The Board of Directors Continental Exchange Solutions, Inc.:

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Continental Exchange Solutions, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2021, and the related consolidated statement of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2021, another results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (QAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We be believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit depinion.

chical requirements rolating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basile for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and for the design, implementation, and mantenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material missistament, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

onsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial States

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements our objectives are to obtain reascenable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as whole are free from material misetatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report the includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance an therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with CAAS will always detect a material misetatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misetatement resulting from fraud is higher that for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgory, interioriand omissions, misropressentations, the override of internal central. Misatatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial latements.

- In performing an auditin accordance with GAAS, we:
- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

   Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- statements.

  Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

  Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting poticies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolicated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, this planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters the we
