Korea, Turkmenistan and Iran. India is unlikely to have the dubious distinction of being in such a club.

Thinning of troops at Finger 4, admits China

Though both sides disengaged in the Galwan valley in July, the stand-off continued at critical points at Pangong and PP17A. In August, Indian troops gained control of multiple strategic heights in Chushul sector along the LAC, which changed the overall equation. According to a media report (ref: India Today), the understanding is that China will move back to Finger 8 and Indian troops will pull back to the Dhan Singh Thapa post between Finger 2 and 3. There will be no patrolling by either side at Finger 4. These sources added that while marginal thinning of troops has taken place, removal of tanks and weapons is yet to happen.

Newborns choked for 21 minutes...

Topes said on the fateful day, because of a short circuit, there were sparks for 12 minutes, culminating in a fire in the ward. However, it went unnoticed as the two nurses were not present on the job. The state government has already suspended district civil surgeon Dr Pramod Khandate, along with the on-duty medical officer of the hospital, Dr Archana Meshram. Additional Civil Surgeon Dr Sunila Bade has been transferred to a non-executive post while Paediatrician Dr Sushil Ambade has been terminated. The Nagpur Divisional Commissioner Sanjay Kumar, had, in his report, observed that the hospital administration's lapses led to the fire which occurred between 1 and 1.30am on January 9. The report had held civil surgeon Khandate and additional civil surgeon Bade responsible for negligence and the hospital suffering from lack of maintenance. The report stated that on duty nurses AmbilDuke and Sathavane were not at their nursing station at time of the fire. Sister in charge Jyoti Bhaskar, who was suspended, was held responsible for not ensuring that the nurses were present at the nursing station. Medical officer Meshram and paediatrician Ambade have been held responsible for not being present at the SNCU at the time of the incident though they were on duty there.

Kangana takes a 3600 about-turn

The bench of Justice Chavan had, in an earlier hearing, granted 2 weeks to the actress to spell out if she would approach BMC. Accordingly, on Wednesday, when the matter was called out for hearing, senior counsel Dr Saraf told the judge his client had decided to withdraw the plea.

A pious movement has been dishonoured: PM

He also underscored that India will emerge as a strong player in a post-coronavirus world. "The post-COVID world is turning out to be very different. In such times, remaining isolated from global trends will be counter-productive. We'll have to emerge as a strong player. That is why, India is working towards building an Aatmanirbhar Bharat," the prime minister said. He asserted the farm laws enacted in September are not binding on farmers but are optional and give them additional choice. He challenged the farmers to prove to the contrary, if anything has been snatched from them. He described the continuous ruckus by the Opposition, while he was replying to the debate in the Lok Sabha, as a well-thought out strategy to drown his submissions. As Modi spoke about the laws and the protestors, most Congress MPs staged a walkout from the Lok Sabha. Unlike his combative speech in the Rajya Sabha on Monday, Modi kept his cool despite 20 minutes of din and pandemonium, until it died down, to let him speak without any further interruptions. He said his government wants to take the nation forward and cited the decisions taken by it nobody had called for; the farm laws fell in this category.

Explaining why his government has been opposed to status quo since he came to power, Modi said there have been no investments in agriculture and therefore the urgency to modernise and make farmers self-dependant. The Prime Minister said 80 to 85 per cent of those engaged in agriculture are small farmers, whose fragmented holding are becoming smaller and smaller; he recalled the late Prime Minister Chaudhury Charan Singh having said that a day will come when the holdings will be so small that a farmer won't be able to even turn a tractor in his field. The PM cited how the number of farm labourers has gone up from 28 per cent to 55 per cent; their land holdings have become so small that they are compelled to work in others' fields.

Corona's blow: Maha Govt fiscal deficit to be 6%-7%

Another minister said that the state government, during the current fiscal, had resorted to overdraft from the RBI. "However, for Feb and March, the government will not need the overdraft, as it has made the necessary provision," he added. However, the government will be forced to curtail the Rs4.5 lakh crore budget by Rs 1 lakh crore. Between April 2020 and January 2021, the state's income was only 54 per cent of its target for 2020-21 and it was 20 per cent lower than its income for the corresponding period in 2019-20. The state had generated Rs 1.88 lakh crore in revenue till January-end. Pawar, in his annual Budget for 2020-21, had set a revenue target of Rs 3.47 lakh crore. In 2019-20, the state had collected Rs 2.37 lakh crore in revenue by the end of January 2020, which was 75 per cent of the target. The state's collection of major taxes is down 53.6 per cent of the target, while non-tax revenue is 47.3 per cent of the target. Further, the state had received 52 per cent of its target in the share of Central taxes by the end of January, as against 66 per cent in the corresponding period last year.

Bandra, CSMT restoration projects chugging away

Likewise, CR has received funding for the restoration of CSMT world-class UNESCO station and its transformation into a world-class museum. For the conservation of CSMT, senior CR officials said they had received Rs60 lakh in this Budget. They received Rs10 lakh for the first time, to facilitate the conversion of the existing heritage building into a world-class museum at a cost of Rs 25 crore. "We have carried out major works in the restoration of this world heritage site during the lockdown, on this Rs51-crore project," said a CR official. Sculptors from Rajasthan have been called in to repair the dilapidated gargoyles, and restoration of certain granite and marble work is on the agenda. Also on the to-do list is the cleaning of the dome and its walls, with drones having been deployed to identify cobwebs and dusty spots. The terminus staircase leads to the first and second floors, which are a blend of Victorian Gothic Revival and Indian architecture. The dome has small rectangular green, grey and sand tiles in a combination. The project has been divided into sub-works, such as the restoration of the western facade (facing DN Road), the stained glass work, and the restoration of the sky-lit concourse.
