No confusion within MVA, will ensure successful I.N.D.I.A meeting in Mumbai, says Pawar

BARAMATI, AUG 14 /-- Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) Chief Sharad Pawar on Monday said there is no confusion within the Opposition Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) alliance over his meeting with nephew and Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar in Pune.

The MVA is united and will be successfully organising the next meeting of Opposition bloc I.N.D.I.A in Mumbai on August 31 and September 1. Pawar told reporters in Baramati. This was the 82-year-old veteran politician's maiden visit to his home turf after Ajit Pawar joined the NCP chief to clear the confusion about his government on July 2. MVA constituents Congress and Shiv Sena (Uddhav Balasaheb Thackeray) had asked the NCP chief to clear the confusion about such meetings between the uncle and nephew taken in political circles. "There is no confusion among MVA partners. We are all together and will ensure the INDIA meeting in Mumbai on August 31 and September 1 is organised successfully," he said.

Uddhav Thackeray and state Congress president Nana Patole have taken the responsibility of organising the INDIA meeting in Mumbai. Pawar said the meeting will be held at a luxury hotel. The NCP has no association with "factions from MVA" which align with the BJP at the state and national level, he said, alluding to the move by his nephew. Pawar sidestepped a question on an editorial in Monday's issue of Shiv Sena (U) mouthpiece 'Saamant' expressing displeasure over the "frequent meetings" between him and Ajit Pawar. Asked about rumours that Maharashtra NCP chief Jayant Patil may join hands with the BJP and also whether there was a discussion about him during a meeting with Ajit Pawar in Pune, the NCP president said no such discussion took place.

"I heard Jayant Patil's brother received a notice of ED. Such steps are being taken by misusing the power. Some of our colleagues received notices, and then they went with the BJP and a similar attempt is being made in the case of Jayant Patil, but I am sure his stand regarding the ideology is clear," he said. To a query on the monsoon session of Parliament which concluded last week, the former Union minister said one of the most important issues was of strife-torn Manipur. The issue is not just limited to Manipur, he said. Some of the NCP MPs are engaged along the border with China and there is also one country beyond Manipur. If hardships are related to the people who live in border areas, and if the government is not paying attention to these hardships, then it is the "most worrisome thing for the country," he said. That is why the Opposition tried to raise the issue in Parliament continuously, but the government did not show any intent to discuss under one particular section, so the demand was not fulfilled, he said.

The Prime Minister spoke for more than two hours (referring to the PM's reply in the Lok Sabha to the no-confidence brought by the Congress for the first time), but he spoke on the Manipur issue for a limited time. His speech lacked the stand of giving some hope to the people of Manipur using some concrete steps, and that is why substantial output was achieved, Pawar claimed. Asked about the BJP blaming the Congress for what happened in Manipur, he said, "The NCP president also said he is expecting to speak to party leader Nawab Malik, who was on Friday granted two months' interim bail by the Supreme Court in a money laundering case."

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) has arrested the former minister for over 23 years in a case registered by the Goaivala compound property in Kurfa, after he had tried to gangster Dawood Ibrahim. (PTI)

TN Govt to boycott Guv's I-day tea party over his pro-NEET stand: CM

CHENNAI, AUG 14 /-- Staunchly denouncing Governor R N Ravi's pro-NEET stand, Chief Minister M K Stalin on Monday said his government would boycott the tea party to be hosted by him on Independence Day.

Two days ago, Ravi had said that he would never give assent to the Tamil Nadu Assembly Bill to exempt the state from the purview of the national test "if he had the power to do so". The Governor's statement has shocked students and young people, Chief Minister Stalin said, condemning Ravi's words.

"The Bill is pending with the President for her assent. The Governor's comment is irresponsible and belittles Tamil Nadu's seven year long anti-NEET struggle," the Chief Minister said. Ravi is causing confusion in the higher education department as well, and his pro-NEET comment is tantamount to "destroying" the dreams of students and their parents. (PTI)

Ajit Pawar may replace Shinde as Maharashtra CM, claims Oppn leader Wadettiwar

GADCHIROLI, AUG 14 /-- Maharashtra Opposition leader Vijay Wadettiwar on Monday suggested that Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) leader and Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar may replace Eknath Shinde as the Chief Minister.

Addressing a press conference in Gadchiroli city, Wadettiwar also claimed preparations are on to admit Shinde to a hospital and later replace him on "health grounds". He said NCP chief Sharad Pawar and Ajit Pawar, who heads the group of rebel NCP MLAs, met in Pune recently amid speculation about Shinde's likely replacement and in view of "talks among MLAs loyal to Ajit that he could be the Chief Minister".

The buzz about the "health" of Shinde, who was at his native village in Satara, grew louder after his supporter and MLA Sanjay Shinde recently claimed the Chief Minister has fallen sick as he works for 24 hours. "Information is coming out about ongoing preparations to admit Eknath Shinde in a hospital and replace him with a new chief minister." The Leader of Opposition said. Wadettiwar also claimed the Chief Minister's Office (CMO) has stated that Shinde is not keeping well. "I fear that (Shinde) may be admitted to a hospital for two months and may be replaced on medical grounds."

People of Maharashtra are asking whether preparations are on to admit Shinde in a hospital on medical grounds, the senior Congress leader said. Notably, Shiv Sena (U) mouthpiece Saamana also referred to MLA Shirsra's claim about Shinde's "sickness". Shinde works for 24 hours, but it does not reflect anywhere in the state. If he has lost his sleep from the fear of losing his post anytime, it cannot be termed that he is working round-the-clock, the Saamana said in its editorial on Monday.

"If Shirsra's claims are true, Shinde should be admitted to an ICU and kept away from meeting (Deputy CMs) Devendra Fadnis or Ajit Pawar. Shinde should be admitted to a good hospital in Mumbai or Thane," the editorial said sarcastically. (PTI)
