SHARE AND SHARE CAPITAL

Division of Capital 4. The Authorized Share Capital of the Company shall be as mentioned at Clause V of the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

The Company has power to increase, consolidate, decrease or sub-divide in accordance with the regulations of the Company and the legislative provisions for the time being in force in that behalf and with power to sub- divide the shares in the capital for the time being into Equity Share Capital and to attach there respectively and preferential, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions.

Preference Shares

5. Without prejudice to the generality of the powers of the company contained in Article (4) above the company shall have power to issue preference shares carrying a right of Redemption out of profits or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares or liable to be redeemed at the option of the company and the Directors may subject to the provisions of section 55 of the Act exercise such power in any matter they may think fit.

Allotment of shares

6. Subject to the provisions of the act and these articles, the shares in the capital of the Company shall be under the control of the Board who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons in such proportions and on such terms and conditions and at such times either at par or at premium and for such consideration in cash or other than cash, as the Board thinks fit.

The Board may at any time increase the subscribed capital of the Company by issue of new shares out of the unissued part of the share capital in the original or subsequently created capital, but subject to section 62 of the Act, and subject to the following conditions namely:

I. (a) Such further shares shall be offered to the persons who, at the date of the offer, are holder of the equity shares of the Company in the proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit, to the capital paid up on those shares at that date.

(b) The offer aforesaid shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time, from the date of the offer within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined.

(c) The offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the person concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favor of any other person and the notice referred to in clause (b) shall contain a statement of this right.

(d) After the expiry of the time specified in the notice aforesaid, or in respect of earlier intimation from the person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board may dispose of them in such manner as it thinks most beneficial to the Company.

II. The Board or the Company as the case may be in accordance with the act and rules, issue shares to the Employees under the scheme of Employees Stock Option

III. The Directors may, with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting by means of Special Resolution, offer and allot securities to any person at their discretion by following the provisions of section 62 of the Act and other applicable provisions, if any.

How far new Shares to rank with existing shares

Alteration of Capital

7. The new shares will be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, dividends, lien, transfer, transmissions, forfeiture, appropriation and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.
8. The Company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.
9. The company by ordinary resolution may :
 - (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
 - (b) Sub-divide its share or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association; subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act, rules and of these articles.
 - (c) Convert all or any of its fully paid up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid up shares of any denomination.
 - (d) Cancel any shares which at the date of passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

The cancellation of shares shall not be deemed to be a reduction of share capital
10. Where shares are converted into stock,—
 - a) The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:
Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
 - b) The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

- c) Such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

Reduction of Capital consent

11. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized and consent required by law-
- (a) its share capital;
 - (b) any capital redemption reserve account; or
 - (c) any share premium account.

Buy back of
Shares

12. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles but subject to the provisions of sections 68 to 70 and any other applicable provision of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

Alteration of rights of holders of special classes of
shares.

13. (i) if at any time share capital is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights, privileges attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of the class) may, subject to the provisions of the section 48 of the act and whether or not the company is being wound up be varied, modified, commuted, effected or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three fourth of the issued shares of the class or with the sanction of the special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holder of the shares of the class.
- (ii) To every such separate meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to general meeting shall mutatis mutandis apply, so that the necessary quorum shall be five persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class in questions.
- (iii) The Article is not to derogate from any power which the company would have, if the Article were omitted. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares (including preference, if any) of any class issued with preferred or other rights or privileges shall unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class to be deemed not to be modified, commuted effected, abrogated dealt with or varied by the creation or issue of further shares pari passu there with.

Provided that if variation by one class of shareholders affects the rights of any other class of shareholders, the consent of three-fourth of such other class of shareholders shall also be obtained and the provisions of this section shall apply to such variation.

Commission and brokerage

14. (i) The company may on any issue of shares or debentures pay such brokerage as may be reasonable and lawful.
- (ii) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by sub-section (6) of section 40, provided that the rate percent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and rule made thereunder.
- (iii) The rate or amount of the commission shall not exceed the rate or amount prescribed in rules made under sub-section (6) of section 40.
- (iv) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other

SHARES

Trust Not Recognized

15. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any shares or any interest in any fractional part of share (except only as, by these or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except as absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

Inequality in number of new
Shares

16. If, owing to any inequality in the number of new shares to be issued and the number of shares held by the member entitled to have the offer of such new shares, any difficulty shall arise in the apportionment of such new shares or any of them amongst the members, such difficulty shall, in the absence of any direction in the resolution creating the shares or by the Company in General Meeting, be determined by the Board.

Member's Right to Certificate

17. (i) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled to receive within two months after incorporation, in case of subscribers to the memorandum or after allotment or within one month after the application for the registration of transfer or transmission or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall be provided,—
- a) one certificate for all his shares without payment of any charges; or
- b) Several certificates, each for one or more of his shares, upon payment of twenty rupees for each certificate after the first.
- (ii) Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.

- (iii) In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

Provisions regarding issue or new or renewal of share certificate

- (i) If any share certificate be worn out, defaced, mutilated or torn or if there be no further space on the back for endorsement of transfer, then upon production and surrender thereof to the company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the company and on execution of such indemnity as the company deem adequate, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given. Every certificate under this Article shall be issued on payment of twenty rupees for each certificate.
- (ii) The provisions of Articles (17) and (18) shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures of the Company.

Company's lien on

19.

- (i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien—

(a) on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and

(b) on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company:

Provided that the Board of directors may at any time declare any share to wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.

- (ii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividend bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.

As to enforcing lien on shares

20.

The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien:

Provided that no sale shall be made—

(a) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or

(b) until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.

- Validity of sales in exercise of lien 21. (i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
- (ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.
- (iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
- Application of sales proceeds 22. (i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
- (ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

- Calls 23. (i) The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times: Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.
- (ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.
- (iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board
- Call when shall be deemed to have been made 24. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.
- Liability of joint holder 25. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
- When interest on call payable 26. (i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten percent per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.

(ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

27. (i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.
(ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Payment of call in advance

28. The Board—
a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and
b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve per cent. Per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

Default in payment of calls

29. No member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or exercise any privileges as a member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) and the Board may deduct from the dividend/interest payable to any member all sums of money so due from him to the company.

Evidence in action by company against members

30. On the trial or hearing of any action of suit brought by the Company against any share-holder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed against Members to be due to the Company in respect of his share it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was when the claim arose, on the Register as a holder or one of the holders of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Board who made any call, not that quorum was present at the Board meeting at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

Transfer Of Shares

31. The transfer of shares and debentures shall be effected by an instrument in writing duly stamped, and all the provisions of Section 56 of the Companies Act, 2013 and any modifications thereof for the time being shall be duly complied with in respect of all the transfers of shares and the registrations thereof, and instrument of transfer as prescribed under the act shall be executed both by the transferor and the transferee, whose executions shall be attested by atleast one witness, who shall add his address, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee shall have been entered in the register in respect thereof.

No fees shall be charged for registration of transfer, probate, succession certificate and letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney or similar other document.

Subject to the Stock Exchange Regulations as may be altered from time to time, transfer of shares shall take place in marketable lots.

Instrument Of Transfer To Be Deposited

32. Every instrument of transfer shall be deposited with the company, and no transfer shall be registered until such instrument shall be deposited together with the certificate of the shares or debentures to be transferred, and together with any other evidence the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor, or his right to transfer the shares or debentures. The instrument of transfer, shall, after registration be kept by the company, but all instruments of transfer, which the Directors may decline to register, shall be returned to the person depositing the same. There can be only one instrument of transfer for one class of shares. Directors may waive the production of instrument of transfer or, any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction, and on such terms as to indemnification, as the Board of Directors may think fit.

Power Of Board To Refuse Registration
To Transfer

33. The Board may, without assigning any reasons but subject to the right of appeal conferred by Section 58 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Section 22(A) of Securities Contract and (Regulations) Act, decline to register any transfer of shares or debentures upon which the company has a lien, and in the case of shares which are not fully paid up, may refuse to register a transfer to a transferee of whom the Board does not approve. Provided registration of the transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being alone or jointly with any other person or persons, indebted to the company on any other account whatsoever except a lien on shares.

Closing Of Share Transfer Books And Registers

34. The transfer book and Register of Members or debenture holders may be closed upon giving such notice as is required by the Act during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding thirty days at a time, but not exceeding forty-five days in each year.

Transmission of Registered Shares

35. The executors or administrators or the holders of a succession certificate in respect of shares of a deceased member (not being one or several joint holders) shall be the only person, whom the company shall recognize as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member, and in case of the death of any one or more of the joint holders of any registered shares, the survivors shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to or interest in such shares, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person. Before recognizing any executor or administrator or legal heir, the Directors may require him to obtain a grant of probate or letters of administration or succession certificate or other legal representation, as the case may be from some competent court provided nevertheless that in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of probate or letters of administration upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Directors may consider desirable.

Provided further that no fee shall be charged for registration of each of the following documents namely, Trustee in Insolvency, Order of Court, Probate, Proof of Death and Marriage, Power of Attorney, Letters of Administration, Lunacy Order, Affidavit, Statutory declaration or any other documents which in the opinion of the Directors requires registration.

Provided, also that, if the member was a member of a Joint Hindu Mitakshara Family, the Directors on being satisfied that the shares standing in his name in fact belonged to the joint family, may recognize the survivors thereof as having title to the shares registered in the name of such member but this provision shall in no way be deemed to modify or nullify the provisions contained in Articles 14 hereof.

As to transfer of shares of deceased or bankrupt member

36. Any committee or guardian of a lunatic or infant member, or any person becoming entitled to or to transfer shares or debentures in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of any member, or otherwise than by transfer may, with consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give), be registered as a member upon such evidence of his title being produced, as may, from time to time, be required by the Directors, or such person, instead of being registered himself, may subject to the regulations as to transfer herein before contained, transfer such shares. The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registrations as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

As To Notice Of Election On Transmission

37. (i) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the shares.
(ii) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

- (iii) All the limitations relating to the right to transfer restrictions and provisions of these regulations and the registration of the transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice of transfer as aforesaid, as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred, and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

Transmission Clause

38. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share. Provided that the Board may, at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within a period of ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonus or other money payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Transfer of partly paid shares

39. An application for the registration of the transfer of any share or shares may be made either by the transferor or the transferee, provided that where such application is made by the transferor, no registration shall, in the case of partly paid shares, be effected unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee. The Company shall, unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration was made by the transferee.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

40. If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
41. The notice aforesaid shall—
- a) Name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
 - b) State that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.
42. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect

43. (i) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.
(ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
44. (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.
(ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
45. (i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share;
(ii) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;
(iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and
(iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
46. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of nonpayment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
