Contract orders received worth Rs. 7.69 Crores

Nashik, February 03, 2020: Karda Constructions Limited, a well-established Nashik based real estate developer, have recently entered into contractual construction, wherein the company bids for private and public projects in the field of real estate and infrastructure. The company has already received PWD license for the same.

The company has recently been awarded civil work order contract for the construction of the 'H' building of residential project 'Destination Kharadi' at Kharadi, Pune which is awarded by Destination Kharadi Developers LLP, Pune. The building construction contract is worth Rs. 7.69 Crores.

The company presently has total contracts worth Rs. 161.60 Crores including the above mentioned contract. The forward integration to contractual construction, enables the company to mitigate the risk of dependency on the cyclical nature of real estate business, and also widens its reach across India with minimal capital requirements.
