Minister tables Bill to extend terms of special officers

Chennai, Feb 5: Municipal Administration Minister SP Velumani on Thursday introduced a Bill in the Assembly to replace an Ordinance issued on December 29 to extend the terms of Special Officers at Village Panchayats, Panchayat Unions and District Panchayats in Kancheepuram, Chengalpattu, Vellore, Tirupattur, Ranipet, Villupuram, Kallakurichi, Tirunelveli and Tenkasi districts, for six more months since the local body polls in these areas are yet to be held.

Municipal Corporations for six more months. Minister for Cooperation Sellur K Raju introduced a Bill to amend the Tamil Nadu Cooperative Societies Act to provide for referring disputes between society and liquidator of another registered society or between the liquidators of two registered societies to the Registrar for decision, on the lines of Section 84 of Multi-State Cooperative Societies Act, 2002. At present, the Cooperative Societies Act provides for excessive time periods for probing frauds or misappropriation of funds.

Two years imprisonment, fine for online gambling in TN

Chennai, Feb 5: Online games like rummy and poker involving betting shall invite imprisonment up to two years or fine not exceeding Rs 10,000 or both, according to an amendment Bill introduced in the Tamil Nadu Assembly on Thursday seeking to replace an ordinance banning cyberspace gambling. No person shall "wager" or "bet" in games like rummy or "bet" in the similar games played online using "computers" or "any communication device" or any other instrument of gaming, the Bill said. Also, no one shall facilitate or organise such games involving gambling in the cyberspace. Violators shall be punished with imprisonment that may extend to two years or with fine not exceeding Rs 10,000 or with both, according to the Bill, and it covers "games of mere skill" as well if played in consideration of a "wager, bet, money or other stake". The Bill was moved by Deputy Chief Minister O Panneerselvam. Where an offence has been committed by a company, every person, in charge and responsible for the conduct of the business - at the time of the offence - as well as the firm shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished. Gaming does not include a lottery, but includes any game involving wagering or betting in person or in cyberspace. The Statement of Objects and Reasons for the Bill said: "Playing games like Rummy, Poker etc., using computers or mobile phones for money or other stakes which are addictive in nature had developed manifold in the recent times. As a result, innocent people got cheated and incidents of suicide were reported. In order to prevent such incidents of suicide and protect innocent people from the evils of online gaming, it was decided to ban wagering or betting in cyber space by suitably amending the relevant enactments." Accordingly, an ordinance was promulgated on November 20, 2020 and the present Bill seeks to replace the ordinance with certain modifications. The Bill envisages appropriate amendments to the Tamil Nadu Gaming Act, 1930, the Chennai City Police Act, 1888 and the Tamil Nadu District Police Act, 1859 to ban online gambling and provide punishment which includes imprisonment, fine or both.
