New paradigm of maximisation of stakeholder's value, the need of the hour: IRDAI Chairman

Insisting on the need to veer the focus on human relationships and not accumulating wealth, SC Khuntia, Chairman, Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI), said that the new paradigm of maximisation of stakeholder's value is the need of the hour.

"Maximisation of welfare does not mean that one section of the society is against another, but an equilibrium must be established in which everyone feels valued"

Govt panel to submit report on pre-pack insolvency framework soon: IBBI chief

What has been suspended is that portion where a very microscopic keyhole surgery has been done under the IBC. But it is being perceived that the entire IBC has been suspended or complete ban is there," said Sahoo.

The IBBI Chairman also indicated that MSME promoters will continue to stay in charge of the enterprise during the resolution process, and this would be enabled in the proposed special insolvency framework for MSMEs.
