302 is not murder, 420 not cheating: Proposed Code

Govt tables Bill to replace colonial-era laws; death for lynching and rape of minors

New Delhi, 11 August

f a Bill that Home Minister Amit Shah introduced in the Lok Sabha on Friday becomes the law of the land, Indian Penal Code (IPC) Section

302 would no longer prescribe the punishment for murder. It would instead relate to the crime of snatching in the proposed Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS). The BNS has no Section 420 of the IPC, which relates to the offence of cheating, and covers it its Section 316.

On Friday, the concluding day of the monsoon session, Shah introduced three Bills in the Lok Sabha to replace colonial-era laws. He said it would overhaul the criminal justice system, end delays, and ensure justice in a maximum of three years. He introduced the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) Bill, 2023; Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) Bill, 2023; and Bharatiya Sakshya (BS) Bill, 2023 that will replace the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860, Criminal Procedure Act (CrPC), 1898, and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 respectively.

The Opposition criticised the new Bills. The Congress said it was part of the bigger design of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to leave his imprint on everything and that for Modi, everything in the past, whether social, legal, cultural or political, was terrible and needed overhauling. The ruling Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK) in Tamil Nadu termed it "Hindi imposition" and an "audacious attempt" to tamper with India's diversity. In recent years, the other Bills with Hindi names are the Direct Tax Vivad Se Vishwas Bill of March 2020 and the Jan Vishwas Bill.

The BNS Bill provides maximum capital punishment for crimes such as mob lynching and rape of minors, the home minister said. The Bill also has provisions to provide community service as one of the punishments for first-time petty offences.

However, while it deletes Section 124 A of the IPC, which deals with sedition, the BNS has Section 150 that lists new offences such as acts of secession, armed rebellion, subversive activities, separatist activities or escape law.

endangering the sovereignty or unity and integrity of India. The sedition law, known as 'Rajdroh' has got a new term for it, 'Deshdroh', thus doing away with the reference to the British crown, officials said. Section 124 in the BNS relates to the crime of wrongful restraint.

In a post on X (previously Twitter). advocate Prashant Bhushan said: "Three hugely important laws which will affect all of us are introduced at the end of this session without any disclosure of discussion. The colonial wolf of sedition brought back in sheep's clothing.'

Shah requested Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla to refer the three Bills for examination by the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Home Affairs. Under the new laws, the charge sheet must be filed within 90 days, and the court can give permission for another 90 days to look at the situation. The probe would have to be finished in 180 days and sent for trial. After trial, judgment will have to be given in 30 days.

Sexual exploitation of women on the pretext of marriage, job, promotions, or by hiding identity will be considered a crime and attract up to 10year imprisonment. The provision could cover cases of interfaith marriages under false names. For gang rape, there is a provision for punishment of 20 years imprisonment or life imprisonment, while there is a provision for a death sentence in case of rape with a minor. Community service is being introduced as a punishment for the first time.

Terrorism has been defined under the law for the first time, the minister said. There is also a provision for attaching the property of the terrorist. To stop political use of punishment waivers by governments, a new provision has been made that death sentences can only be converted to life imprisonment and life imprisonment be pardoned only within seven years of punishment.

Shah referred to the recent release of criminal-politician Anand Mohan in Bihar and said the provision had been made to ensure that those with political influence do not

The acquisition is in addition to similar measures being taken by other industrial development authorities and the housing board in other districts, a senior official said.

Meanwhile, UP industrial development minister Nand Gopal Gupta Nandi said that the government was toeing the line of 'reformperform-transform' to change the development landscape of the state.

"The state had netted more than 1,000 investment proposals worth ₹3.75 trillion for Bundelkhand region at the UP Global Investors Summit 2023 in February. To accelerate the development journey in the region, the BIDA blueprint has been drawn was completed in a seamless manner.

A recent UP cabinet meeting had cleared the proposal of injecting ₹8,000 crore in different industrial development authorities, of which the maximum ₹5,000 crore would be pumped in for BIDA alone.

An additional ₹1,000 crore has been allocated for new townships, of which Gorakhpur would receive the maximum ₹400 crore for land acquisition, followed by Agra and Aligarh at ₹150 crore each.

The Yogi government is planning to develop 100 new townships with the help of private investors to boost economic development and create jobs.

Earlier this year, the state claimed to have received proposals from almost 450 private investors for the ambitious new town-

The new townships would be developed in the periphery of big cities to decongest urban centres and synergise development, economic activities, housing, and job market. Besides, the state is in the process of rationalising building bylaws to facilitate higher
