Micron nears $1 bn deal for chip packaging plant in India

SUDHI RANJAN SEN & SANKALP PHARTIYAL June 16

MICRON TECHNOLOGY IS close to an agreement to commit at least $1 billion toward setting up a semiconductor packaging factory in India, according to people with knowledge of the matter, a move to further diversify its geographic footprint at a time of US tensions with China.

An announcement could be made as soon as when Prime Minister Narendra Modi visits the US next week, said the people, who asked not to be identified because the details are private. The amount of money committed could go as high as $2 billion, one of the people said. The details could change as discussions are in progress, and there's no guarantee an agreement will be finalised.

India" plans, while offering Washington an opportunity to strengthen key supply chains outside of China. Removing barriers to technological trade between the two countries is a key part of Modi's state visit, US National Security Adviser Jake Sullivan said in New Delhi on Tuesday.

The Indian investment would follow a Chinese ban on the use of Micron chips in what Beijing called critical infrastructure, a move that cast uncertainty over the status of US chipmakers in the world's largest semiconductor market. On Friday, Micron pledged to invest $600 million more in its Chinese plant to create jobs and support the local market.

The technology ministry and ministry of external affairs didn't respond to requests for comment, while a representative for Micron declined to comment.

state visit June 21, with President Joe Biden hosting him for a banquet the following day. The Indian leader will also address the US Congress. Modi has pledged $10 billion to woo chipmakers to India, promising his administration will bear half the cost of setting up all semiconductor sites.

A leading business daily had previously reported Micron was set to get Indian government approval for a $1 billion assembly and packaging facility in India.

Marico targets to raise market share in hair oils category stable outlook

MITHUN DASGUPTA Kolkata, June 16

FMCG MAJOR MARICO is looking to keep raising its market share in the value added hair oils category "very aggressively" by introducing more product variants.

The company, which is the market leader in the ₹8,000 crore value-added hair oil category, currently has over 25% market share in value terms. "The value-added hair oils category in between did struggle a bit because of inflation. But, thankfully with inflation going down we are seeing the growth recovery happening. Our aspiration will be to keep increasing the market share. That is why you will see a lot of activities happening in the last two-three months.

"We have done a lot of communications not just on Nihar Naturals. We have done it on Nihar Shanti Amla and on the entire Parachute Advanced range," Marico chief marketing officer Somasree Bose Awasthi told reporters here on Friday.

In the value added hair oils category, the company has major brands like Nihar Naturals, Parachute Advansed and Hair & Care.

Apart from introducing more product variants, the company's objective is to increase its investment on promotions.

"Overall a lot of new communication is coming up. We are not just focussing on West

We are not just focussing on West Bengal or Hindi speaking markets. We are also focussing on a lot of south with hair fall variants Bengal or Hindi speaking markets. We are also focussing on a lot of south (India) with hair fall variants," Awasthi informed.

According to her, growth recovery has started on the industry level and there is a lot more potential for growth going forward."With all these new launches and new communications, the objective will be to gain market share. Our objective will definitely be very aggressive on that...All the markets are our focus areas," she said.

During Marico's Q4FY23 earnings conference call in May, the company said value growth in the VAHO (valueadded hair oils) portfolio was in mid-single digits on a four-year CAGR basis, lower than its medium-term aspiration, owing to the extended slowdown in rural. It was also affected by some other issues in terms of commoditization. However, rural growth in VAHO category has started improving quarter-on-quarter The company is now focussing on clocking "a double-digit growth" in VAHO in the next three years.

Nuvama Institutional Equities, in its note, said Marico's domestic business volumes grew 5% year-on-year. However, value growth was 2% y-oy during Q4FY23 due to price cuts in Parachute coconut oil and Saffola edible oil.
