'BJP has declared war on Muslims... AAP, Cong... no ideological moorings left'

New Delhi: Hyderabad MP and AIMIM president Asaduddin Owaisi speaks to Manoj CG about recent incidents of communal violence across the country, the BIP, and Opposition parties such as the AAP and the Congress.

There have been reports of communal flare-ups in the country this month. How do you see these incidents?

The BJP, wherever they are in power, there is no pretence left. They are openly claiming that they will be biased against the Muslim community. They have declared a war on the Muslim community. Secondly, because of the competing politics of who is a bigger Hindu between the Congress, the AAP and the Shiv Sena, you see all these issues have cropped up. What happened in Karauli in Raiasthan, what happened in Jharkhand, and what is happening with regard to the controversies in Maharashtra. It is a never-ending cycle now. Because every other political party has no ideological moorings left anymore. So they are trying to say that we are a bigger and better party to practise the politics of Hindutva. You are seeing these incidents of oppression, incidents of beating, incidents and instances of social boycott, those videos have come out. What has happened in Sendhwa in Madhya Pradesh? Unfortunately, the media has not reported the ground reality. It is far worse than what happened in Khargone. There are Muslim families who have not eaten for three to four days because their houses have been demolished on the suspicion that stones were pelted from those particular houses. The BJP is now indulging in what I call vigilante justice and this will ultimately weaken rule of law. The whole edifice of rule of law and fundamental freedoms, which are guaranteed in the Constitution, is

You also visited Jahangirpuri on April 20, the day the demolitions happened...

In Jahangirpuri, the authorities violated the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957, Section 343, Delhi Development Authority Act, 1947. Then, your newspaper reported that a woman named Mansura was stuck on the second floor because the staircase was demolished. Your report itself says there is a valid electricity meter. Now, if the BJP is so hellbent on demolishing all encroachments, in 2019, the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development said there were 1,797 unauthorised colonies in Delhi, I challenge the BIP government. Will you go and demolish Sainik Farms, Vasant Kunj enclave, Chhattarpur enclave, and Saidulajab Extension? Remember, this is the capital of our country and not some far-flung or mofussil area. It is controlled by the Union Home Minister. This is the fourth violent incident that has happened under the auspices of Amit Shah – the first was the lawyers' agitation, the second was the

Two Bengal labourers shot at by militants in Srinagar

Srinagar: Two labourers from West Bengal were shot at on the outskirts of Srinagar on Friday evening. According to the J&K Police, both are reported to be stable at the Shri Maharaja Hari Singh Hospital in the city.

The incident took place around 7.50 pm at Nougat. The police said: "Militants fired at the two labourers identified as Najamul-Islam and Anikul-Islam, both residents of West Bengal's Suthsoo Kalan area in Nowgam. Both of them received gunshot injuries and were immediately shifted to the hospital for treatment."

The area had been cordoned off and the police were carrying out searches in the area. ENS

December 22 pogrom, then the farmers' agitation, and now this.

What about the stance taken by other parties?

The AAP supported the demolition that happened because the PWD(Public Works Department) comes under the Delhi government. The hypocrisy of the AAP is they are fighting a case in the Supreme Court saying the Union government has taken away their (Delhi government's) rights. This would have been a proper example or platform for them to say that we will not cooperate. Our PWD will not cooperate. But they cooperated. At the end of the day, it is Muslims and Christians who are suffering.

What is the choice before minority communities?

What is the choice? We will have to fight it out in a democratic way. We cannot blink, we cannot act as cowards or be afraid of such hate politics. We have to democratically fight back, we have to take our cases to courts of law, and we will have to stand firm. We cannot hide and close our doors and windows. When history is written it will mention that there were a few people who stood up to autocratic and fascist govern-

Are Muslims losing faith in the secular parties?

Where were they when demolition was taking place? The AAP has over 60 MLAs and even Muslims have voted for them. You have a chief minister who is on a maun vrat (vow of silence). That man does not open his mouth. When the 2020 riots and pogrom were taking place, the chief minister went and sat at Gandhi samadhi. Why don't you open your mouth? Because you are competing with the BJP in Hindutva politics. And what about the Congress? You wake up after I go over there. You have ruled Delhi for years and years. You had MPs from that area. But you do not even react on that day. You don't even have the courage to go that

Johnson: Fugitives not welcome, want them to face trial in India

SHUBHAJIT ROY NEW DELHI, APRIL 22

BRITISH PRIME Minister Boris Johnson said on Friday that economic offenders who want to use the UK's legal system to evade the law in India are not welcome in the United Kingdom.

On the question of human rights issues in India. the British PM said that the UK raises these issues "privately" and "in a friendly way". But he also said that India is a "great democracy", where there are "constitutional protections for communities". Responding to questions about the extradition of fugitives Nirav Modi and Vijay Mallya, Johnson said, "I think there are legal technicalities that have made it very, very difficult but what I can tell you is that the UK government has ordered their extradition and we have said that from our point of view, we want them to be taken back to India for trial.'

"We welcome people who have talent and brilliance coming from India to the UK, we don't welcome - I want to make it absolutely clear now – we don't welcome people who want to use our legal system to evade the law in India. So, let me be absolutely clear about that," he said.

Foreign Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla said, "On the issue of economic offenders, we have been pursuing this matter for some time at different levels with the UK. Our objective is to bring back those economic fugitives wanted in India to face justice in the country, and the matter did come up...it was conveyed that this is high priority...".

On the human rights issues in India, Johnson said, "How we deal with questions about human rights or democratic values, of course, we have these conversations, but the advantage of our friendship is we can have them in a friendly and private way."

"And I just want to say it is very important to realise that India has constitutional protections for communities, they are part of its Constitution. India is a very, very different country from autocracies around the world. It is a great, great democracy...that doesn't mean I'm not going to raise tough, consular questions as I have today, and other difficult questions. Of course, we do that, we do that as friends," PM Johnson said.

On Afghanistan, the joint statement said that both sides expressed their serious concern about the humanitarian situation, violations of human rights and the hampered access of girls and women to education. "Both Prime Ministers called upon the Taliban to allow girls to return to secondary school," the stateKHWAJA YUNUS CUSTODIAL DEATH CASE

Officials, policemen connived to thwart case, says former public prosecutor

OMKARGOKHALE MUMBAI, APRIL 22

IN AN email now part of Bombay High Court records, the former special public prosecutor in the custodial death case of Khwaja Yunus has said he was questioned by the government over his plea seeking that four more policemen be made to stand trial, and that he was removed from the case on false grounds. The email was sent by Dhiraj U Mirajkar to Chetan Mali, the advocate representing Yunus's mother Asiya Begum, on February 21.

Appointed as SPP in the 2003 death case in 2015, Mirajkar was removed in April 2018, soon after he submitted an application seeking that retired ACP Praful Bhosale and senior inspectors Rajaram Vhanmane, Ashok Khot and Hemant Desai be tried as accused. The government had earlier denied sanction to prosecute them. The trial has been on hold since Mirajkar's removal.

His email communication is part of the additional affidavit filed by Asiya in the High Court on March 24.

In his email, Mirajkar says he received no documents pertaining to the case from the government or prosecution. "The disturbing aspect of this case is that some faceless bureaucrat(s) actively connived with the police personnel responsible for causing the death of a person in custody in order to thwart criminal proceedings, and they have successfully managed to cause further delay in an already inordinately delayed trial," he says.

Yunus's family, through a 2018 plea before the High Court, had demanded that Mirajkar be brought back as SPP. The governmitted by Advocate General Ashutosh Kumbhakoni, that they could not appoint a replacement as long as the family's plea to bring back Mirajkar was being heard. Consequently, no SPP has been appointed, and the trial has been on hold for four years now. Mirajkar, meanwhile, as per his email, continues to work with the state Forest Department.

While repeated attempts to contact him failed, sources close to Miraikar said he did not want to comment as he still holds brief for the government.

At a hearing Tuesday, the High Court said the names of three alternative lawyers for SPP suggested by Asiya were taken by the state government in a "positive way", but that it held the right to select someone else too. It asked the government to appoint one in two weeks and posted the matter to May 4. Senior counsel Mihir Desai and advocate Chetan Mali, appearing for Asiya, had submitted before the court that it was only after the High Court's intervention that an FIR was filed, "despite stiff resistance from police and executive". In the email, Mirajkar says that after he filed the application in the trial court to implead four more policemen, he received a call from the Mantralaya asking who had instructed him.

Mirajkar says he then received a call from an official of the state Law and Judiciary Department, requesting him to be present at Mantralaya to meet Additional Chief Secretary (Addl. CS), Home Department. He says that he waited for three hours, but the Addl. CS didn't meet him and finally he was told by the Principal Secretary, Law and Judiciary Department, that he need not

FROM PLAYING a key role in Narendra Modi's prime ministerial campaign in the 2014 Lok Sabha elections, to taking a political plunge four years later by joining the JD(U) and leaving it in a huff, to negotiating with the Congress for an entry now, Prashant Kishor a.k.a PK has covered a long distance in Indian politics in the last eight years. But unpredictability, or rather inconsistency, driven by ambition has been his hallmark. And many political leaders who have engaged with the sharp tactician in the last eight years can vouch for that, Some say he is full of con-

Prashant Kishor's Congress saga is a case in point; it took another twist on Thursday as a presentation he had reportedly made for the party last year where he suggested a non-Gandhi president was leaked. On Friday, Kishor had a one-on-one meeting with Congress president Sonia Gandhi. Sources in the party said it was ready to induct him and he was also open to the idea. He could join in the next two weeks, sources said.

In May 2021, Kishor had his

Kishor had a one-on-one meeting with Sonia Gandhi

first serious set of talks with the Congress. He met Sonia even while he and his political consultancy firm I-PAC were working with the Congress's rival Trinamool Congress in the West Bengal Assembly polls. He gave her a presentation a month later on how to revive the Congress. The Gandhis engaged with him and both Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra met him

But around the same time, Kishor also met NCP president Sharad Pawar, and if sources in the NCP are to be believed, suggested a grand plan -- merger of the NCP and Trinamool Congress. He is said to have promised the NCP that he could get several Congress and some from the BJP, including two Lok Sabha MPs, to the new entity, which could replace the Congress and pose a challenge to the BJP and Narendra Modi. "I don't know how he is now discussing with the Congress a plan for its revival. He had shared with us some other plans," an NCP leader said. Meanwhile, at that time, his talks with the Congress did not fructify. Neither did his NCP-TMC merger idea. Soon, Kishor publicly turned against the Gandhis. He was also said to be behind the increasingly leader take over as UPA chairperson. Sonia currently heads it. After signing up with the TMC for the 2022 Goa Assembly elections - a state where the Congress had deep stakes – Prashant Kishor tweeted in December last year that leadership of the Opposition was not "the divine right of an individual, especially when the party has lost more than 90 per cent elections in the last 10 years". Let Opposition leadership be decided "democratically", he said.

The disastrous Goa foray of the TMC was another turning point in the career of Kishor.
