IOC's ₹2-trillion bet for net-zero goal

Company plans to achieve two-thirds of emission reduction through energy efficiency, electrification and fuel replacement efforts

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 25

INDIAN OIL CORPORATION (IOC) plans to invest over ₹2 trillion to reach the net-zero carbon emission target by 2046, its chairman S M Vaidya said at the company's annual general meeting.

"I would like to underline that we already have a well-crafted blueprint in place, with a multi-pronged approach to take us gradually towards the net-zero destination," S M Vaidya, chairman, IOC company's refining operations, stands around 21.5 million metric tonne of carbon dioxide equivalent (MMTCO₂e) per annum. IOC is the largest refiner of the country with a capacity of 70 million tonne per annum (mtpa).

"Out of the total emissions 96% are on account of processes like direct fuel burning for deriving energy from heat, steam, electricity and cooling, that are part of operations. These constitute the scope-1 emissions. The balance 4% are on account of sourcing electricity from the grid which constitutes scope-2 emissions," he said.

Vaidya said IOC plans to achieve two-thirds of emission reduction through energy efficiency, electrification and fuel replacement efforts, while about a third of the total emission would be mitigated through purchases such as carbon capture utilisation and storage (CCUS) route, nature-based solutions and purchase of carbon credits.

Nearly 31 million customers, on an average, buy fuels from IOC's retail outlets daily and it delivers 2.5 million cooking gas cylinders every day.

Google removes 2,000 loan apps from Play Store

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 25

TECHNICAL GIANT Google has removed over 2,000 loan apps from India Play Store between January and July 2022 for violating terms, misrepresenting information, and questionable offline behaviour, a senior official said on Thursday.

The search giant is also looking at tightening policies in the coming weeks for greater checks in this space. It is also working with government agencies, media and use referrals, apart from deploying its artificial intelligence and machine learning capabilities to penalise dubious players on the Play Store, the official said.

Speaking to reporters after the company's annual 'Safe with Google' event, Salil Deshpande, head of Google's India operations, said the lead of trust and safety, Google Asia Pacific region, said: "We have removed 2,000-plus loan apps from India Play Store from January till now." He stated that the crackdown was based on leads and inputs received, violation of policy, lack of disclosures, and misinformation.

US tech giant unveils safety initiatives

TECH TITAN Google on Thursday announced new online safety initiatives in India, including multi-city cybersecurity roadshows to upscale about 100,000 developers and digital safety-focused grants of $2 million from Google.org to community organisations.

The loan app problem has 'peaked', and may subside given the focus and attention the issue is garnering, he added. Mitra said that online harm was a 'global phenomenon', and that the company is committed to complying with regulations in all jurisdictions it operates.

He said that the app landscape is 'not yet' to maturity, although this issue has compelled government agencies and the central bank to tighten norms over the past year. Google also said that it does not actively track the geographical location of the blocked apps and could not say if those or their developers are from China.
