Vance to meet Zelensky amid concerns about US-Russia talks to end war in Ukraine

MUNICH, FEB 14/-- Vice President JD Vance will lead the US delegation to the Munich Security Conference that starts Friday in the southern German city, where world leaders and diplomats are gathering amid intense concern and uncertainty over the Trump administration's foreign policy.

The future of Ukraine will be the top item on the agenda following a phone call between US President Donald Trump and Russian leader Vladimir Putin this week, when they pledged to work together to end the 3-year-old Russia-Ukraine conflict.

Vance is expected to meet Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy on Friday for talks that many — particularly in Europe — hope will shed at least some light on Trump's ideas for a negotiated settlement to the war.

Hours before the meeting was set to take place, a Russian drone with a high-explosive warhead hit the protective confinement shell of the Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant in the Kyiv region, the Ukrainian president said. Radiation levels have not increased, Zelenskyy and the U.N. atomic agency said.

US Secretary of State Marco Rubio was supposed to join Vance and Zelenskyy but was delayed when his Air Force plane had to return to Washington after developing a mechanical problem en route to Munich. The State Department spokeswoman said he would take a different aircraft, but it was unclear whether he would arrive in time for the meeting with Zelenskyy. Trump, who upended years of steadfast US support for Ukraine during his call with Putin on Wednesday, has been vague about his specific intentions — other than suggesting that a deal will likely result in Ukraine being forced to cede territory that Russia has seized since it annexed Crimea in 2014.

"The Ukraine war has to end," Trump told reporters Thursday. "Young people are being killed at levels that nobody's seen since World War II. And it's a ridiculous war."

The Russia-Ukraine war is the biggest conflict on the European continent since World War II.

Trump's undetailed musings have left Europeans in a quandary, wondering how — or even if — they can maintain the post-WWII security that NATO afforded them or fill the gap in the billions of dollars of security assistance that the Biden administration provided to Ukraine since Russia's February 2022 invasion. Trump has been highly skeptical of that aid and is expected to cut or otherwise limit it as negotiations get underway in the coming days.

"There can be no negotiation about Ukraine without Ukraine. And Ukraine's voice must be at the heart of any talks," UK Defence Secretary John Healey told reporters at NATO headquarters on Wednesday about whether Ukraine would have a seat at the table in US negotiations with Russia. But asked by reporters Thursday, Trump said, "Of course they would. I mean, they're part of it. We would have Ukraine, we have Russia and we'll have other people involved, too."

He also noted that representatives from Russia would be at the Munich Security Conference.

Both Trump and US Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth dashed Ukraine's hopes this week of becoming part of NATO, which the alliance said less than a year ago was "irreversible," or getting back its territory captured by Russia, which currently occupies close to 20% including Crimea.

"I don't see any way that a country in Russia's position could allow ... them to join NATO," Trump said Thursday. "I don't see that happening."

Asked what he thought Russia should give up to reach a deal, he noted that talks have not yet begun and that "maybe Russia will give up a lot, maybe they won't."

At NATO headquarters, Hegseth reiterated Thursday that "simply pointing out realism like the borders won't be rolled back to what everybody would like them to be in 2014 is not a concession to Vladimir Putin." He said it's a recognition of realities on the ground. He added, though, that neither Russia nor Ukraine will "get everything that they want" and stressed that "any negotiation that's had will be had with both." Rubio also told Ukrainian Foreign Minister Andrii Sybiha in a call before leaving for Munich that the US was committed to Ukrainian independence. He reiterated "the need for bold diplomacy to end the war in a negotiated manner leading to a sustainable peace," according to a State Department readout.

Vance, in an interview with the Wall Street Journal, said that the US would hit Moscow with sanctions and potentially military action if Putin won't agree to a peace deal with Ukraine that guarantees Kyiv's long-term independence. The warning that military options "remain on the table" was striking language from a Trump administration that's repeatedly underscored a desire to quickly end the war.

"There are economic tools of leverage, there are of course military tools of leverage," Vance added.

The US reassurances may have somewhat allayed Zelenskyy's fears, although they will not replace any lost military or economic support that the Biden administration had provided. The Ukrainian leader conceded Thursday that it was "not very pleasant" that the American president spoke first to Putin. But he said the main issue was to "not allow everything to go according to Putin's plan." "We cannot accept it, as an independent country, any agreements (made) without us," Zelenskyy said as he visited a nuclear power plant in western Ukraine. The track Trump is taking also has rocked Europe, much as his dismissive comments about France and Germany did during his first term. French Deputy Foreign Minister Benjamin Haddad described Europe as being at a turning point, with the ground shifting rapidly under its feet, and said Europe must wean itself off its reliance on the United States for its security. Indian-origin Singaporean jailed for harassing, making call to kill former President

SINGAPORE, FEB 14/-- An Indian-origin Singaporean was sentenced to 10 months and 12 weeks' jail after he pleaded guilty to three harassment charges such as an Instagram post on then President Halimah Yacob "deserves to be dragged out" and killed.

Vickreman Harvey Chettiar, 34, pleaded guilty to three harassment charges on February 12. He also admitted to one count of fabricating false evidence. Fourteen other charges, including multiple counts of harassment, were considered during his sentencing, reported The Straits Times on Friday.

He was out on bail for offences including harassment when he said in an Instagram story on April 30, 2023, that then President Halimah Yacob "deserves to be dragged out" and killed.

Vickreman published the social media post as he felt aggrieved over the executions of drug traffickers.

Death sentence is mandatory under Singapore law for convicted drug-traffickers. The President is the last high office for mercy appeal, depending on evidence.

After he was charged, Vickreman told a police officer that he wanted to stab a judge who presided over his case at the time. Without revealing details, deputy public prosecutors Kevin Yong and Shaun Lim stated in court documents that Vickreman had earlier claimed to be suffering from mental disorders. The Institute of Mental Health found his complaints to be unsubstantiated after examining him on two separate occasions, according to the Singapore daily. On April 30, 2023, Vickreman published the Instagram story calling for Madam Halimah's death.

Vickreman was charged in court over the post and District Judge Lorraine Ho imposed bail conditions, stating: "(The) accused is to delete all posts from his social media accounts as well as to delete all social media applications from all his electronic devices. 'The accused is not to log in to any social media accounts on any devices including those not belonging to him. The accused is not to post any posts or make any comments on any social media platforms or accounts.'" A trial was then fixed for March 5 to 7, 2024.

But on February 28 that year, Vickreman filled out a submission on the State Courts website, making several demands and declaring an intent not to attend the trial. The State Courts saw the submission and one of its staff members replied by e-mail, advising Vickreman to desist from such behaviour and attend the trial.

On March 1, 2024, Vickreman, who was unhappy with the bail conditions, replied to the e-mail with a message that contained a threat of violence against Judge Ho. The State Courts lodged a police report and the trial was vacated due to Vickreman's claims of illness. One week after sending his threatening e-mail, Vickreman called the police hotline and told an officer that he wanted to slash and stab the judge. The officer lodged a report on the matter.

Three days later, the prosecution applied to revoke Vickreman's bail, partly on the basis that he had reoffended. To help his then defence lawyer resisted the prosecution's application to revoke bail, Vickreman filed a police report on March 18, 2024. (PTI)

Pope Francis being hospitalised for medical tests, to treat bronchitis, Vatican says

ROME, FEB 14/-- Pope Francis is being hospitalised to treat his bronchitis and undergo some necessary diagnostic tests, the Vatican said Friday in confirming the latest threat to the 88-year-old's pontiff's health.

Francis was diagnosed with bronchitis last Thursday, but he has continued to hold daily audiences in his Vatican hotel suite and preside over general audiences and even presided at an outdoor Mass last Sunday. He has however handed off his speeches for an aide to read aloud, saying he was having trouble breathing. Francis, who had part of one lung removed as a young man, has long battled health problems, especially long bouts of acute bronchitis in winter. He uses a wheelchair, walker or cane when moving around his apartment and recently fell twice, hurting his arm and chin.

Ever since his diagnosis, Francis has appeared bloated, an indication the medication he was taking to treat the lung infection was making him retain water. Francis was being hospitalised at Rome's Gemelli hospital, where he was last hospitalised in June 2023 to have surgery to remove intestinal scar tissue and repair a hernia in the abdominal wall. A few months before that, he spent three days in the hospital to receive intravenous antibiotics for a respiratory infection. A Vatican statement said Francis would be admitted at the end of his Friday audiences. In addition to regular Vatican officials, the pope met Friday morning with the Slovak prime minister, Robert Fico and the head of CNN, Mark Thompson. (AP)
