Tanla Doubles Down on Sustainability, Achieving Industry Mover Recognition in S&P Global Sustainability Yearbook 2024

Hyderabad, India – February 8, 2024 – Tanla Platforms Limited, a leading cloud communications provider, announces it has doubled its S&P Global ESG score in 2023, reaching 68/100 and securing a coveted spot in the Sustainability Yearbook 2024 as an "Industry Mover". This significant achievement underscores Tanla's unwavering commitment to integrating sustainability into every aspect of its operations, going beyond just the platforms it builds.

Tanla's commitment to sustainability extends across its entire ecosystem, from its innovative solutions that promote data privacy and security to its efforts to combat spam and scam for the billions of mobile users it serves. This commitment is further reflected in its 99th percentile company Benchmarking Scorecard from S&P Global, a clear indicator that the company is on the right track.

Key highlights of Tanla's sustainability efforts:

- Doubled S&P Global ESG score in 2023 to 68/100.
- Recognized as an "Industry Mover" in the Sustainability Yearbook 2024.
- Achieved a 99th percentile company Benchmarking Scorecard from S&P Global.
- Develops innovative solutions that promote accessibility, data privacy, and security.
- Actively combats spam and scam for billions of mobile users.
