India key to world peace: Japanese envoy

PTI/Ahmedabad
India holds the key to securing peace and prosperity for the entire world, Ambassador of Japan to India Hiroshi Suzuki said here on Saturday.
He also said the "close synergy" between the two countries is more important than ever in view of India holding the presidency of G20 and Japan being the chair of G7 for this year.
"India holds the key to securing peace and prosperity for the entire world, India this year holds the presidency of G20. Prime Minister Narendra Modi will preside over the G20 summit in September," (Japanese) Prime Minister Fumio Kishida is the chair of G7. So, the close synergy between India and Japan is more important than ever," Suzuki said.
Speaking after inaugurating the 11th Japan Festival at Ahmedabad Management Association (AMA), Suzuki stressed the need for a people-to-people exchange to strengthen ties between the two countries.
India assumed the presidency of the G20 - a premier forum for international economic cooperation - on December 1, 2023. The G20 summit will be organised in New Delhi in September this year. Japan will host the annual G7 summit in May in Hiroshima.
The Japanese diplomat said the culture is the pillar that supports the "special partnership" between India and Japan which is global and strategic and encompasses wide-ranging areas of security, political and economic cooperation.
"All these will have to be supported by the people. That's why people-to-people exchange - youth exchange - is important. So I tell young students you will be the bridge of the future, you will be torchbearers of advancing special India-Japan partnership into the future," he said.
