Trejhara announces Order Win from one of the largest logistics firms

22nd September, 2021

Trejhara announces order win from one of the largest logistics firms, having global presence, for the delivery and implementation of the product upgrade and technology support in relation thereto. The Order, which is valued close to US$ 3.5 Million, is spread over five years covering upgrade of the existing system to the latest technology, followed by the hosting, support and maintenance thereafter for a period of five years. The system will cover customer's Asia wide operations.

Mr. Snehal Pandit, Director – Trejhara, commenting on the order win stated that “we are excited to announce this win from one of our prestigious customers. This win is also a mark of approval from our customers and entails continued trust they repose in us and our offerings. This will further consolidate our position in the market.”
