Since 2003, the Chief Learning Officer Learning in Practice Awards have recognized learning leaders who demonstrate excellence in the design and delivery of employee development programs through a combination of qualities such as leadership, vision, business acumen and strategic alignment. This year's Learning in Practice awards ceremony was held on the evening of Tuesday, October 22, 2024, in Tucson, Arizona.

"The Learning in Practice Awards showcase the best and brightest in corporate learning and development," said Ashley St. John, chief content officer, editor-in-chief of Chief Learning Officer. "This year's winners have shown exceptional innovation and dedication in advancing their organizations' learning initiatives, particularly in the face of rapidly evolving workplace dynamics."

"We are proud to have raised the bar with 5 CLO Awards this year. At NIIT, we are constantly innovating by leveraging advanced technologies such as AI and data analytics to deliver personalized learning solutions. These efforts ensure that our offerings are not only effective but also future-ready, equipping learners with the skills needed to thrive in a rapidly changing world. These awards not only validate our strategic vision but also reinforce our role as a leader in the learning services industry. We remain committed to empowering our clients with innovative and effective learning solutions that drive business results" said DJ Chadha, Chief Customer Officer at NIIT Learning Systems Limited.
