Due diligence onus on celebrities: Asci

Regulator widens definition of celebrities in new guidelines after reporting spike in misleading ads

RAGHAV AGGARWAL
New Delhi, 9 August

The Advertising Standards Council of India (Asci) on Wednesday released fresh guidelines for celebrities — whose definition it broadened to include those with over 500,000 followers on social media — emphasising due diligence prior to endorsing a product.

Celebrities should ensure that the claims and descriptions made by ads were valid, it said. They should not participate in any ads for products that require a health warning like "... is injurious to health", Asci added.

"Celebrities should do due diligence to ensure that all description, claims and comparisons made in the advertisements they appear in, or endorse, are capable of being objectively ascertained and capable of substantiation, and should not mislead or appear deceptive," the revised guidelines said.

The industry watchdog also noticed a sharp increase in misleading ads featuring celebrities. Compared to 55 ads that Asci processed in 2021-22, the number of misleading ads by

'Celebrities' will include 'famous and well-known people' who get compensated ₹40 lakh or more annually for appearing in ads celebrities jumped to 500 in 2022-23.

Asci redefined "celebrities" to include "famous and well-known people", who get compensated ₹40 lakh or more annually for appearing in ads or campaigns on any media.

"With the advent of social media and the increasing popularity of influencers on digital media, the definition of celebrities has changed drastically. Earlier, only personalities from the world of sports or entertainment were considered celebrities. Today, however, the scenario is different. We have a range of personalities who are extremely popular on social media and share a close personal connection with consumers," said Manisha Kapoor, chief executive officer and secretary general, Asci.

"These personalities affect the spending habits of consumers who trust them. So, it's vital to ensure consumer protection, especially when celebrities endorse products or services that can cause serious financial loss and physical harm," she added.

The guidelines also said that celebrities should not participate in any advertisement of a product or treatment, or remedy that is prohibited for advertising under the Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954, and the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, and Rules, 1945.

"Testimonials, endorsements or representations of opinions or preference of celebrities must show the genuine, reasonably current opinion of the individual(s) making such representations, and must be based upon adequate information about, or experience with, the product or service being advertised," it added.

Assembly resolution urges Centre to rename state 'Keralam'

PTI
Thiruvananthapuram, 9 August

The Kerala Assembly on Wednesday unanimously adopted a resolution urging the Centre to officially change the state's name to "Keralam".

The resolution was moved by Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan, who urged the central government to change the state's name to "Keralam" in all languages included in the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India. The resolution was accepted by the Congress-led United Democratic Front opposition, which did not suggest any amendments or modifications. Subsequently, Speaker A N

Shamseer declared it as unanimously adopted by the Assembly based on a show of hands. Presenting the resolution, the CM said the state was called "Keralam" in Malayalam, but in other languages it was still Kerala. He said that the need to form a united Kerala for the Malayalam-speaking communities had strongly emerged since the time of the national freedom struggle.
