MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S DESK

Dear Shareholders,

We are pleased to announce significant milestones in our company's growth and development. Our state-of-the-art plant has officially commenced operations, substantially enhancing our production capacity and efficiency. Furthermore, we have successfully expanded our customer base by acquiring multiple clients across both domestic and international markets, reinforcing our position as a prominent industry player. These achievements underline the company's commitment to strategic expansion and operational excellence.

The manufacturing sector, in particular, has been an outstanding performer in recent times. It is estimated that the Indian manufacturing sector has the potential to evolve into a USD 1 trillion industry by 2025-26.

Macro-economic Landscape

Among the most exciting journeys in the modern economic landscape is the substantial progress of the Indian economy. Currently deemed the fastest-growing economy, India has become a global hub for foreign investments, reinforcing its perception as an emerging power. The nation's rapid growth trajectory is propelled by the conducive business environment that has been established. This growth is driven by the 'Make in India' initiative, supported by schemes such as the PLI scheme, which has attracted investments in several key sectors.

As a firsthand witness to India's transformation from a young developing country to its current economic stature, we anticipate a future filled with opportunities. The coming years are poised to unlock the vast potential of the Indian economy, propelling both the nation and our Company to new heights.

Industrial Landscape

Amidst the backdrop of a steadily growing economy, the domestic steel industry experienced surge in production by 13%. This robust growth is driven by the government's unwavering focus on infrastructure development and the flourishing real estate sector, resulting in an expanding need for silica ramming mass. Notably, the Induction Furnace (IF) route demonstrated exceptional growth, surging 25% to account for 35% of our total production in FY24, outperforming all other manufacturing methods. This significant increase in IF steel output unequivocally indicates a robust demand for silica ramming mass, providing a clear trajectory for our future growth and development

However, while global steel demand remains somewhat sluggish, our extensive international presence has adeptly mitigated industry risks, allowing us to maintain our steadfast commitment to excellence and growth.

Key Initiatives of the Financial Year

Our Company has taken various initiatives for key stakeholders and also enhanced the operational efficiency of our Company. We understand and recognise the hard work done by our Company employees and we recognise them as the biggest asset of our organisation. In recognition of their invaluable contribution, we have granted options to our top employees under our maiden ESOP scheme providing them with an opportunity to participate in the long-term growth of the company.

I am delighted to share some exciting developments at our company. We have launched a new website, designed to enhance user experience and provide comprehensive information about our products and services. Additionally, we have inaugurated a state-of-the-art plant, which will significantly boost our production capacity and efficiency. We also welcome our new Additional Director (Independent), Rajni Sekhri Sibal, whose extensive industry experience and innovative vision will be invaluable as we continue to grow and excel. These milestones reflect our unwavering commitment to innovation, growth, and delivering superior value to our stakeholders.

Outlook

Looking ahead, our focus will be on expanding exports and leveraging our global footprint to tap into new markets. We will continue to improve our margins by utilising operating leverage and the enhanced capabilities of our new plant. Our commitment to research and development will remain steadfast. Our in-house R&D laboratory, one of its kind in the mineral segment in India, will lead the way by pioneering custom furnace lining solutions that surpass the diverse needs and expectations of our valued customers whilst creating silica-based products for a range of applications across industries such as artificial marble, solar panels, semiconductors, etc. These strategic initiatives will position us for sustained growth and enhanced value creation for our stakeholders.

Concluding Thoughts

As we celebrate our achievements and the remarkable milestones of the past, we look forward to the future with anticipation and excitement. The coming years promise new challenges, growth opportunities, and groundbreaking accomplishments. With a legacy built on dedication, expertise, and a pioneering spirit, our company is poised to embark on this exciting journey with unwavering determination. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all stakeholders, partners, and employees who have been integral to our success. Together, we stride confidently into the future, ready to make history in our eighth decade and beyond.

Warm Regards,

SANJAY KABRA

MANAGING DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Shareholders,

With this expansion, our group capacity has now reached an impressive 288,000 MTPA from 180,000 MTPA. This state-of-the-art facility is equipped with the latest equipment and technology, ensuring superior production capabilities.

Resilient Business Model

In 2023-24, global economies experienced a shift from a phase of turbulence to that of recovery. Moderation in inflation levels worldwide provided central banks with the opportunity to temporarily halt interest rate hikes. Nevertheless, efforts to maintain a downward pressure on inflation limited the scope for policy rate reductions. Persistent geopolitical tensions remained a notable concern. Despite these challenges, some emerging economies like India remained resilient, contributing significantly to the global momentum. The impact was quite visible in the global steel industry which encountered obstacles leading to stagnant output.

Regardless of the global headwinds, our Company stands resilient, solidifying our position as one of the world's leading ramming mass producers. Our unwavering commitment to excellence has enabled us to maintain our status as the largest exporter, increasing both our presence and revenue from exports even amid global trade disruptions. This remarkable achievement showcases our efficiency and determination to expand our global footprint. Our extensive presence strategically de-risks our business against the global slowdown, providing us with a robust foundation for sustained growth.

Enhanced Manufacturing Capacity

We are continually witnessing robust demand for our silica ramming products and are determined to strengthen our business mix to meet this growing need. I am glad to announce that we have completed the greenfield expansion adjacent to our existing plant, and commenced production during the year. With this expansion, our group capacity has now reached an impressive 288,000 MTPA from 180,000 MTPA. This state-of-the-art facility is equipped with the latest equipment and technology, ensuring superior production capabilities.

This significant increase in capacity will not only boost our revenue but also enhance our margins, benefiting both our business and our valued customers. Furthermore, this strategic growth will elevate the value we provide to our shareholders and investors, delivering better returns and reinforcing our commitment to excellence and innovation.

Financial Highlights

Despite a difficult year for the Global economy, we managed to clock better financial metrics. We attribute these results to the resilience of our business model and the tremendous hard work of our employees. On the face of challenging conditions, we managed higher EBITDA levels and even better margins during the year. We accredit this improvement to better operating leverage of all our plants and increase in volume offtake, coupled with higher price realisations. Let me share some of the highlights of our consolidated financial performance during the year 2023-24:

- Our Company has increased the revenue from exports, with volumes increasing from 50,365 units to 61,480 units, marking an impressive growth of 22.06%
- As a result, our EBITDA increased from ₹ 36.33 crore in FY 2023 to ₹ 40.43 crore, reflecting a growth of 11.29%. Our EBITDA margins also improved by ~400 basis points, reaching 30.45%, underscoring our operational efficiency
- Furthermore, our net profit showed a modest increase of 2.97%, standing at ₹ 25.97 crore, with margins expanding by ~120 basis points
- We have proudly attained a net debt-free status, providing us with a significant financial edge and the capacity to invest further in our growing operations. This debt-free position not only strengthens our financial foundation but also enables us to deliver better returns to our shareholders

As a result, our EBITDA increased from ₹ 36.33 crore in FY 2023 to ₹ 40.43 crore, while our cash flow from operations remained robust at 20 Crs indicating efficient working capital management.

Way Forward

As we forge ahead on our growth trajectory, we are resolute in our commitment to expanding our international clientele and enhancing our global footprint. Our strategic focus on value-added products is poised to significantly bolster our revenue streams, reflecting our dedication to innovation and excellence.

Looking forward, we are diligently working towards optimising our capacity utilisation and enhancing operational efficiency. These initiatives are designed to reinforce our market position, drive sustainable growth, and deliver superior value to our stakeholders.

Vote of Thanks

I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the outstanding and diligent team at our Company. It is their persistent commitment and tireless efforts that drive us towards excellence each day. I would also like to express my appreciation to our Board members, whose guidance and advice have been vital in shaping our strategic path and accomplishing our objectives. As we look towards the future with optimism and determination, I assure you that Raghav Ramming remains steadfast in its pursuit of excellence and sustainable growth.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Global Economy Overview

The global economy demonstrated remarkable resilience in 2023. According to the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the global economy grew by 3.2%. While advanced economies expanded by 1.6%, emerging market and middle-income economies stood out as the fastest-growing region, achieving a growth rate of 4.1%, this growth was achieved by defying several challenges. These include geopolitical tensions between Russia and Ukraine, ongoing attacks in the Red Sea, disrupted global trade flows, increased transportation costs, and strained supply chains. Additionally, higher inflation affected global economic growth, leading various central banks to tighten monetary policy and raise interest rates in a synchronised manner. This impacted overall business conditions. Moreover, the slow economic recovery in China and other large emerging market economies has an additional impact on global trade. Also, the Euro area is witnessing a slow growth of 0.4% in 2023.

On the positive side, the global headline inflation receded faster than expected. It declined from 8.7% in 2022 to 6.8% in 2023 and is further expected to decline 5.9% in 2024 and to 4.5% in 2025. Other factors propelling the global economy include the United States and other large emerging market and middle-income economies, which have shown significant signs of recovery. The US economy grew by 2.5% in 2023, and the projection for growth in 2024 has been revised by 0.6% from the earlier estimations and stands at 2.7%. The economic recovery in the US region is supported by stronger-than-expected private consumption, despite labour markets that remain tight, albeit easing. In advanced economies, households have boosted their spending by tapping into the savings accumulated during the pandemic. Moreover, government spending exceeding expectations has additionally strengthened aggregate demand in most regions.

Source: International Monetary Fund

Outlook

The IMF projections indicate that the global economy will maintain a steady growth rate of 3.2% in both 2024 and 2025. Also, growth forecasts for advanced economies and emerging markets in 2024 are 1.7% and 4.2% respectively. The advanced economy projection has been revised upward by 0.2% from the January 2024 outlook. However, the ongoing Russia-Ukraine conflict has the potential to negatively impact the economic prospects. Furthermore, escalating geopolitical tensions in the Middle East, coupled with persistent attacks on the Red Sea route, could exacerbate the situation, thereby posing significant risks to the global economy. Nevertheless, as inflation is expected to continue its downward trend towards target levels, central banks in major economies are generally anticipated to begin reducing policy rates in the latter half of 2024.

Indian Economy Overview

Amidst the global slowdown, the Indian economy has demonstrated remarkable resilience. According to the second advance estimate of National Income for FY 2023-24, the Indian economy grew by 7.6% in FY 2023-24, surpassing the growth rate of 7.0% in FY 2022-23. Also, the construction and manufacturing sectors demonstrated robust growth achieving an expansion of 10.7% and 8.5%. This economic success can be attributed to several key factors, including robust domestic demand, abating inflation, and supportive government policies.

During FY 2023-24, the GST collection reached the ₹ 20.18 lakh crore mark, reflecting an 11.7% growth, supported by robust domestic demand. Moreover, the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) shows that India's industrial output increased by 6.1% in the first three quarters of FY 2023-24, up from 5.5% in the same period last year. The broad-based economic growth is evident from the upward trend in both the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) data and the GST collections. This trend signifies robust activity across multiple sectors, highlighting their contribution to the overall health of the economy. Furthermore, from April to February in FY 2023-24, the combined growth rate of the Index of Eight Core Industries (ICI) stood at 7.7% (provisional), marking an expansion compared to the corresponding period last year. The growth in ICI suggests a strengthening foundation for overall economic growth.

The Indian economy is witnessing a faster disinflation. During FY 2022-23, India's average CPI inflation stood at 6.7%, exceeding the RBI's tolerance band of 4% (+/- 2%). To address the inflationary pressure, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) tightened its monetary policy and holding the repo rate steady at 6.5% for past seven consecutive policy review. The higher interest rate and tighter monetary policy have helped to moderate inflation, leading to an average inflation rate of 5.4% in FY 2023-24 despite food supply shocks. Looking ahead, it is projected that inflation will further contract to 4.5% in the next financial year.

The global economic slowdown and continuous attack on the Red Sea have significantly affected India's Merchandise Exports. Total exports in FY 2023-24 amounted to USD 437.06 billion, reflecting a contraction of 3.09% compared to the previous fiscal year. Concurrently, India's imports also decreased by 5.41% to USD 677.24 billion, thereby sustaining the overall trade balance.

Outlook

The Indian economy is set for a promising outlook in the upcoming financial year. The RBI has projected a growth rate of 7% for FY 2024-25. Meanwhile, the IMF predicts that the Indian economy will grow by 6.8% in CY 2024 and by 6.5% in 2025. However, any escalation of conflicts in the geopolitical landscape could exacerbate inflationary pressures and impact trade. Also, the prolonged higher interest rates could negatively affect the overall business environment. Despite these challenges, the Indian economy is expected to display resilience, supported by the proactive measures taken by the government. In a significant move, the government has augmented capital expenditure by allocating ₹ 11.11 trillion for infrastructure development projects in FY 2024-25. Moreover, various government initiatives such as the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme, streamlined policies to facilitate trade and investment, raised FDI limits, and enhanced infrastructure facilities will provide support to the Indian economy.

Industry Overview

Silica Ramming Mass overview

Silica ramming mass, a specialised refractory material crucial for high-temperature industrial applications, is predominantly composed of high-purity silica. This material demonstrates exceptional thermal stability and resistance to thermal shock, making it the most suitable refractory product for lining induction furnaces. Engineered to withstand extreme heat, corrosion, and mechanical stress, silica ramming mass ensures the longevity and efficiency of industrial processes. Being an essential refractory material, it is indispensable for producing high-quality steel and alloys, playing a vital role in modern metallurgical operations.

Induction furnaces are vital in the steel, copper, aluminium, and zinc industries for their clean, energy-efficient, and precise melting processes. Among these, the steel industry stands out as the largest revenue generator. Advancements in metallurgy and furnace technology will further boost the requirement for advanced refractory materials including silica ramming mass.

One significant trend is the increasing demand for customised formulations of silica ramming mass to optimise furnace performance. Concurrently, ongoing research is focused on enhancing its thermal conductivity and resistance for extremely high-temperature applications, which is expected to further drive the demand.

Raghav Productivity Enhancers Limited (RPEL) is at the forefront of producing high-quality silica ramming mass, leveraging its exceptional properties. This material is highly esteemed for its chemical inertness, superior structural strength, remarkable erosion resistance, and compelling cost-effectiveness, making it a go-to choice for various industrial applications.

Indian Induction Furnace Industry Overview

The valuation of the Indian induction furnace stood at USD 1,229.57 million, with market projections indicating a growth of USD 84.85 million, reflecting a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.9% from 2023 to 2028. This growth is expected to be driven by several factors such as the rising demand for steel and alloys, the increasing government support to boost industrial expansion, and the growing foundry industry in India.

There are two primary types of induction furnaces: channel induction furnaces and coreless induction furnaces. Channel induction furnaces hold the largest market share, and is mainly used for alloys with low melting points. These furnaces consist of a refractory-lined steel shell that contains molten metal. At the same time, a coreless induction furnace is an electric furnace that melts metals using electromagnetic induction. An AC passes through a coil, creating a magnetic field that induces eddy currents in the metal, generating heat and melting it. These furnaces are efficient, offer precise temperature control, and are ideal for melting and alloying metals in foundries. Due to their clean, energy-efficient, and controllable melting process, induction furnaces are extensively used in the steel, copper, aluminium, and zinc industries.

The growing need for premium-grade alloys and metals under environmentally sustainable conditions has driven the extensive adoption of induction furnaces in foundries for processing steel, cast iron, and nonferrous metals. Industrial induction furnaces play a pivotal role in diverse operations such as smelting, steelmaking, metal casting, and heat treatment.

The growth in the induction furnace market is being driven by several key factors. The government's strong commitment to boosting manufacturing capacity, through initiatives like the Make in India campaign and Production Linked Incentive (PLI) schemes, has played a significant role. Additionally, the rapid expansion of the railway sector and metro projects, leading to increased demand for smelting, mining, and metal alloy machinery, is fuelling the need for induction furnaces.

The fast-growing renewable energy market, India's robust infrastructure investments (aimed at accommodating its expanding urban population), the affordable housing segment, and the rising demand for metal castings from the automotive sector, are boosting metal consumption which is further contributing to the demand of induction furnace.

To meet this growing demand, India plans to rely on domestic steel production under its National Steel Policy, targeting a 175 million tons per annum (MTPA) increase in steelmaking capacity by 2030. This expansion necessitates the construction of numerous blast furnaces, thereby increasing the demand for refined metals and strengthening the adoption of induction furnaces.

Indian Ramming Mass Industry Overview

The silica ramming mass industry is predominantly situated in central and north India, characterised by a primarily unorganised structure. Production facilities in these regions typically boast average capacities of 10 KTPA and 15 KTPA, respectively.

On average, 30 Kg of silica ramming mass is consumed per tonne of steel production. The demand for silica ramming mass is closely linked to steel production capacity, with about 70% of ramming mass used for lining induction furnaces in crude steel manufacturing plants. The steel industry's growth also increases the demand for high-quality refractory materials including silica ramming mass. Also, the construction and infrastructure sectors indirectly contribute to demand by supporting steel production efficiency. The domestic demand for ramming mass is anticipated to grow at a CAGR of 5-5.5% between FY 2020-21 and FY 2024-25, reaching approximately 2300 KT by FY 2024-25.

In India, most steel and foundry manufacturers prefer domestically sourced silica (acidic) ramming mass due to its easy availability, timely procurement, and comparatively lower logistics costs for domestic purchases compared to exports. The domestic production of ramming mass in India is further supported by various government initiatives, including Make in India and Atmanirbhar Bharat campaign, which aim to reduce imports of silica ramming mass from China and other countries. India is also the world's largest exporter of silica ramming mass, with major export destinations including Saudi Arabia, Kenya, and Uganda.

Global Steel Industry Overview

During CY 2023, the global steel industry encountered obstacles, experiencing stagnant output caused by geopolitical tensions between Russia and Ukraine, as well as conflicts between Israel and Gaza. These factors contributed to heightened raw material prices and disruptions in the supply chain and trade, culminating in a period of sluggishness for the industry. Additionally, higher inflation rates and a weakened business environment impacted the global steel demand. According to the World Steel Association, global crude steel production totalled 1,888.2 MT in 2023. China, the world's largest steel manufacturer, continued to reduce its steel production by ~15% to comply with total production control policies aimed at reducing carbon emissions. In the European Union, crude steel production declined by 7.4% to 126.3 MT compared to 2022. Germany, the largest steel producer in Europe, experienced its lowest steel production volume since 2009, reaching approximately 35.4 MT. This decline of 3.9% year-on-year was attributed to weak fundamentals and high international electricity prices.

India Steel Industry Overview

India, the world's second-largest steel producer, and crossed 161 million metric tonne (MT) capacity, comprising of 67 MT by blast furnace-basic oxygen furnace, 36MT by electric arc furnace, 58MT by induction furnace. As per the national steel policy, India has a target of installing 300MT by 2030. The government's focus on infrastructure development through initiatives like the Gati-Shakti Master Plan and the 'Make in India' campaign, along with other flagship schemes, is driving steel consumption. Additionally, the auto and engineering sectors are pivotal in propelling demand. India's growing population and ongoing urbanisation trends are also shaping the trajectory of steel consumption.

Under the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme for Specialty Steel, 57 Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) have been signed, aiming to generate an investment of ₹ 29,500 crores. This initiative is expected to create an additional production capacity of 25 million tons for specialty steel grades and provide employment for approximately 17,000 people by the fiscal year 2027-28.

India, the world's second-largest steel producer, surpassed 161 million metric tonnes (MT) of capacity, with 67 MT from blast furnace-basic oxygen furnace (BOF), 36 MT from electric arc furnace (EAF), and 58 MT from induction furnace (IF). Data shows that IF production grew 25% year-on-year to 50 MT, EAFs by 12% to 31 MT, and BOF by 5% to 61 MT. Combined, IF and EAF contributed 82 MT, or over 56% of the total 143 MT. The share of BOF fell to 43% from 46% in 2022-23, EAF remained flat at 22%, while IF increased to 35% from 32%.

Additionally, India's DRI (sponge iron) production rose 20% year-on-year to a record 52 MT in 2023-24, supported by a 48% drop in imported coal prices and a 62% spike in thermal coal imports. Moreover, the national steel policy targets 300 MT by 2030, driven by government initiatives like the Gati-Shakti Master Plan and 'Make in India' campaign, along with growing demand from the auto and engineering sectors, urbanization, and population growth. Under the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme for Specialty Steel, 57 MoUs have been signed, targeting an investment of ₹ 29,500 crores to add 25 million tonnes of production capacity and create 17,000 jobs by 2027-28.

As of December 2023, the selected companies have already invested approximately ₹ 12,900 crores out of the ₹ 21,000 crores committed for the current financial year. It is expected that an additional ₹ 3,000 crores will be invested during FY 2023-24, bringing the total investment to around ₹ 16,000 crores by the end of FY 2023-24. The Ministry of Steel anticipates a further investment of ₹ 10,000 crores in FY 2024-25. Additionally, the implementation of the Domestically Manufactured Iron & Steel Products (DMI&SP) policy aims to boost the procurement of Made in India steel for government projects. Moreover, for long-term growth, the National Steel Policy 2017 has been formulated to provide a comprehensive roadmap of the Indian steel industry, addressing both demand and supply aspects, with a vision for 2030-31.

Outlook

As per the World Steel Association, global steel demand is expected to remain flat and will showcase a marginal growth of 1.7% in 2024, reaching 1,793 MT. While in 2025, demand is forecasted to showcase a slight increase of 1.2% to 1,815 MT. The flattish demand is anticipated due to higher input costs, geopolitical uncertainties, and the lagged impact of monetary tightening. In China, steel demand in 2024 is expected to remain at similar levels to 2023, primarily due to a decline in real estate investments. On the other hand, India is expected to be in a brighter spot, with steel demand projected to grow by 8% in 2024 and 2025. This growth will be driven by continued expansion across all steel-using sectors, particularly fuelled by robust infrastructure investments.

Growth Drivers for the Indian Steel and Ramming Mass Industry

During the reporting period, the urban residential real estate market remained robust with multiple new launches and high affordability, despite higher interest rates. Significant investments in renewables were driven by increasing power consumption and the transition to green energy. The government's commitment to infrastructure and social development also remained strong. The NHAI pipeline for the next three years is promising, and InvITs are attracting continued interest from foreign investors. Additionally, private capital expenditures are being fueled by the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP), the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme, and initiatives for defence indigenisation.

Total automobile sales rose from 25.93 million in FY 2022-23 to 28.43 million units in FY 2023-24. The Passenger Vehicles (PV) and three-wheelers segments saw robust growth during the reporting period. Looking ahead, the Indian automotive industry is expected to sustain its growth and grow by 8-10% over the next 10 years, driven by factors such as decreasing inflation and potential interest rate reductions improved credit terms, population growth, increasing per capita income and the increasing adoption of electric vehicles (EVs).

Expanding Real Estate and Infrastructure Landscape

Knight Frank India, in association with NAREDCO in their report 'India Real Estate: Vision 2047' predicts India's real estate sector to reach USD 5.8 trillion by 2047. Also, the Indian government is bolstering housing infrastructure through the PMAY. Moreover, in the interim budget 2024-25, the government announced a capital outlay of ₹ 11.11 lakh crore, aimed at accelerating infrastructure development which will help to expand the demand for steel.

Growing Urban Population Creating Opportunity

Building the necessary infrastructure is crucial for creating liveable, climate-resilient, and inclusive cities that drive economic growth. With nearly 70% of the urban infrastructure needed by 2047 yet to be built, significant investments are expected. India will need to invest ~USD 840 billion in infrastructure by 2036, averaging USD 55 billion annually or 1.2% of GDP which will boost the steel demand.

Rapid Industrialisation

The industry sector experienced robust growth, supported by government initiatives such as the PLI scheme, the Make in India campaign, and the China+1 policy. The cumulative growth rate of the Index of Eight Core Industries (ICI) from April to January in FY 2023-24 stood at 7.7% (provisional). Anticipated expansion, renovation, and construction activities in industries are expected to fuel the steel demand nationwide, consequently increasing the demand for ramming mass.

This report deals with the calculation of accounting impact of Options granted using Black Scholes method and the disclosures as required are below:

- Fair Value Of Option:

As per Ind AS 102, the fair value needs to be estimated using an option-pricing model (for example, the Black-Scholes or a binomial model) that considers as of the grant date the exercise price and expected life of the option, the price in the market of the underlying stock and its expected volatility, expected dividends on the stock, and the risk-free interest rate for the expected term of the option. The fair value of an option estimated at the grant date cannot be subsequently adjusted for changes in the price of the underlying stock or its volatility, the life of the option, dividends on the stock, or the risk-free interest rate etc.

In light of the above facts, the fair value of the Options granted on January 23, 2024 has been taken as calculated as on the relevant date. The fair value that has been considered by us for the purpose of this report are as stated below:

5) Price of the underlying share in market at the time of Options grants	723.20

* Expected volatility has been determined based on closing price of the share of the company over a period of 5 years.

- Methodology

IND AS 102 “Share-based Payment” issued by ICAI governs accounting for ESOPs. It specifies use of Fair Value method for valuation of Options. For calculation of Fair Value, it recommends use any binomial option pricing model.

The key assumptions of the Black–Scholes model are:

- The price of the underlying instrument follows a geometric Brownian motion with constant drift and volatility, and the prices changes are log-normally distributed;
- It is possible to short sell the underlying stock.
- There are no arbitrage opportunities.
- Trading in the stock is continuous.
- There are no transaction costs or taxes.
- All securities are perfectly divisible (e.g. it is possible to buy any fraction of a share).
- It is possible to borrow and lend cash at a constant risk-free interest rate.

Following variables are used in the calculation of Black-Scholes model:

- Volatility
- Risk free interest rate
- Expected option life
- Expected dividend yield
- Market price and
- Exercise price

Except for dividend yield and exercise price all variables have direct impact on option value as derived using Black-Scholes model.

As per IND AS 102, fair value of an option estimated at the grant date shall not be subsequently adjusted for changes in the price of the underlying stock or its volatility, the life of the option, dividends on the stock, or the risk-free interest rate etc.

- Accounting Impact

As per IND AS 102:

- In respect of options granted during any accounting period, the accounting value of the options shall be treated as another form of employee compensation in the financial statements of the company.
- The accounting value of options shall be equal to the aggregate, over all employee stock options granted during the accounting period, of the fair value of the option.
- The Fair Value of a stock option is the price that shall be calculated for that option in an arm’s length transaction between a willing buyer and a willing seller. The fair value shall be estimated using an option-pricing model (for example, the Black-Scholes or a binomial model) that considers as of the grant date the exercise price and expected life of the option, the current price in the market of the underlying stock and its expected volatility, expected dividends on the stock, and the risk-free interest rate for the expected term of the option. The fair value of an option estimated at the grant date shall not be subsequently adjusted for changes in the price of the underlying stock or its volatility, the life of the option, dividends on the stock, or the risk-free interest rate.
- Where the accounting value is accounted for as employee compensation in accordance with ‘b’, the amount shall be amortized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.
- When an unvested option lapses by virtue of the employee not conforming to the vesting conditions after the accounting value of the option has already been accounted for as employee compensation, this accounting treatment shall be reversed by a credit to employee compensation expense equal to the amortized portion of the accounting value of the lapsed options and a credit to deferred employee compensation expense equal to the unamortized portion.
- When a vested option lapses on expiry of the exercise period, after the fair value of the option has already been accounted for as employee compensation, this amount shall be transferred to Reserves & Surplus.

- Fair Value Calculation

The Company has granted Options on January 23, 2024. The Options granted vest in graded manner over a period of 5 years. Black-Scholes option pricing model has been used for evaluation of the fair value of Option as on the date of grant. The details of the variables used and fair value computed are stated below:

Grant 1 – January 23, 2024

Particulars	1 st	2 nd	3 rd	4 th	5 th
	Vesting	Vesting	Vesting	Vesting	Vesting
Stock Price	723.20	723.20	723.20	723.20	723.20
Volatility	59.890%	59.890%	59.890%	59.890%	59.890%
Risk free Interest Rate	7.046%	7.046%	7.046%	7.046%	7.046%

Fair Value of Option	388.73	409.38	428.17	445.36	461.42

Validations for the variables used / assumed:

- b. Volatility: Volatility is a measure of the amount by which a price is expected to fluctuate during a period based on the historic data. The period to be considered for volatility has to be adequate to represent a consistent trend in price movement. Movements due to abnormal events need to be evened out while calculating volatility.
- c. Risk free Interest rate: This is the expected yield till maturity on a zero coupon government security with a maturity period equal to the expected life of an Option. We have considered the yield to maturity on zero coupon government securities maturing after 5 years.
- d. Exercise Price: This is the price at which one option can be converted into shares. This is as per the ESOP implemented by the Company.
- e. Time to Maturity: This is a period for which the Option is expected to be live. According to guidance note of ICAI, the expected life of a stock option need to factor in the following:
 - a. The expected life must at least include the vesting period.
 - b. The average length of time similar grants has remained outstanding in the past.
 - c. It should not be less than half of the exercise period unless any historical evidence supports it.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2024, and its profit (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit of Standalone Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) as specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the 'Code of Ethics' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

The Key Audit Matter	How was the matter addressed in our audit
Revenue Recognition Revenue is one of the key profit drivers. Cut-off is the key assertion insofar as revenue recognition is concerned, since an inappropriate cut-off can result in material misstatement of results for the year.	Our audit procedures with regard to revenue recognition included testing controls, around dispatches/ deliveries, inventory reconciliations and substantive testing for cut-offs and analytical review procedures.

Information other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the standalone Ind AS financial statements and our auditors' report thereon. These reports are expected to be made available to us after the date of this audit report.

Our opinion on the standalone Ind AS financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone Ind AS financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. Since these reports are expected to be made available to us after the date of this audit report hence currently, we have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, state of affairs, profit (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act, read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone Ind AS financial statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of Standalone Ind AS Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone Ind AS financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern..
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matter communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure II to the Independent Auditors' Report

Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report of even date to the members of Raghav Productivity Enhancers Limited.

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the Standalone financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2024, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting RAGHAV PRODUCTIVITY ENHANCERS LIMITED ("the Company") as of March 31, 2024 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Board of Directors of the company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements based on "the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India". These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with reference to Standalone financial statements

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- 1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- 2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- 3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting with reference to standalone financial statement

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the company has maintained, in all material respects, adequate internal financial control over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as of March 31, 2024, based on "the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India".

Notes to the Standalone Ind AS Financial Statement

1. Corporate Information

Raghav Productivity Enhancers Limited (the company) is a Public limited company domiciled in India and incorporated under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The company is engaged in manufacturing and trading of Ramming Mass and other Quartz related items.

The Board of Directors approved the Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2024 and authorised for issue on May 17, 2024

2. Basis of Preparation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as "Ind AS") as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended from time to time.

These financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

The material accounting policy information related to preparation of the standalone financial statements have been discussed in the respective notes.

3. Functional and Presentation Currency

The financial statements are prepared in Indian Rupees ("INR") which is the Company's presentation currency and the functional currency for its operations. All financial information presented in INR has been rounded to the nearest lacs with two decimal places unless stated otherwise.

4. Use of Estimates and judgments

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to the accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and future periods affected.

material judgments and estimates relating to carrying value of assets and liabilities include useful lives of Property, plant and equipment, impairment of Property, plant and equipment, investments, provision for employee benefits and other provisions, recoverability of deferred tax assets, commitments and contingencies.

5. Classification of Assets and Liabilities as Current and Non Current

All Assets and Liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of product & activities of the Company and their realization in cash and cash equivalent, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

6. Material accounting policies

The following are the material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

The Company uses the following critical accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions in preparation of its standalone financial statements:

6.1 Recognition of Revenue and Expenditure

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized on transfer of control of promised goods or services to a customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company is expected to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and schemes offered by the Company as part of the contract. This variable consideration is estimated based on the expected value of outflow. Revenue (net of variable consideration) is recognized only to the extent that it is highly probable that the amount will not be subject to significant reversal when uncertainty relating to its recognition is resolved.

Sale of Goods

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when the control on the goods have been transferred to the customer. The performance obligation in case of sale of product is satisfied at a point in time i.e., when the material is shipped to the customer or on delivery to the customer, as may be specified in the contract.

Interest

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the effective interest rate method. Interest income is included under the head "Other Income" in statement of profit and loss.

Export Incentive

Revenue from export incentives are accounted for on export of goods if the entitlements can be estimated with reasonable assurance and condition precedent to claim are fulfilled.

Expenses

All expenses are charged in statement of profit and loss as and when they are incurred.

6.2 Property, Plant & Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost comprising of purchase price and any initial directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any.

Depreciation is provided for property, plant and equipment on a straight line method so as to expenses the cost less residual value over their useful lives assets as prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. The estimated useful lives and residual value are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any change in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Depreciation is not recorded on capital work-in progress until construction and installation is completed and the asset is for intended use.

6.3 Inventory

Inventories consists of Raw Material, Work In Progress, Finished Goods, Stores & Spares and packing materials.

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Raw materials, Stores & Spares & Packing material: Cost includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition on the weighted average basis.

Finished goods and work in progress: Cost includes cost of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on the normal operating capacity on a weighted average basis. Cost of finished goods includes other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

6.4 Employee benefits

a) Short Term Employee Benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages etc. and the expected cost of ex-gratia are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid when there is a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

b) Defined Contribution Plan

Contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as expense when employees have rendered services entitling them to such benefits.

c) Defined Benefit Plan

For defined benefit plans, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Remeasurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling and the return on plan assets (excluding interest), is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Past service cost, both vested and unvested, is recognised as an expense at the earlier of (a) when the plan amendment or curtailment occurs; and (b) when the entity recognises related restructuring costs or termination benefits.

The retirement benefit obligations recognised in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligations reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the scheme.

6.5 Taxation

Tax expense is the aggregate amount included in the determination of profit or loss for the period in respect of current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable in respect of taxable profit for a period. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before

tax' as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible under the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Current tax is measured using tax rates that have been enacted by the end of reporting period for the amounts expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities.

Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit under Income tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences. However, in case of temporary differences that arise from initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction (other than business combination) that affect neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized. Also, for temporary differences if any that may arise from initial recognition of goodwill, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized.

Deferred tax assets are generally recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary difference can be utilized. In case of temporary differences that arise from initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction (other than business combination) that affect neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit, deferred tax assets are not recognized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the benefits of part or all of such deferred tax assets to be utilized.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Presentation of current and deferred tax:

Current and deferred tax are recognized as income or an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income, in which case, the current and deferred tax income/expense are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income.

The Company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. In case of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities, the same are offset if the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off corresponding current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the Company.

6.6 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Contingent Liability is disclosed in case of a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or where no reliable estimate is possible. Contingent liabilities are not recognised in financial statements but are disclosed in notes.

Contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity. Contingent assets are not recognised in financial statements and are disclosed in notes when it is virtually certain that economic benefits will inflow to the Company.

6.7 Foreign Currency Transactions

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded at exchange rates prevailing at the date of transactions. Exchange differences arising on foreign exchange transactions settled during the year are recognised in the statement of profit and loss of the year.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies which are outstanding, as at the reporting date are translated at the closing exchange rates and the resultant exchange differences are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are recognised using the exchange rate at date of initial transactions, are not retranslated.

In respect of forward contracts, the premium or discount on these contracts is recognized as income or expenditure over the period of the contract. Any profit or loss arising on the cancellation or the renewal of such contracts is recognized as income or expense for the year.

6.8 Impairment

Non-financial assets

The carrying amount of non- financial assets other than inventories are assessed at each reporting date to ascertain whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists then the

asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An impairment loss is recognised as an expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss, for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less cost to sell and value in use. Value in use is ascertained through discounting of estimated future cash flows using a discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of the time value of money and the risk specific to the assets. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels into cash generating units for which there are separately identifiable cash flows.

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment had been recognised.

Financial assets

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. In determining the allowances for doubtful trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the receivables that are due and allowance rates used in the provision matrix.

6.9 Cash and Cash Equivalents

For presentation in the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

6.10 Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the asset, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for the intended use or sale. Interest income earned on temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation. The borrowing costs other than attributable to qualifying assets are recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which they incurred.

6.11 Financial Instruments

The company recognizes financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial asset or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transactions costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in Statement of Profit and loss.

Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sale of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sale of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place. All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortized cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Classification of Financial Assets

(i) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(ii) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(iii) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories is subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.

(iv) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

(v) Equity instrument

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(vi) Derecognition

The company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the company's balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

(vii) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

6.12 Segment Reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The company consider Ramming Mass as its single segment in which company operates. The Company has also dealt in Some Other products but their volume is nominal hence no reportable segments are their.

6.13 Fair Value Measurement

The Company measures financial instruments at fair value at each balance sheet date. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 - Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

(C) Defined Benefit Plan:-

Gratuity

In accordance with the provisions of Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, the company has defined benefit plan which provides for gratuity payment. The plan provides a lump sum gratuity payment to eligible employees at retirement or termination of their employment. The amounts are based on the respective employee's last drawn salary and the year of employment with the company.

These plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as: Investment, Interest rate, longevity and salary risk:

A) Actuarial Risk: It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons:

Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in obligation at a rate that is higher than expected.

Variability in mortality rates : If actual mortality rates are higher than the assumed mortality rates assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cash flow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate.

Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rates are higher than assumed withdrawal rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.

B) Investment risk: For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter valuation period.

C) Liquidity risk: Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the company there can be strain on the cashflows.

D) Market risk: Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects time value of money. An increase in discount rate leads to decrease in Defined Benefit Obligation of the plan benefits and vice-versa. This assumption depends on the yields on the corporate / government bonds and hence the valuation of the liability is exposed to fluctuations in the yields as at the valuation date.

E) Legislative risk: Legislative risk is the risk of increase in the plan liabilities or reduction in the plan assets due to change in legislation / regulation. The Government may amend the Payment of Gratuity Act thus requiring the companies to pay higher benefits to the employees. This will directly affect the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation and the same will have to be recognised immediately in the year when any such amendment is effective.

No other post-retirement benefits are provided to the employees.

The actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out as at March 31, 2024 by a certified actuary of the Institute of Actuaries of India. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.

The Company maintains policies and procedures to value financial assets or financial liabilities using the best and most relevant data available. The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

- 1) Fair value of cash and deposits, trade receivables, trade payables, and other current financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.
- 2) Long-term variable-rate borrowings are evaluated by the Company based on parameters such as interest rates, specific country risk factors, credit risk and other risk characteristics. Fair value of variable interest rate borrowings approximates their carrying values. Risk of other factors for the company is considered to be insignificant in valuation.

To

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of RAGHAV PRODUCTIVITY ENHANCERS LIMITED ("the Company") and its subsidiary (the Company and its subsidiary together referred to as the "Group"), which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2024, and the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity and the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as the "consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements, give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at March 31, 2024 and their consolidated profit, their consolidated total comprehensive income, their consolidated changes in equity and their consolidated cash flows for the year ended.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SA"s) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, these consolidated financial results include the financial results of the following entity:

- a. Raghav Productivity Solutions Private Limited

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

The Key Audit Matter	How was the matter addressed in our audit
Revenue Recognition
Revenue is one of the key profit drivers. Cut-off is the key assertion insofar as revenue recognition is concerned, since an inappropriate cut-off can result in material misstatement of results for the year.	Our audit procedures with regard to revenue recognition included testing controls, around dispatches/ deliveries, inventory reconciliations and substantive testing for cut-offs and analytical review procedures.

Information other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the consolidated Ind AS financial statements and our auditors' report thereon. These reports are expected to be made available to us after the date of this audit report.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated Ind AS financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. Since these reports are expected to be made available to us after the date of this audit report hence currently, we have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's and Board of Directors' Responsibilities for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation and presentation of these Consolidated Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. The respective Boards of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Boards of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of the respective entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the respective Boards of Directors either intend to liquidate their respective entities or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the company and its subsidiary company has adequate internal financial control with reference to financial statement in place and operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Company and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure I to the Independent Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2024, We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting RAGHAV PRODUCTIVITY ENHANCERS LTD. ("the Company") and its subsidiary company, which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Boards of Directors of the Company and its subsidiary company, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and its subsidiary company, which are companies incorporated in India, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI") and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- 1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- 2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- 3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2024, based on the criteria for internal financial control over financial reporting established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

The following are the material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

The Company uses the following critical accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions in preparation of its consolidated financial statements:

7.1 Recognition of Revenue and Expenditure

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized on transfer of control of promised goods or services to a customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company is expected to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

Notes to the Consolidated Ind AS Financial Statement

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and schemes offered by the Company as part of the contract. This variable consideration is estimated based on the expected value of outflow. Revenue (net of variable consideration) is recognized only to the extent that it is highly probable that the amount will not be subject to significant reversal when uncertainty relating to its recognition is resolved.

Sale of Goods

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when the control on the goods have been transferred to the customer. The performance obligation in case of sale of product is satisfied at a point in time i.e., when the material is shipped to the customer or on delivery to the customer, as may be specified in the contract.

Interest

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the effective interest rate method. Interest income is included under the head "Other Income" in statement of profit and loss.

Export Incentive

Revenue from export incentives are accounted for on export of goods if the entitlements can be estimated with reasonable assurance and condition precedent to claim are fulfilled.

Expenses

All expenses are charged in statement of profit and loss as and when they are incurred.

7.2 Property, Plant & Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost comprising of purchase price and any initial directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any.

Depreciation is provided for property, plant and equipment on a straight line method so as to expense the cost less residual value over their useful lives assets as prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. The estimated useful lives and residual value are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any change in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Depreciation is not recorded on capital work-in progress until construction and installation is completed and the asset is for intended use.

7.3 Inventory

Inventories consists of Raw Material, Work In Progress, Finished Goods, Stores & Spares and packing materials.

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Raw materials, Stores & Spares & Packing material: Cost includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition on the weighted average basis.

Finished goods and work in progress: Cost includes cost of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on the normal operating capacity on a weighted average basis. Cost of finished goods includes other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

7.4 Employee benefits

a) Short Term Employee Benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages etc. and the expected cost of ex-gratia are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid when there is a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

b) Defined Contribution Plan

Contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as expense when employees have rendered services entitling them to such benefits.

c) Defined Benefit Plan

For defined benefit plans, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Remeasurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling and the return on plan assets (excluding interest), is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Past service cost, both vested and unvested, is recognised as an expense at the earlier of (a) when the plan amendment or curtailment occurs; and (b) when the entity recognises related restructuring costs or termination benefits.

The retirement benefit obligations recognised in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligations reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the scheme.

7.5 Taxation

Tax expense is the aggregate amount included in the determination of profit or loss for the period in respect of current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable in respect of taxable profit for a period. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible under the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Current tax is measured using tax rates that have been enacted by the end of reporting period for the amounts expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities.

Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit under Income tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences. However, in case of temporary differences that arise from initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction (other than business combination) that affect neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized. Also, for temporary differences if any that may arise from initial recognition of goodwill, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized.

Deferred tax assets are generally recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary difference can be utilized. In case of temporary differences that arise from initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction (other than business combination) that affect neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit, deferred tax assets are not recognized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the benefits of part or all of such deferred tax assets to be utilized.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Presentation of current and deferred tax:

Current and deferred tax are recognized as income or an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income, in which case, the current and deferred tax income/expense are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income.

The Company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. In case of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities, the same are offset if the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off corresponding current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the Company.

7.6 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Contingent Liability is disclosed in case of a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or where no reliable estimate is possible. Contingent liabilities are not recognised in financial statements but are disclosed in notes.

Contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity. Contingent assets are not recognised in financial statements and are disclosed in notes when it is virtually certain that economic benefits will inflow to the Company.

7.7 Foreign Currency Transactions

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded at exchange rates prevailing at the date of transactions. Exchange differences arising on foreign exchange transactions settled during the year are recognised in the statement of profit and loss of the year.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies which are outstanding, as at the reporting date are translated at the closing exchange rates and the resultant exchange differences are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are recognised using the exchange rate at date of initial transactions, are not retranslated.

In respect of forward contracts, the premium or discount on these contracts is recognized as income or expenditure over the period of the contract. Any profit or loss arising on the cancellation or the renewal of such contracts is recognized as income or expense for the year.

7.8 Impairment

Non-financial assets

The carrying amount of non-financial assets other than inventories are assessed at each reporting date to ascertain whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less cost to sell and value in use. Value in use is ascertained through discounting of estimated future cash flows using a discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of the time value of money and the risk specific to the assets. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels into cash generating units for which there are separately identifiable cash flows.

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment had been recognised.

Financial assets

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. In determining the allowances for doubtful trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the receivables that are due and allowance rates used in the provision matrix.

7.9 Cash and Cash Equivalents

For presentation in the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

7.10 Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the asset, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for the intended use or sale. Interest income earned on temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

The borrowing costs other than attributable to qualifying assets are recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which they incurred.

7.11 Financial Instruments

The company recognizes financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial asset or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in Statement of Profit and loss.

Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sale of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sale of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place. All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortized cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Classification of Financial Assets

(i) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(ii) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(iii) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories is subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.

(iv) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. For trade and other payables

maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

(v) Equity instrument

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(vi) Derecognition

The company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the company's balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

(vii) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

7.12 Segment Reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The company consider Ramming Mass as its single segment in which company operates. The Company has also dealt in Some Other products but their volume is nominal hence no reportable segments are their.

7.13 Fair Value Measurement

The Company measures financial instruments at fair value at each balance sheet date. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 - Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

7.14 Recent accounting pronouncements

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. For the year ended March 31, 2024, MCA has not notified any new standards or amendments to the existing standards applicable to the Company.

(C) Defined Benefit Plan:-

Gratuity

In accordance with the provisions of Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, the company has defined benefit plan which provides for gratuity payment. The plan provides a lump sum gratuity payment to eligible employees at retirement or termination of their employment. The amounts are based on the respective employee's last drawn salary and the year of employment with the company.

These plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as: Investment, Interest rate, longevity and salary risk::

A) Actuarial Risk: It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons:

Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in obligation at a rate that is higher than expected.

Variability in mortality rates : If actual mortality rates are higher than the assumed mortality rates assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cash flow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate.

Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rates are higher than assumed withdrawal rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.

B) Investment risk: For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter valuation period.

C) Liquidity risk: Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the company there can be strain on the cashflows.

D) Market risk: Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects time value of money. An increase in discount rate leads to decrease in Defined Benefit Obligation of the plan benefits and vice-versa. This assumption depends on the yields on the corporate / government bonds and hence the valuation of the liability is exposed to fluctuations in the yields as at the valuation date.

E) Legislative risk: Legislative risk is the risk of increase in the plan liabilities or reduction in the plan assets due to change in legislation / regulation. The Government may amend the Payment of Gratuity Act thus requiring the companies to pay higher benefits to the employees. This will directly affect the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation and the same will have to be recognised immediately in the year when any such amendment is effective.

No other post-retirement benefits are provided to the employees.

The actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out as at March 31, 2024 by a certified actuary of the Institute of Actuaries of India. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.
