Union Home Minister gave his views on the RCP Singh sets tongues wagging within JD(U)

Universities should not be the arena of ideological battle: Amit Shah

Umakant Tripathi
Info@impressivetimes.com

NEW DELHI: Union Home and Cooperation Minister Amit Shah said that universities should not be the arena of violence and ideological battles. Instead of conflict, there should be place for discussion. Amit Shah was addressing as the Chief Guest during the opening ceremony of the 3-day seminar organised by Delhi University. As part of the Centenary Celebrations, this three-day international symposium on Revisiting Ideas from 'Swaraj' to 'New India' is being organized by the Department of Political Science, University of Delhi. Union Minister for Education and Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Dharmendra Pradhan was present as the special guest at the inauguration of the seminar, while the function was presided over by the Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. Yogesh Singh. In his address during the function, Amit Shah said that there is no need to fight for ideology, but only through discussion, ideology progresses and lasts for ages. He said that no one remembers those who destroyed Nalanda and Taxila Universities. Regarding the fight for rights, he called upon the youth to not just think about their rights, but take care of their responsibilities too. When you worry about your responsibilities, then someone's rights will be protected on its own. He called upon the youth to adopt the path of responsibility by choosing the path of struggle. Explaining the importance of universities for change in the society, he said that whenever changes happen, the universities are their carriers. Universities have been of special importance, but only through discussion, ideology progresses and lasts for ages. He said that no one remembers those who destroyed Nalanda and Taxila Universities. Regarding the fight for rights, he called upon the youth to not just think personality who has been associated with DU. Delhi University has also contributed a lot in the movement to save the country's democracy in 1975. Regarding the theme of the seminar, the chief guest said that this is a very important topic. Many ideas will be discussed in this seminar. Regarding the interpretation of the word Swaraj in the title of the seminar, he said that after independence, the rulers limited its definition

Union Minister for Home Affairs and Cooperation, Amit Shah releasing the publication at an international seminar on 'Revisiting the Ideas of India from Swaraj' to 'New India' organised by the University of Delhi, in New Delhi. Union Minister for Education, Dharmendra Pradhan and other dignitaries are also seen.

Uday Singh

NEW DELHI: JD(U) leader and Union minister R C P Singh on Thursday set tongues wagging within his party with strict criticism of the choice of Jawaharlal Nehru as the country's prime minister, a longstanding BJP plank, and claiming that he got the top post despite enjoying little support in the Congress organisation and it was a "first mistake". The former JD(U) president's sharp take on Nehru is significant as Nitish Kumar, the party's main face and Bihar chief minister, is not really known for holding strong views against India's first prime minister and has in the past even praised him. Speaking at a seminar on "Revisiting the Ideas of India from Swaraj to New India" organised by Delhi University, Singh said that the Congress family making sacrifice for the country, saying one has to bear whatever comes with the post he or she holds.

He said that the word self has great importance in the concept of Swaraj, Swadeshi, truth, non-violence, swadharma and nationalism are included in the interpretation of the word 'self'. The then rulers limited all the systems related to Swaraj only till governance.
