Team Absolute | Bhopal

Voting is going to be held on 8 seats of Nimar-Malwa in the fourth phase of elections in Madhya Pradesh. This is the reason why this area has turned into a political arena and politicians have gathered here. These leaders are also preparing to make their last move to win the elections.

Voting has taken place in three phases of Lok Sabha elections in the state and the election is completely held for the fourth phase. In this phase, voting is to be held on 8 seats of Nimar-Malwa area on May 13. There are less than 24 hours left for the election campaign, on both the major political parties - BJP and Congress have put in all their strength. The right seats on which voting is to be held on Monday, all of them are extremely in the control of BJP. While BJP wants to maintain its lead, Congress is trying hard to make inroads here.

State Government Minister Kailash Vijayarajya, state election in-charge Dr. Mahendra Singh, vice-chancellor Satish Upadhyay and many other leaders held meetings. Meetings and workers are ranging from conferences to road shows. Some are flying by helicopter and

Are the positions of these 10 ministers of MP govt really in danger?

Sorley Seema | Bhopal

After coming to Bhopal, Anil Shah had warned that those ministers who have less voting in the Assembly this time compared to 2019, will have to lose their ministerial posts. So, after three phases of voting, are the positions of 10 ministers of Madhya Pradesh government now in danger? The turnout of these ministers in their assembly constituencies was less than last time.

In Anand Singh constituency, there was 10.4 percent less voting, in Vijay Singh's Harsod, there was 12.7 percent less voting. There was 6 percent less voting in Vikram Sarang area. There has been 3.2 percent less voting in Govind Rajpuro's assembly constituency. There was 10 percent less voting in Rakshak Shukla's Mehgaon. There was 7 percent less voting in Karan Singh Verma's constituency. In Nareyan Singh Kashwaha's Govind South assembly constituency, voting was two percent less. There was 7 percent less voting in Eswari Minister Pradyuman Singh Tomar's Govind assembly constituency. Similarly, 7 to 9 percent less voting has been recorded in the assembly constituencies of Krishna Gaur and Gaurav Terwal.

In such a situation, the positions of these ministers are now in danger. Anil Shah said he was very angry with the fact that despite giving targets, there has been less voting in the assembly constituencies of many ministers. BJP associates believe that due to this the party may have to suffer loss in the elections.
