Annexure: Brief Profile of Mr. Rohit Talwar

Mr. Rohit Talwar is a Science Graduate from the University of Mumbai and an MBA in marketing from ISB, Hyderabad. He is a Marketer with 21 years of experience in leading high performance multi-cultural teams across country, global and expatriate positions. He has gained hands on experience across developed and growth markets in Castrol group.

Mr. Rohit Talwar joined Castrol India Limited in June 2004 as a Management Trainee and was initially in the Sales Manager role, leading sales teams across Punjab, Uttar Pradesh, New Delhi and Maharashtra markets. After this, he held Bikes Brand Manager and Cricket Sponsorship Activation Manager positions before joining Castrol's global marketing team as a Global Brand Manager in the Commercial Vehicles Category. In 2017, Mr. Rohit Talwar returned to Castrol India Limited where he was the Head of Brand and Communication and also served as Deputy Vice-President, Marketing for India and South Asia.

In 2019, Mr. Rohit Talwar moved to Castrol Vietnam as the Head of Marketing, which is his current role. He is responsible for both B2C and B2B marketing in a leading market for Castrol Vietnam. His role includes driving innovation as well as delivering business growth in Vietnam. Outside of work, Mr. Rohit Talwar actively participates in marketing industry forums and represent Castrol on several countries and Asia Pacific marketing award juries.
