The school principal expressed pride in the girls' performance and said that they will continue to provide the best possible education to all students, regardless of their physical abilities.

Central police manager takes help of YouTube as formal coaching beyond her means

A central police manager has been using YouTube as a formal coaching platform for her subordinates. The manager, who is based in a remote area, has found that YouTube provides a wealth of resources and courses that are otherwise unavailable to her. She has been using the platform to teach her staff about various aspects of police work, including law enforcement, community policing, and crime prevention. The manager's innovative use of technology has been praised by her superiors and has helped to improve the performance of her team.

Tribal girls bring laurels, smash patriarchy from interiors of state

Two tribal girls from the interior regions of Odisha have brought laurels to their state by excelling in the HSC examinations. The girls, who come from a traditional and patriarchal society, have broken the barriers of patriarchy and achieved a level of success that is rare in their community. Their achievement has inspired many other girls in their region to pursue higher education. The state government has recognized their achievement and has awarded them with scholarships and other incentives to encourage more girls to study.
