A Muslim teacher from City who shattered people's illusions about yoga during the Covid-19

Ahmedabad: Mehboob Qureshi, 27, of Juhapura, dispels beliefs about yoga among Muslims

Qureshi became the first Muslim yoga guru to practice yoga on the Great Wall of China

Yoga provides the power to fight such a life-threatening illness when a corona-like epidemic has yet to be cured. While people have turned to yoga in the Corona era, today, on the occasion of Teacher's Day, we are talking about a teacher who has dispelled the myth about yoga among Muslims. Mehboob Qureshi, a Muslim teacher from Ahmedabad, has so far taught yoga to millions of people and raised two of his Muslim students from a corona bed.

Qureshi became the first Muslim yoga guru to practice yoga on the wall of China and he has so far used yoga to help, inspired by the teachings of his guru Shri Raj Muni. He never made yoga a business.

He has also received the World Book of Record Award. Today, his students explain the importance of yoga in Corona.

Mehboob Qureshi, who lives in Juhapura, Ahmedabad, has been an international yoga trainer for 27 years and has been working as a teacher in a government school as well as an international yoga trainer. More than 500 people today are explaining the importance of yoga in Corona to their students. Mehboob is trying to win over Corona with yoga by sending videos to Corona positive people around him today.

Mehboob Qureshi is currently trying to get many people out of mental depression through yoga in the Koro epidemic as well as some people who are not doing yoga because they are Muslims. Nahida and Irfan, two Muslim students from Qureshi, were rushed to Corona and hospitalized. Mehboob Qureshi then sent him a video asking him to do yoga connected to the respiratory system. After recovering, these students today are explaining to many corona sufferers how to get rid of mental depression as well as how to fight corona through yoga.

Nahida Syed, who works as a teacher in a government school, told Divyabhaskar, "I was infected with corona and had difficulty breathing while doing survey work in different places amidst the corona epidemic." She was admitted to SVP Hospital, Ahmedabad. At that time Mehboob Qureshi contacted and sent videos of yoga pranayama. I started implementing it from the next day. Gradually, my health improved. Since I was a Muslim, people used to see me in the hospital doing yoga, then I showed this video to other people and they started doing yoga in the hospital. Many people have benefited from this whole thing. My job has started again and so far I have tried to stop over 500 people from getting depressed because of Corona and have encouraged people to do yoga. So today I am trying to save lives as per the work of my guru Mehboob Qureshi.

Irfan Sheikh, who is on duty as head teacher, told Divyabhaskar that the corona was affected while distributing government kits, I fell unconscious when I was admitted to the hospital, could not breathe and was kept on a ventilator. Mehboob Qureshi, who was removed from the ventilator 15 days later, contacted me and sent me videos of yoga-pranayama. Which helped me recover.

Private school administrators should take affidavit instead of oral representation on fee issue: HC Ahmedabad: After the lockdown, private school administrators held two meetings with the government on the issue of fee collection but no settlement was reached and the government has filed a petition seeking an order from the high court. The court has directed the administrators to file their affidavits, not orally, but on affidavits, as the administrators have not submitted their reply till date.

The government party argued that two meetings had been held with the administrators so far. Still not ready to compromise. With all the negotiations broken down, the High Court can now play a conciliatory role and issue appropriate orders to the administrators.

Private school administrators also refused to waive fees by 25 per cent. The government has asked the High Court to intervene and resolve the issue. Administrators have refused to reduce fees by 25 per cent for all students. Administrators offered to waive up to 25 per cent fees for children of parents who could not pay the fees, but no compromise could be reached between the two as the government asked for the rule to be introduced for all students. Administrators are required to make decisions in the best interests of parents and students. Rakshasakti University to disclose Rakshasakti University has filed a contempt of court order following the High Court's order.
