For Item No. 8

As per provisions of Section 14 of the Companies Act 2013, Alteration of Articles of Association of requires shareholders' approval by passing necessary resolution as a special resolution.

Currently, the definition of term Security as captured in the prevailing Articles of Association is as follows:

"1. [2] (b) "Securities" means the securities as defined in clause (h) of Section 2 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act 1956."

In order to have better flexibility with regard to fulfilling requirements of funds for various purposes in day to day operations or for capex funding requirements of the Company, it is proposed to include the Perpetual Instruments in the aforesaid definition. Perpetual Instruments are long term financing solutions having a pre-defined coupon rate with a very long term maturity period. Considering its long term maturity period, they are generally not considered as debt in net worth computation and allows companies to have access of funds for a longer period without diluting the ownership rights of existing shareholders. Although, the current definition of Securities in the Articles of Association allows the issuance of such Securities indirectly as being inclusive in nature, to have a more explicit enablement as a matter of abundant caution, the current modification is being proposed by addition of perpetual securities, perpetual debt or perpetual bonds as a part of the said definition.

The alteration of Articles of Association of the Company needs approval of shareholders of the Company by way of a Special Resolution.

A copy of Articles of Association of the Company with the proposed alteration is available for inspection at the Registered Office of the Company at any working day during business hours.

The Board of Directors recommends the above resolution for your approval.

None of the Directors or any key managerial personnel or any relative of any of the Directors of the Company or the relatives of any key managerial personnel is, in anyway concerned or interested in the above resolution.
