BSP to go solo in three states

Mayawati slams politics of charges, counter-charges between Cong & BJP

OUR STAFF REPORTER
city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

BSP supremo Mayawati on Monday said her party would fight upcoming Assembly polls in three states on its own, and slammed the "politics of charges and counter-charges" played by the Congress and BJP in Madhya Pradesh. They should instead focus on burning issues, she said. The remarks came after Indore police said they registered an FIR against "handlers" of 'X' accounts of senior Congress leaders including Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, MP Congress chief Kamal Nath and former Union minister Arun Yadav over a post accusing the BJP government in Madhya Pradesh of corruption. "Due to politics of charges and counter-charges, and lawsuits between Congress and BJP on the 50 per cent commission allegation against Madhya Pradesh government, burning issues such as inflation, poverty, unemployment, exploitation and atrocities are getting out of focus during elections," Mayawati said in a post on X, formerly known as Twitter. "Corruption is an important issue not only in BJP-ruled Madhya Pradesh but also in Congress-ruled Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh. Because of their anti-people policies and tall claims of development, the sufferings of the poor, unemployed, farmers and women in these three states are the real election issues," she added. The BSP supremo said her party would contest Assembly elections in Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan on its own focusing on issues of public interest and welfare. The names of candidates are being announced at local level. The party is confident of good result, she added.

THANKING ALMIGHTY FOR SAFE RETURN OF NIRVA

Kuno officials make beeline to temples, offer special prayer

city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

A day after the elusive South African female Cheetah Nirva, was caught successfully, a section of forest officials of Kuno National Park on Monday headed to temples thanking almighty and offering special puja for the safe return of the feline. The Kuno officials and staffers, who were on toes for more than 20 days looking for the missing cheetah, had taken vow to offer special prayers the day the Cheetah Nirva was found alive. Nirva could not be traded for at least 22 days as her radio collar had stopped functioning. A senior officer of Kuno National Park, pleading anonymity, told Free Press that as there was no clue of Nirva for almost three weeks, there were apprehensions regarding her survival. The officials and their teams had pledged to offer spiral prayers at the temple if the big cat was found live. "Today (Monday), the forest officials performed special puja at three temples of Kuno to thank the almighty for ensuring the safe return of Nirva. We have been on toes for days in the bid to locate Nirva. Even at 3 am we would go inside the jungles looking for cheetahs as the entire country was patiently waiting for the success of Operation Nirva." It was a troublesome time for us as we remained away from family for days, said the officer.
