SDB to be inaugurated on December 17

Surat: If the announcement by the committee involved in the development of the Rs 3,200 Surat Diamond Bourse is anything to go by, the project is likely to be inaugurated on December 17 by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

The group of committee members that had recently visited the PM in New Delhi to extend him an invitation for the inauguration was given two dates - December 17 and 24 by the PMO. "Considering the size of the project, we are expecting huge participation from across the globe. And keeping suitable time for the PM and guests, the date has been chosen," said Dinesh Navadiya, one of the committee members.

10-month-old girl branded with hot needle succumbs in Rajkot

RAJKOT: The 10-month-old girl from Virangam in Ahmedabad district succumbed to the severe injuries inflicted by a witch doctor who branded the infant with a hot needle. The girl died in the KT Children's Hospital on the Rajkot Civil Hospital campus after nearly five days of admission. "She was on the life-support system since August 5 and died on Wednesday morning. She developed severe pneumonia," said Dr Radheshyam Trivedi, superintendent of the civil hospital. Her parents had taken her to a witch doctor in Vadgam village of Surendranagar's Patdi taluka as medicines were not working. The infant's father was branded twice in the abdomen with a hot needle. Her father, a vegetable vendor, had told police he resorted to the superstitious method as a private doctor quoted Rs 50,000 for treatment and he couldn't afford it. However, the baby's condition deteriorated and she was rushed to Rajkot.

According to him, the family learned that Putli Thakor, a worshipper of the deity, cured several ailments by performing rituals. The parents took her to Vadgam the same day where Thakor branded her with a hot needle in the temple premises, he told the police.

65 lakh text messages, 1.5 lakh email and 8,500 schools to mark World Lion Day on Thursday

AHMEDABAD: The World Lion Day celebrations will extend to over 8,500 educational institutions, including schools and colleges, spanning ten districts in Saurashtra: Junagadh, Amreli, Gir-Somnath, Bhavnagar, Botad, Porbandar, Rajkot, Surendranagar, Devbhumi Dwarka, and Morbi on Thursday.

To facilitate this, a comprehensive celebration kit has been prepared and delivered in educational institutions, comprising approximately 18.50 lakh lion engraved face masks, 10,000 banners sized 4x3 feet, 200 banners sized 10x8 feet, 400,000 informative pamphlets, 200 selfie standees, 100,000 round stickers, and 20,000 A4 stickers.

need to safeguard and preserve the majestic Asiatic lions for the prosperity of generations to come. The celebration serves as a powerful reminder of the crucial role that lions play on a global scale. The genesis of World Lion Day can be traced back to 2013, when it was initiated by the African Lion Environment Research Trust (ALERT). In India, the Gujarat Forest Department, Government of Gujarat, with the support of local people, has been actively observing World Lion Day since 2016.

As of June 2020, their numbers have surged to 674 individuals. This surge has facilitated the movement of text messages across an expanse of 30,000 sq. km in nine districts in Gir and Greater Gir Landscape (collectively known as the Asiatic Lion Landscape). This region boasts a rich diversity of flora and fauna. Around 65 text messages (SMS) containing World Lion Day greetings will be sent to mobile subscribers in Gujarat. Likewise, more than 150,000 meticulously crafted email greetings will be dispatched to email subscribers.

Gujarat collector suspended after clip with woman goes viral GANDHINAGAR: The Gujarat government on Wednesday suspended Anand district collector D S Gadhvi from his post on charges of misconduct and moral turpitude. In a separate order issued during the day, the government handed over the additional charge of the district collector to Milind Bapna, district development officer (DDO), Anand. A five-member panel of women officers, headed by Sunalata Tomar, ACS, social justice and employment department, will probe the matter and submit its report to the state government within a month.

Various stakeholders, including public representatives, education department personnel, students, NGOs, citizens, and government officials, will enthusiastically partake in activities such as school gatherings, rallies, speeches, and pledge-taking, all aimed at supporting the conservation of the Asiatic lion. The next state-level event will be hosted by Gandhinagar, presided over by the Honourable Chief Minister of Gujarat.

MAHSR corridor: NHSRL officers undergo training in Japan

AHMEDABAD: At least 13 middle management officers from the operations and maintenance department of the National High Speed Rail Corporation Limited (NHSRL) are undergoing an "on-the-job training" in Japanese Shinkansen technology for the Mumbai-Ahmedabad high-speed rail (MAHSR) corridor.

The officers will have a unique opportunity to explore the latest technological advancements, best practices, and operational methodologies that have made Japan a global leader in high-speed rail infrastructure.

This advanced knowledge will be vital in ensuring the successful implementation and smooth operation of India's high-speed rail project.

Stray cattle menace plait hits dead end

SURAT: How to leash stray cattle? This has been every civic body's biggest nemesis in Gujarat, but particularly gored a 33-year-old diamond artisan in Surat whose complaint related to stray cattle on highways hit a 'departmental road bump'. Witnessing accidents daily from stray bulls on National Highway 53, Bhavesh Patel filed an online complaint on August 25, 2022, on the public grievance portal.

Woman accuses NRI husband of violence, unannatural sex

AHMEDABAD: A 44-year-old woman from the Ambawadi area of the city on Monday filed a complaint with Satellite police accusing her husband, a resident of Texas in the US, of violence and unannatural sex. The wife said in her FIR with the Satellite police that she got married to a man from Satellite on April 24, 2004 and two years after their wedding they moved to London. The couple has two daughters, aged 16 and 13.

Govt retracts fees hike in 13 GMERS medical colleges, cancels 1st round admissions

Ahmedabad : The Admission Committee for Professional Undergraduate and Postgraduate Medical Educational Courses (ACPGUMEC, ACPGPMEC) has reversed its decision to increase the fees for undergraduate medical courses across 13 medical colleges run by the Gujarat Medical Education and Research Society in the state. The Admission Committee for Professional Undergraduate and Postgraduate Medical Educational Courses (ACPGUMEC, ACPGPMEC) took a surprising turn on Tuesday by reversing its earlier decision to sharply raise fees for undergraduate medical courses across 13 medical colleges operated by the Gujarat Medical Education and Research Society in the state.

colleges under GMERS offer a total of 2,100 medical seats in the state. Following regulations, 75% of the seats are reserved for the state quota, 10% for the management quota, and the remaining 15% for the NRI quota. Across all GMERS medical colleges, there are 1,500 state quota seats, 210 management quota seats, and 315 NRI quota seats. Any unoccupied NRI quota seats are converted into management quota seats.

However, on Tuesday, the committee announced the withdrawal of the fee hike and the reinstatement of the previous fee structure. This sudden change has led to the cancellation of admissions for approximately 6,000 students who had been allotted seats in the initial round of admissions. The committee will now have to reconduct the admission process and is expected to release an updated schedule shortly.

The 13 medical colleges under GMERS offer a total of 2,100 medical seats in the state. Following regulations, 75% of the seats are reserved for the state quota, 10% for the management quota, and the remaining 15% for the NRI quota. Junagadh man loses 6L in fraud offer of online subscriptions

Rajkot: A man lost Rs 5.50 lakh to the cyber crooks in lure of earning extra money through subscribing to a YouTube channel. He is a resident of Ahmedabad and works for a private company in Gandhinagar. The victim, a prominent Pipliya received a message on his mobile on March 29 from Asha Karia who introduced herself as an HR with a YouTube marketing agency. She offered Pipliya a part time job and asked him to chat with her on a telegram account. On his acceptance, she started assigning him various tasks like subscribing to various channels. As and when he started completing the tasks, she started depositing money as per her promise. Pipliya has an account with a nationalised bank in Junagadh area of Junagadh, which is his hometown. Pipliya was supposed to buy tasks as per his convenience and then earn money on its completion. According to the police, the person who loses in gambling goes further to invest double to set off the entire loss and the victim in this case is trapped with the same mentality. "After the initial period, Pipliya was trapped in a vicious cycle where he was asked to buy a certain amount of tasks in bulk to earn more," said a police officer.

Pipliya deposited Rs 2.20 lakh to buy some tasks but when he wanted to withdraw the money, he was asked to deposit another Rs 3 lakh by the crooks who also promised a return with huge profit.
