PRESS RELEASE

Venus Remedies Earns Prestigious REO Certification from CII for Second Consecutive Year

- As the first pharmaceutical company in India to be honored with the REO certification from CII, Venus Remedies stands at the forefront of responsible and sustainable export practices.
- The Responsible Export Organisation (REO) certification is a distinguished recognition awarded by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII).

Chandigarh, October 20, 2023: Venus Remedies is thrilled to announce that it has once again achieved the highly coveted Responsible Export Organisation (REO) certification from the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII). This achievement marks the second consecutive year that Venus Remedies has been recognized with this prestigious certification, reinforcing the company's unwavering commitment to excellence in the pharmaceutical industry.

As the first pharmaceutical company in India to be honored with the REO certification from CII, Venus Remedies stands at the forefront of responsible and sustainable export practices. This recognition comes after a rigorous and comprehensive screening and assessment process, emphasizing the company's dedication to upholding the highest standards of quality and integrity.

The Responsible Export Organisation (REO) certification is a distinguished recognition awarded by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) to companies that demonstrate exceptional commitment to responsible and sustainable export practices, ensuring high standards of quality, ethics, and integrity in their international business operations.

Mr. Peeyush Jain, Deputy Managing Director at Venus Remedies, expressed his gratitude for this remarkable achievement, stating, "The REO certification from the CII will enable us to expand our presence in our targeted 100 countries. The certification confirms our commitment to enhancing the lives of our members, improving workplaces, and contributing to a better world through the application of quality tools, techniques, and systems. It also serves as an endorsement of our company's export capabilities and manufacturing processes."

The REO certification underscores Venus Remedies' dedication to responsible and ethical business practices, setting the company apart as a leader in the global pharmaceutical landscape. It reflects the rigorous evaluation and recognition of the organization's systems and procedures as exemplary within the industry.

"This certification will empower our company to continue its upward trajectory and solidify its position as an export industry leader," continued Mr. Peeyush Jain. "The CII team has assessed our systems and procedures and found them to be exemplary within the organization. This certification will further assist us in enhancing our performance and setting standards of excellence."

Venus Remedies remains committed to maintaining the highest standards in pharmaceutical manufacturing, quality control, and ethical exporting practices. "We are immensely proud of this accomplishment, and it is an outcome of our team's dedication and hard work. Achieving the REO certification for the second consecutive year highlights our resolute to make a positive impact in the pharmaceutical industry. We remain steadfast in our pursuit of excellence, driving innovation, and delivering high-quality healthcare solutions to communities worldwide," Akshansh Chaudhary, Executive Director & Chief Technology Officer, Venus Remedies.
