UP polls: Many sitting BJP legislators may be denied tickets

RASHMI SHARMA / Lucknow
Willing to repeat the success of 2017, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) has decided to act tough in the coming assembly polls of Uttar Pradesh. The party may deny tickets to many of its sitting legislators based on their performance. If sources are to be believed, over 100 sitting legislators could be denied tickets. The party has already taken feedback from the ground about the performance of its sitting legislators. The party may conduct a survey next month to know the feedback of public in all the 403 assembly segments. Till now, the party has taken feedback about the sitting legislators from the office bearers of their assembly segments. The final decision regarding tickets would be taken on the basis of the survey report. The party will also look into the winability factor of the sitting legislators.
According to a senior BJP leader from UP, the party has already worked on this formula in many other states including Gujarat and results have been encouraging. "This helps in minimising anti-incumbency factor during the assembly polls," he said. Besides fresh faces get a chance to contest in the elections. In the survey, the performance, popularity and work done by the sitting legislator would be judged. As per this formula, at least 30 to 35 per cent of the sitting legislators would not get tickets.
Meanwhile, the BJP will begin its exercise of shortlisting candidates next month. The district units and in-charges of assembly segments have been asked to submit a list of probable candidates. National president of BJP JP Nadda would be on a two-day visit to UP on August 7 and 8.

Terror charges against Mehbooba's close aide
SRINAGAR: A special court has framed terror charges against Waheed-ur-Rehman Parra, a senior PDP leader and close aide of former J&K CM Mehbooba Mufti, based on a police charge sheet claiming that he was an asset for Pakistan-based terror groups and that his 13-year journey as a journalist and politician from 2007 was a "saga of subterfuge, deceit and double-dealing".
The court had heard arguments on the framing of charges from the defence and the prosecution earlier this month and it allowed framing of charges against Waheed-ur-Rehman Parra, who is alleged to have established a nexus with terrorists.
