Ukraine Asks G7 to Seize Russian Assets to Rebuild

Weissenhaus, Germany: Ukraine asked the G7 group of rich nations on Friday to seize Russian assets and hand them over to help it rebuild after months of war, Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba said.

Kuleba said he made the request while addressing a meeting of G7 foreign ministers in northern Germany. "We are talking about hundreds of billions of dollars. Russia must pay," Kuleba told reporters on the sidelines of the session.

He also called on the European Union to push through plans for wider sanctions in Russia, including an oil embargo, and said he hoped Hungary would drop opposition to the scheme.

"We do not interfere in their discussion, but it's a critical moment when we will see whether EU unity will continue to exist or whether it will be broken," he said.

The G7 foreign ministers backed giving more aid and weapons to Kyiv and at the meeting, in what Germany called a "powerful sign of unity" to deepen Russia's global isolation.

Kuleba said there has been much improvement on weapons supplies to the country but more were needed to ensure Kyiv could continue to hold out against Moscow, especially multiple rocket launch systems.

He accused Russia of blocking Ukrainian exports of agricultural products and said the G7 had discussed how to lift the blockade.

"The Kremlin calls its Feb. 24 invasion of Ukraine a 'special military operation' to demilitarise a neighbour threatening its security. Ukraine says it poses no threat to Russia and that the deaths of thousands of civilians and destruction of cities and towns show that Russia is waging a war of aggression.

Ukrainian forces destroyed a pontoon bridge and parts of a Russian armoured column as it tried to cross a river in the Donbas region, video released by Ukraine's military showed on Friday, and a Russian naval ship was set afire in the Black Sea. —Reuters

Zelenskyy Reiterates His Readiness to Talk to Putin

Won't recognise Crimea as part of Russia, rules out compromise on territorial integrity

Rome: Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy says that he is ready to talk with Russian President Vladimir Putin and that "we must find an agreement," but with no ultimatum as a condition.

Zelenskyy also told Italian RAI state TV in an interview scheduled to be broadcast on Thursday night that Ukraine will never recognise Crimea as part of Russia, which annexed that part of southern Ukraine in 2014.

"Crimea has always had its autonomy, it has its parliament, but on the inside of Ukraine," Zelenskyy said, in excerpts of the interview that RAI released earlier on Thursday.

The interviewer asked the Ukrainian leader about a comment by French President Emmanuel Macron cautioning against any humiliation of Putin. "We want the Russian army to leave our land, we aren't on Russian soil," Zelenskyy replied. "We won't save Putin's face by paying with our territory. That would be unjust."

In another comment, Zelenskyy sounded a forward-looking note. "We have to think of the future of Russia. I, as president of Ukraine, say these are our neighbors. There will be other presidents, other presidents and other generations" of Russia, Zelenskyy said. —AP

Don't Favour Sweden, Finland in NATO: Erdogan

Ankara: President Tayyip Erdogan said on Friday it was not possible for NATO-member Turkey to support plans by Sweden and Finland to join the pact, saying the Nordic countries were "home to many terrorist organisations". Turkey's opposition could pose a problem for Sweden and Finland given new members need unanimous pact. —Reuters

Bitcoin Set for Record Losing Streak on 'Stablecoin' Crash

Reuters

Singapore | Hong Kong: Cryptocurrencies nursed large losses on Friday, with bitcoin trading near $30,000 and set for a record losing streak as the collapse of TerraUSD, a so-called stablecoin, rippled through markets.

Crypto assets have also been swept up in broad selling of risky investments on worries about high inflation and rising interest rates. Sentiment is particularly fragile, as tokens supposed to be pegged to the dollar have faltered.

Bitcoin, the largest cryptocurrency by total market value, managed to bounce in the Asia session and traded at $30,300 at 0623 GMT, up 5%. It has staged something of a recovery from a 16-month low of around $25,400 reached on Thursday.

But it remains far below week-ago levels of around $40,000 and, unless there is a rebound in weekend trade, is headed for a record seventh consecutive weekly loss.

Shanghai Aims to Defeat Covid Over Next Week

Beijingers stay home; Officials pledge support for economy

Shanghai | Beijing: Locked-down Shanghai aims to ring-fence its COVID outbreak over the next week, officials said on Friday, while residents in China's capital Beijing largely heeded the advice of authorities to work from home to stem the virus's spread.

Easing weeks of punishing restrictions in the commercial hub would bring relief to China's battered economy, although there is growing concern that Beijing may yet take a similar course of action if it fails to get a nascent outbreak under control.

Shanghai's deputy mayor, Wu Qing, said the city of 25 million aims to eliminate COVID outside of quarantined zones within the next week or so.

After that, the city's lockdown will be "lifted in batches", with shops opened and traffic restrictions eased, he said in the announcement which confirmed a Reuters story from Sunday. —Reuters

North Korea Reports First Covid Death

Seoul: At least one person confirmed to have COVID-19 has died in North Korea and hundreds of thousands have shown fever symptoms, state media said on Friday, hinting at the potentially dire scale of the pandemic. The data represents an unprecedented admission of an "explosive" outbreak in a country that had reported no past confirmed cases. Reuters

DE FACTO RULER PRINCE MOHAMMED BIN ZAYED LIKELY TO TAKE OVER

UAE Prez Sheikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Dies

Dubai: United Arab Emirates President Sheikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan has died, the Ministry of Presidential Affairs said on Friday. He was also ruler of Abu Dhabi emirate.

"The Ministry of Presidential Affairs mourns to the UAE people, Arab and Islamic nations and the world the death of President His Highness Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, who passed away on Friday," the ministry said in a statement on state media without giving details.

Under the constitution, vice-president and premier Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al-Maktoum, ruler of Dubai, would act as president until the federal council which groups the rulers of the seven emirates meets to elect a new president.

Khalifa, born in 1948, had rarely been seen in public since suffering a stroke in 2014 and his half-brother Abu Dhabi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Zayed, known as MbZ, has been the de facto ruler of the US-ally UAE, an OPEC oil producer.

"The UAE has lost its righteous son and leader of the 'empowerment phase' and guardian of its blessed journey," MbZ said on Twitter. —Reuters

Power ministry asks importers for more coal to tackle heatwave

RAJESH KUMAR SINGH
May 13

THE MINISTRY OF Power has called on coal importers to ensure supplies as the country increasingly relies on the fuel to stem power blackouts, according to people familiar with the matter.

In a meeting with suppliers, the ministry officials have assured that they would help with obstacles such as late payments from provincial power plants, said the people, who asked not to be identified as they aren't authorised to speak to the press. The ministry has asked generators to import a total of about 19 million tonne during the three months to June so that they have enough reserves before the rainy season slows supplies.

India has seen an unprecedented demand for coal this summer, as soaring temperatures and industrial activity spurred electricity demand. That has pressured domestic coal supply infrastructure, forcing the country to turn to imports of the fuel and ditch previous efforts to slow overseas purchases.

The power ministry also plans to meet port and rail off-

The ministry has asked generators to import a total of about 19 MT coal during the three months to June so that they have enough reserves before the rainy season

icials to ensure the imported coal reaches the plants

smoothly, instead of being held up at transport terminals for weeks.

The ministry's press office didn't immediately respond to an email seeking comment.

Despite repeated calls from the federal government, generation plants, mainly owned by provincial governments, have been slow to place orders. The biggest impediment is high prices that have shot up after the start of Russia's war in Ukraine. Asian benchmark Newcastle coal futures have advanced more than 150% this year. The sliding rupee is not helping imports either. It tumbled to a record low on Thursday, making imports more expensive.

Time is short too. From publishing tenders to having

the coal delivered at the plant gate can take several weeks.

"Given the prevailing demand situation and logistical bottlenecks, pre-monsoon stocking up at the power plants is not happening," according to Debasish Mishra, a Mumbai-based partner at Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu. "The time is running out before onset of the monsoon." —BLOOMBERG

Power ministry asks importers for more coal to tackle heatwave

THE MINISTRY OF Power has called on coal importers to ensure supplies as the country increasingly relies on the fuel to stem power blackouts, according to people familiar with the matter.

assured that they would help with obstacles such as late payments from provincial power plants, said the people, who asked not to be identified as they aren't authorised to speak to the press. The ministry has asked generators to import a total of about 19 million tonne during the three months to June so that they have enough reserves before the rainy season slows supplies. India has seen an unprecedented demand for coal this summer, as soaring temperatures and industrial activity spurred electricity demand. That has pressured domestic coal supply infrastructure, forcing the country to turn to imports of the fuel and ditch previous efforts to slow overseas purchases.

The power ministry also plans to meet port and rail offi-

The ministry has asked generators to import a total of about 19 MT coal during the three months to June so that they have enough reserves before the rainy season

cial to ensure the imported coal reaches the plants

smoothly, instead of being held up at transport terminals for weeks.

The ministry's press office didn't immediately respond to an email seeking comment.

Despite repeated calls from the federal government, generation plants, mainly owned by provincial governments, have been slow to place orders.

The biggest impediment is high prices that have shot up after the start of Russia's war in Ukraine. Asian benchmark Newcastle coal futures have advanced more than 150% this year. The sliding rupee is not helping imports either. It tumbled to a record low on Thursday, making imports more expensive.

Time is short too. From publishing tenders to having

the coal delivered at the plant gate can take several weeks.

"Given the prevailing demand situation and logistical bottlenecks, pre-monsoon stocking up at the power plants is not happening," according to Debasish Mishra, a Mumbai-based partner at Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu. "The time is running out before onset of the monsoon." —BLOOMBERG

स्कूल में एक बेंच पर नहीं बैठेंगे दो से अधिक बच्चे : डीसी

कैथल (एसएनबी)। डीसी प्रदीप दहिया ने कहा कि गर्मी के मौसम को देखते हुए जिला के किसी भी स्कूल में एक बेंच पर दो से अधिक विद्यार्थी नहीं बैठने चाहिए। स्कूलों में सफाई व्यवस्था की ओर विशेष ध्यान देने की जरूरत है। शिक्षकों को चाहिए कि वे स्कूलों में उपरोक्त कार्यों को प्राथमिकता के आधार पर अमलीजामा पहनाएं। डीसी शुक्रवार को जिला के गांव नैना में मेरी कापी-मेरी किताब परियोजना के तहत राजकीय स्कूलों में निरीक्षण करने पहुंचे थे।

डीसी ने कहा कि प्राथमिक कक्षाएँ छात्रों को सबसे बुनियादी और मूलभूत शिक्षा प्रदान करती हैं। वे बुनियादी वर्णमाला के साथ अपने पटन की यात्रा शुरू करते हैं और आगे की पढ़ाई के लिए उनका आधार पक्का होता है। लेकिन अगर प्राथमिक चरण में बच्चों को ठीक प्रकार से शिक्षा नहीं दी जाती तो भविष्य में बच्चों को उच्च शिक्षा प्राप्त करने में दिक्कत होगी। इसलिए उनके पढ़ने के साथ-साथ लेखन ज्ञान को भी बढ़ाने की आवश्यकता है। डीसी ने कहा कि छात्रों के पढ़ने और लिखने के कौशल में सीखने की खाई को पाटने के लिए जिला में पांच सप्ताह का एक गहन अभियान चलाया है, जिसमें विशेष रूप से डिजाइन किए गए मॉड्यूल को कक्षाओं में लागू किया जा रहा है। सीएमजीओ कुनाल चौहान ने कहा कि मेरी कापी-मेरी किताब परियोजना को उपायुक्त प्रदीप दहिया के मार्ग दर्शन में चलाया गया है।

MUMBAI

The crypto token, which is part of the Terra blockchain, became a casualty of the recent rout

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Friday permitted banks, including small finance banks (SFBs), to continue providing credit facility to NBFCs for the purpose of on-lending to certain priority sectors. The facility of lending by commercial banks to NBFCs and lending by SFBs to NBFC-MFIs, for on-lending to certain priority sectors, was available till 31 March.

"To ensure continuation of the synergies that have been developed between banks and NBFCs in delivering credit to the specified priority sectors, it has been decided to allow the facility on an on-going basis," RBI said in a circular.

Bank credit to NBFCs, including HFCs, for on-lending will be allowed up to an overall limit of 5% of an individual bank's total priority sector lending in the case of commercial banks.

In the case of SFBs, credit to NBFC-MFIs (Non-Banking Financial Company - Micro Finance Institutions) and other MFIs (Societies, Trusts, etc) which are members of RBI recognised 'Self-Regulatory Organisation' of the sector, will be allowed up to an overall limit of 10% of an individual bank's total priority sector lending.

The limits will be computed by averaging across four quarters of the fiscal year, to determine adherence to the prescribed cap, the circular said. It also said that SFBs are allowed to lend to NBFC-MFIs and other MFIs which have a Gross Loan Portfolio of up to ₹500 crore as on 31 March, for on-lending to priority sectors.

Indian crypto exchanges are facing a crisis after cryptocurrency Luna crashed to nearly zero on Friday. The crypto token, which is part of the Terra blockchain, became a casualty of the recent fall in prices of major cryptocurrencies. Exchanges were inundated by tweets from users blaming them for the crash, two industry executives said. Many also took to Twitter to express disappointment.

Indian exchanges had delisted Luna and UST tokens earlier on the day. The Luna token's value plummeted by nearly 100% in May.

However, while some blamed exchanges for not allowing them to buy Luna, others were worried about their investments being stuck in the token.

Luna is among the most popular cryptocurrencies on Indian exchanges, according to a senior executive from an exchange. Two other industry executives also shared similar views, adding that the popularity could mean that some users would want to "buy the dip" in the hope that it would recover eventually, while others would have made huge losses. "I am from India I invested 1500$ in terra luna. My entire life savings washed away in 24 hours. This is small for you. But for me it is not," one user who goes by @Chandra64766902 tweeted to Do Kwon, the founder of the Terra platform, which hosts Luna and UST tokens. Another user, @MahabharataS, however asked where they can buy Luna, on Twitter.

The popular cryptocurrency's crash in India seems to have caused confusion among users in more ways than one. Some users blamed platforms such as CoinDCX for delisting it without any announcement. Crypto exchanges had, however, tweeted and emailed users

"Huge overnight market volatility caused the collapse of the Terra network, leaving a ripple effect across the entire crypto ecosystem. The prospect of several crypto players with exposure to Luna are under stress. While this is an unfortunate turn of events, we remain utmost priority and we will continue to take decisive actions to protect them from market volatilities," said Minal Thukral, senior vice president, growth and strategy, CoinDCX.

CoinSwitch Kuber also sent an email to users informing them that it "enabled a window" for them to recover some WRX, and Luna-INR trading pairs.

Withdrawal and deposits (from other crypto wallets) of Luna tokens is no longer in the hands of exchanges, as the Terra platform has halted the blockchain system that runs the tokens, said Vikram Subburaj, chief executive, Giottus Cryptocurrency Exchange.

Giottus did not delist the tokens yet, but Subburaj said that though users who hold Luna can trade with others on the platform, they won't be able to deposit Luna from outside or withdraw their funds for fiat currencies. This is because when funds are withdrawn, or crypto is deposited, it exercises a transaction on the token's native blockchain, while trading is done on the exchanges internally.

Delisting a risky asset is not wrong, said an executive. However, exchanges will only have to deal with crisis faced by users, but will also suffer if they themselves held reserves in Luna, he said.

WeWork India is planning to add 25,000 desks to its portfolio in 2022, a top executive said, as the shared workplace operator returns to growth and expansion after almost two years.

The company will expand to 13 new locations across 1.5 million sq. ft in the six cities it is currently present in by year-end. Large enterprises have already committed to pick up 70% of the 1.5 million sq. ft. WeWork currently has 5 million sq. ft of operational space and 50,000 active users across 36 locations.

"Over the next 12 months, we will be back to our growth strategy. By 2022-end, we will beat 6.5 million sq. ft. The January-March quarter was the first profitable quarter for WeWork India, though we turned profitable since November 2021. In January-March, we leased around 12,000 desks, which is almost a million sq. ft. We did a few big deals, but a large part came from those who wanted 50-150 desks," WeWork India chief executive officer Karan Virwani said in an interview.

Currently, the firm offers both managed office services for larger enterprises and serves smaller startups and MSMEs. The average size for a managed office is currently 1,000-1,500 desks, against 600-700 desks before the pandemic. During the course of the pandemic, when the commercial office sector was impacted, the co-working sector was also on a wait-and-watch mode.

Karan Virwani, chief executive officer, WeWork India.. MINT

WeWork India too was focusing on execution and introduced new products such as "On Demand", as the pandemic transformed the office sector.

With companies asking employees to return to offices again, traditional office developers and shared working operators are seeing some momentum. Occupancy at WeWork India centres touched 80% in April.

Around 30% of WeWork's growth comes from existing members. For instance, Meesho has grown from four desks in June 2020 to 700 desks in 2022. Of this, over 200 seats were taken up in January-March 2022.

WeWork India's revenue during CY21 was ₹750cr, and the company expects it to cross ₹1,000 crore in 2022.

WeWork India's revenue during calendar year 2021 was ₹750 crore, and the company expects it to cross ₹1,000 crore in 2022. The WeWork "On Demand for Enterprise" has around 30 members including Sharechat, Tata Unistore, Tata Play Broadband Pvt Ltd and British Safety Council.

The usage of WeWork On Demand offering has risen from 3,000 users in December 2021 to 30,000 in March.
