TRIPLE THREAT SON SPARKS SPURS

Tottenham score thrice in second half to scourge Bundesliga leaders 3-0 in R16 first leg

AFP ■ LONDON

Tottenham took a huge step towards reaching the Champions League quarter-finals as Son Heung-min inspired their 3-0 win over Borussia Dortmund in the first leg.

Mauricio Pochettino's side had been under the cosh as Dortmund dominated the first half at Wembley on Wednesday, but Hugo Lorris kept them level with a series of fine saves.

That set the stage for a sublime second half from Tottenham, who were sparked into life by a fine finish from South Korea forward Son.

Son's fourth goal in his last four appearances took him to 16 for the season, but none have been as priceless as this one.

Tottenham defender Jan Vertonghen capped his own powerful performance when he swept in their second goal in the closing stages and substitute Fernando Llorente's late third put the seal on a remarkable result.

Although Tottenham still have to survive the second leg at Signal Iduna Park on March 5, they have a golden opportunity to reach the Champions League quarter-finals for the first time since 2011.

It was an especially impressive success for Pochettino given he was without the injured Harry Kane, Dele Alli, Danny Rose and Ben Davies.

Pochettino devised a clever game plan that eventually frustrated Dortmund and secured Tottenham's first ever Champions League knockout-round win at home.

With Rose and Davies sidelined, Pochettino deployed centre back Vertonghen out of position at left wing-back and switched to a three-man defence that stifled the Bundesliga leaders.

Lucas Moura gave Tottenham an early spark when he latched onto Davinson Sanchez's header and smashed a volley just wide from the edge of the area.

Juan Yothi gifted Dortmund their first sight of goal when he dived on the ball too long and was alertly dispossessed by Christian Pulisic.

But Lorris saved Fernando's blazes as he blocked Pulisic's shot at the near post.

Dortmund's raptor attacks were led by Jadon Sancho, who left Manchester City to join Dortmund in 2017 without ever playing for the Premier League team.

Just two years later, the 23-year-old winger made his first appearance back on home soil now established as an England international rated as one of Europe's hottest prospects.

Sancho hit top gear on several occasions in a mesmerising first-half display, leaving two Tottenham midfielders for dead and linking with Pulisic, whose shot was blocked at the last minute.

It took Tottenham over half an hour before they finally forced keeper Roman Burki into action after Son wriggled through the visitors' defence.

Lorris made a superb save to deny Dortmund on the stroke of half-time as Dan-Axel Zagadou met Sancho's cross with a header that the Tottenham captain clawed out at full stretch.

Despite being pushed back for much of the first half, Tottenham had refused to surrender and their perseverance was rewarded in the 47th minute.

When Vertonghen swung over a cross from the left, Dortmund's defence were out of position for the first time all night and Son timed his run perfectly behind Zagadou to cross a fine ball past Burki.

"My players are heroes. They deserve a lot of praise for the effort they are doing this season. It is amazing, 3-0 is a very good result but at the same time we have to think that we have to finish the job."

—MAURICIO POCHETTINO (Tottenham Hotspur coach)

"I don't have any words for the second half. Tottenham were the better team. The first half was playing really well. In the second half we just dropped a bit and lost focus."

—JODAN SANCHO (Borussia Dortmund winger)

"Harry or Dele are very important for us but we have players who can come in and do well. We scored in it and do well."

—SON HEUNG-MIN (Spurs forward)

Suddenly, Tottenham had all the momentum and Vertonghen rampaged forward to fire over.

Spurs were rampant and Lorente completed a memorable night when he glanced a close-range header past Burki from Christian Eriksen's corner three minutes later.

Asensio & VAR spoil Ajax moment

AFP ■ AMSTERDAM

Real Madrid needed a late winner from Marco Asensio and VAR's debut in the Champions League to beat a spirited Ajax 2-1 in the first leg of the last 16 on Wednesday.

Ajax have not beaten Madrid in 24 years and thought they were on their way at the Johan Cruyff Arena when Nicolas Tagliafico headed home after a Thibaut Courtois error.

But referee Damir Skomina judged Dusan Tadic to be off-side upon review and Madrid showed no pity on their youthful opponents, Karim Benzema and Asensio scoring two precious away goals in the second half.

Hakim Ziyech's equaliser at least keeps Ajax in touch heading into the second leg at the Santiago Bernabeu but Asensio's 87th-minute winner was a sucker-punch in a match the Dutch team had largely dominated.

Their ruled out opener would only add to the sense of what might have been and it was no surprise to see a cluster of red and white shirts surrounding the officials at the final whistle.

VAR has been introduced to the Champions League for the first time in this year's knock-out stages and leaders were distributed to the media to explain how reviews should only be for "clear and obvious mistakes".

Still, there was more than an hour to play and Ajax were twice too easily undone on the counter-attack. Frankie de Jong, who will join Barcelona in the summer, and Matthijs de Ligt, who could follow him, were each dealt a lesson in the ruthlessness of top European football.

Gareth Bale was reinstated to the Madrid starting line-up but there was no place for Marcelo, who missed his first Champions League knock-out game in four years.
