1	The above financial results were reviewed and recommended by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors Directors at their meeting held on 11th August 2023 and have been subjected to review by the Statutory Auditors of the company. The above results have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016.
2	The company's standalone profits for the present quarter have witnessed a decline in comparison to the profits recorded in the corresponding quarter of the prior year. This decrease is primarily attributed to a noteworthy escalation in finance costs. In the preceding fiscal year, the company opted to finance its acquisition using debt capital, resulting in a surge in finance expenses. Consequently, this exerted downward pressure on the profit before tax (PBT). This emerged as the principal factor driving the reduction in PBT. This assertion is supported by the levels of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA), with Q1 of the 2022-23 fiscal year at 10.95%, whereas the same metric for the current period stands at 12.10%.
3	During the period under review, the management of our material subsidiary made a strategic decision to produce more finished goods and procure raw materials more than required for the current quarter. This initiative was aimed at bolstering their negotiating position during peak seasons with customers. However, this move resulted in a rise in the Cost of Goods Sold (COGS), consequently exerting downward pressure on the Profit Before Tax (PBT) for the current quarter. It is anticipated that the positive effects of this strategic choice will manifest in the upcoming quarters. Additionally, the material subsidiary had previously obtained a non-interest-bearing unsecured loan from its related party. Subsequently, the board of directors of the related party revised the terms and conditions of this loan to make it interest-bearing unsecured loan. As a result, there was a further escalation in finance costs, impacting the PBT of the material subsidiary.
4	The financial results are being forwarded to the Bombay Stock Exchange & also available on the company website (www.indrayani.com).
5	Financial Results quarter ended 31st march 2023 are the balancing figures between the audited figures in respect of the full financial year ended 31st march 2023 and unaudited year to date figures upto period ended 31st Dec 2022.

Southern sensation with twinkle toes

M Rafi Ahmed

For the first female superstar of Indian cinema--- everything begins and ends with dance. Opening up her heart about the road she had travelled as an acclaimed dancer, actor, golfer and a politician in her memoir titled 'Bonding' co-authored by Jyoti Sabharwal. Vyjayanthimala Bali writes to say how she had to put up a brave face to face the challenges at every phase of her life.

The southern sensation with twinkle toes turned 90 today (Aug 13,1933). Browsing through the pages of her autobiography, it revealed that she was gifted to perform a dance recital in front of Pope wayback in 1939 when she was just six years.

From a humble beginning, she rose to dizzy heights to show her prowess both in acting and dancing right from her maiden movie AVM's 'Vazhkai' in 1949 to her last film Gangwar in 1970.

However, dancing was close to her heart which she continues even now. As cultural ambassador of India, she flew to several nations to exhibit her Bharatanatyam skill in traditional style winning accolades from Kings, Queens, Presidents and Prime Ministers. Pertinent to point out that she performed at Sarah Bernhardt Theatre in Paris for UNESCO, Scala Theatre in London, and Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow in the late 1950s.

And she had the unique honour as the first Indian dancer to give a Bharatanatyam recital at the General Assembly of United Nations, to commemorate the 21st Anniversary of the Declaration of Human Rights, in 1969 and received a standing ovation. Further, she was the first Indian artiste to dance at the International Opera House at Sydney, besides recitals at the Adelaide Festival, Royal Opera Ballet Festival, Stockholm, Holland Festival at Rotterdam, Middle East and Far East.

Born in Chennai Triplicane near Parthasarathy Temple to a Tamil Iyengar Brahmin family--Mandyam Dhati Raman and Vasundhara Devi, a famed actress, she was brought up by her grandmother, Yadugiri Devi. Vyjayanthi attended Sacred Heart Higher Secondary from Guru Vazhuvoor Ramiah Pillai and Carnatic music from Manakkal Sivaraja Iyer.

School, Presentation Convent, Church Park, Chennai and later learned Bharatanatyam

She had her arangetram at the age of 13 and started performing in Tamil Nadu. Wrapped in a colourful traditional dress was a 13-year-old damsel dancing to the tunes of classical Indian music with a dash of elegance at a hall in the then Madras when a famous south Indian director MV Raman, who was mesmerised by her swift dance movements and graceful expressions craved to introduce her in a lead role in the upcoming movie Vazhkai (1949) in Tamil. And thus began the story of the first female superstar of Indian cinema, Vyjayanthimala Bali.

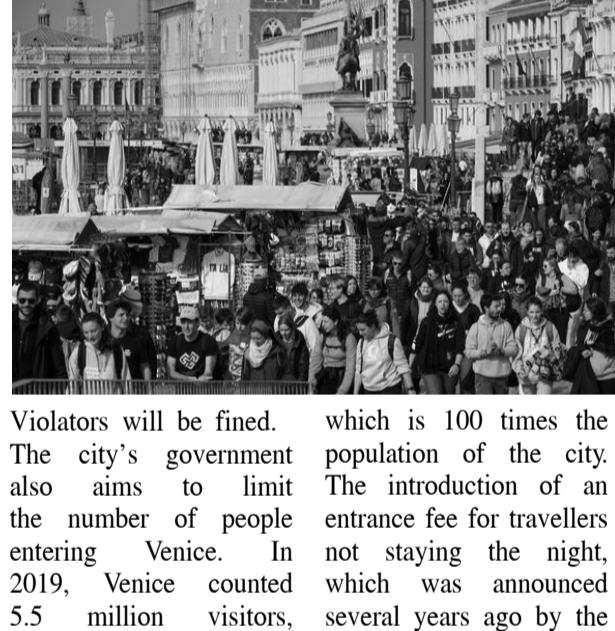

It may be noted that Vyjayanthimala married the already married

Chamalal Bali, a Punjabi Hindu Arya Samaji from Delhi but lived in Anna Salai, Chennai in 1968. After marriage, she gave up her acting career and moved to Chennai. However, between 1968 and 1970, she shot for those films which she had signed before her marriage, such as Pyar Hi Pyar, Prince and Ganwaar. She now lives with her son Suchindra Bali in Chennai.

With a career spanning over two decades, Vyjayanthi's hit films include Sadhana (1958), Madhumati (1958), Ganga Jamuna (1961) and Sunghursh (1968), Sangam, Devadas, Suraj, Jewel Thief, Zindagi, Bahar and Naya Daur. She has paired with Dilip Kumar, Raj Kapoor, Rajendra Kumar besides MGR, Sivaji Ganesan and Gemini Ganesan. Not just this, she was also a choreographer, playback singer and producer.

Italy fights against mass tourism

Venice, Aug 13: Tourists in Venice are expected to be on their best behaviour. For years, the northern Italian city has been fighting the negative aspects of mass tourism — and as a result, strict rules for vacationers are being enforced this summer. It's now forbidden to walk around the city naked or to jump into the canals for a swim. Tourists had also better watch where they take a seat — sitting and lying down is prohibited on sidewalks and bridges and on the sides of fountains and stairs.

Violators will be fined. The city's government also aims to limit the number of people entering Venice. In 2019, Venice counted 5.5 million visitors, which is 100 times the population of the city. The introduction of an entrance fee for travellers not staying the night, which was announced several years ago by the Venice city council, has yet to be put in place. It has now been postponed until 2024. The entry fee will then be tested on a trial basis during 20 days when crowds in the city are particularly heavy, according to a city government spokesperson. "However, the matter is very complex," he added. "The city of Venice is the first in Italy to implement this measure. We want to be sure that everything is done properly." There is no model to follow, he pointed out.
