Sula Vineyards identifies New CFO, Launch Three New Luxury Lakeside Villas

Mumbai, 7 June 2023: Sula Vineyards, India's leading wine producer, announced today the signing on of a new CFO, and the launch of three new luxury villas at their iconic Beyond resort in Nasik.

Commenting on this, Rajeev Samant, Founder and CEO of Sula Vineyards, said, “I am pleased to announce that we have identified a new Chief Financial Officer, who will come on board in August. The candidate is a seasoned CFO with rich experience in the consumer sector during his stellar career. I am confident that he will form a valuable part of our leadership team as we continue to grow our business.” The appointment will be made after receiving statutory approvals and relevant disclosures.

Also, “we have added three stylish new villas overlooking the picturesque Gangapur lake in Nasik, modelled on our iconic Sky Villa which is always over-booked. With the addition of new villas, we hope that more guests can experience the joy of a vineyard retreat!”

In a separate development, Sula's The Source Chenin Blanc Reserve won the country's first ever wine medal at the prestigious Concours Mondial de Bruxelles 2023, arguably India's finest dry Chenin Blanc, making it a proud day for India. Sula's Rasa Syrah and Dindori Reserve Chardonnay also won two golds at the 2023 Paris Wine Cup.

Sula is leading the charge for recognition of Indian wines globally and has won a spate of medals at international wine competitions over the past decade, a testament to Sula's commitment to craft high-quality wines that are enjoyed by wine lovers around the globe.

About Sula Vineyards Limited

Over the last two decades, Sula Vineyards has played a pivotal role in building the Indian wine industry. A true pioneer not only did Sula establish the world's newest premium wine region of Nasik, but it also put India on the global wine map. Sula's wines have won numerous awards in top global wine competitions including Decanter World Wine Awards and the International Wine Challenge.

With wineries in Maharashtra and Karnataka, Sula constantly explores the local terroir to make authentic, artisanal wines – producing and selling over 1 million cases across India. Sula pioneered wine tourism in India and today over 3 lakh visitors visit Sula's iconic Nasik estate annually. Sula opened the country's first Winery Tasting Room in 2005, and India's first vineyard resorts in 2010.

Firmly committed to remaining at the forefront of Indian wine, Sula continues to pioneer grape varieties, engage in sustainable agriculture, and support the local rural economy. Along with innovation, Sula sees sustainability as a key pillar in all its operations and is one of Asia's most sustainable wine producers. Sula is the first Asian winery to join the International Wineries for Climate Action (IWCA), with the shared goal of net-zero emissions by 2050.
